RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

Respondent Jesse Cook, by and through his undersigned attorney, respectfully moves the South Carolina Court of Appeals to dismiss Appellant Edward Jenerette's appeal of the Order issued by the Honorable Larry Hyman on the ground that the appeal is interlocutory and not subject to review under S.C. Code Ann. § 14-3-330. The motion is based on the following:

1. Respondent filed a Summons and Complaint on December 12, 2017 stemming from an automobile accident wherein Appellant's automobile insurance carrier admitted liability. During settlement negotiations with the insurance company, the statute of limitations expired. However, the insurance company continued to negotiate and ultimately settled the companion case involving Respondent's son, who also was injured in the accident.

2. Thereafter, the Honorable William H. Seals, Jr. signed a Form 4 Order dismissing both actions due to the failure to serve the Summons and Complaint.

3. After the insurance company reversed course and ceased negotiations, Respondent filed a Motion to Restore Case, which the Honorable Larry Hyman granted.

4. As the Order neither is a final decision nor falls within the exceptions for interlocutory orders enumerated in S.C. Code Ann. § 14-3-330, Appellant is not permitted to appeal at this time.

WHEREFORE, Respondent respectfully requests the Court grant its Motion to Dismiss and enter an order dismissing, without prejudice, Appellant's appeal.

In support of this Motion, Respondent relies upon his Memorandum in Support.
