RE: STATUS OF CASE - 2018-001099

Dear Elizabeth Carter,

It is my belief from a conversation you had with my Pastor Gary Haiduc that if I choose to go forward now, my Initial Brief, Reply Brief and Designation of Matter will be considered by the Court of Appeals. If this is true I wish to proceed forward.

Thank you

GAVIN V. JONES

Elizabeth Carter,

I WAS a little confused when my Pastor told me your name and the message you had referred to him.

I'll be honest and frank with you, I've seen some things done by the Attorney General and Courts that you would have never made me believe before I came to prison.

And I am not using this God given chance to sway you, but to just let you know people want to trust in the integrity of the higher Courts

My question is will my Reply Brief and designation of matter be considered with my Initial Brief? That is the Question my Pastor was suppose to ask you, he said he did but the response you gave sounded strange and then I have never heard of Elizabeth Carter.

I want to go forward, because I don't see nothing else I can file.

What else can I file?

Will the Court be fair?

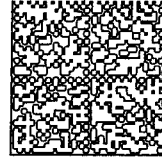

SC Court of Appeals

I hate to ask you that but I have seen the Court hold us to the standard of a trained attorney, and deny us when they can clearly see, what was done to the person was wrong.

My Pastor said you would answer any questions. In the Attorney General's brief it seem that they were signing the Court Avenues to deny me without seeing and hearing the Truth. Kill me procedurally and no one ever hears the truth. I know you cannot do anything, it just suprised me when my pastor said, you said "I could ask you questions. Well I've asked.
