Dear Ms. Allen:

In response to your February 5, 2013 letter regarding the pending motion to dismiss, I would remain as counsel for Mr. Draper if the motion to dismiss me personally from the Appeal is granted. I just feel that I am an unnecessary party to the issues raised whereas when I filed the appeal I was afraid that I might be waiving something if I did not include myself because I was a party to the action below from which the appeal was taken.

With kindest regards, I remain

Yours very truly,

Matthew H. Henrikson
