

Dear Court of Appeals,

I am praying that as you read this you will understand and will consider what I am asking for. Just thing I would like to say is that I am truly sorry for the Pain and suffering that I caused my victims. If I could I would do whatever it took to change all of this. I'm also praying that you will understand what I was going through at the time of this terrible tragedy. I'm not asking or wanting my sympathy at all. I am willing to do whatever it takes to make this right.

In 1996 I became mentally and physically disabled. And in 2016 I was diagnosed with a rare type of breast cancer. I have Ductal and Lobule breast cancer. In 2017-2018 I underwent two types of chemotherapy then I had a lumpectomy and twelve lymph nodes removed under my arm, where two of those came back positive for cancer. I now have to take a pill for the next ten years because I am at high risk of it. Returning 2018 I also had to have radiation. During all of this my Mother who lived with me whom I had been taking care of for the last thirteen years died in May 2018 to a horrible death of lung cancer.

Then in October 2018 is when I found out about my husband's infidelity which left me very insecure and broken and that is putting it mildly. Needless to say I was in a very delicate state of mind.

I did go to the Dallas General where this lady worked and assault her, but I did not attempt to nor did I kidnap anyone.

This was ultimately the biggest mistake of my life. There are no words to describe how I am for what I done to my victims.

That was totally out of Character of who I am,
This is not the person I am at all. I feel that I had a mental break down.

I am begging for the to please have mercy on me and grant me an appeal because I didn't kidnap or did I try to kidnap anyone.

I would like to Thank You for your time and consideration.

May God Bless You!

Sincerely,
