Re: Lorenzo A. Jackson v. State
Appellate Case No. 2019-001346

Dear Counsel:

This responds dated November 5, 2019.

While I assume this letter may be seeking to be allowed to withdraw as counsel for petitioner, you have not specifically asked for that relief and have not provided any indication that this request has been served on the opposing party and your client as required Rule 264(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.<sup>1</sup> If your intent is to be allowed to withdraw as the counsel for the petitioner, I ask that you file a petition seeking that specific relief and that you provide proof that a copy of

An attorney of record in a matter pending before an appellate court may not withdraw from representation of his client without justifiable cause, or the consent of his client; and then only after proper written notice to his client, on petition to and by written order of the appellate court, and with notice to the adverse party.

that petition has been served on your client and the opposing party. This petition should be filed within ten (10) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,
