

91561

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

DWIGHT GRAY,
APPELLATE

vs.

KIMBRELLS FURNITURE,
RESPONDENT

MOTION TO REINSTATE APPEAL

APPELLATE CASE NUMBER

2018-001606

MOTION TO REINSTATE APPEAL

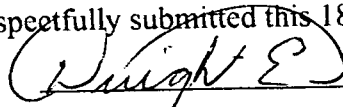

On October 15, 2019 the Court Ordered dismissal of the Appeal and later authorized the Appellant to file motion to reinstate appeal by November 20, 2019.

FOR GOOD CAUSE, and due to the administrative and jurisdictional complexity of the issues involved, Appellant is and was unable to prepare an appropriate designation of matter and response within the proscribed deadline at no fault of himself, and now moves for the Court to Reinstate Appeal. These issues supremely involves a constitutional right to due process. There are no prejudices to the Respondents by reinstating this Appeal.

The Appellant repeatedly requested a copy of the transcript and record of the case. The Appellant has exercise every effort to prosecute this appeal to the fullest extent of the Rules for South Carolina Court of Appeals. The transcript is out of the control of the Appellant. The Appellant made diligent efforts to secure the transcript. Appellant moves the South Carolina Court of Appeals to reinstate appeal, as a matter judicial fairness.

THEREFORE, with All Due Respect to this Honorable Court, this Appellant is requesting that the Court restore the Appeal in its' entirety

Respectfully submitted this 18th day of November, 2019,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Dwight Gray", is written over a horizontal line.

Dwight Gray, Appellant-Plaintiff pro se
209 Mountain Gap
Taylors, South Carolina 29887

