Mr. Redman,

I hope I am understanding this correctly, but this is the correct transcript I provided, you are just inquiring whether it is considered "official and certified" so that you can file it for an appeal? It is official and certified, however, I do know attorneys do like it in paper form where the certification page (last page) is actually signed and then stamped with "original". I would be more than happy to print out a hard copy and sign that page and stamp it, all that would be required is the $7.65 for shipping, but I would not charge any more for this exact transcript to be printed, if that makes sense.

If you do send the shipping, if you could just please provide me this information so that I will know what case and the circumstances as I get multiple requests a day and it does get confusing.

Again, you can send it to my attention at PO 762, Conway, SC 29526.

If you have any other questions, or if I did not understand your request properly, please don't hesitate to contact me!

Subject: Appellate Case # 2019-001822 - Isaac v. Kopchynski - Appeal of Isaac v. Onions, Kopchynski, and Lane's - Case #2018-CP-22-00956

Mrs. Dahl,

Good Morning. Judge Culbertson her two Motions for Summary Judgment on July 26, 2019 in the above-referenced matter. My office represents the Plaintiffs, and we have filed a Notice of Appeal of the order granting Summary Judgment to Defendant Laura Kopchynski. The purpose of this email is to order a copy of the underlying transcript from you, pursuant to Rule 207, of the South Carolina Rules of Appellate Procedure.

You had previously provided my office with a transcript of said hearings prior to our filing our Motion to Alter or Amend this Judgment. That correspondence is in the email chain below. Therefore, we wanted to reach out to you and ask that if the transcript previously provided to my office would be the same as one ordered in the event of an appeal. Please let us know if we will need to request a certified or a second transcript or whether the transcript previously provided is the exact same information you would be generating and providing for the Appeal.

Kindest Regards,

George.
