SC Court of Appeals

Pedro Wise,.....Appellant, v.
South Carolina Department of Corrections,.....Respondent.

MOTION FOR REINSTATEMENT
RULE 260, SCACR

Appellant now moves this Honorable Court to be heard on this "Motion for Reinstatement" on his appeal following the Amended Order of Dismissal, dated December 6, 2012.

Appellant now asserts that he is entitled to the reinstatement of his appeal because he did not receive the Amended Order of Dismissal until February 4, 2013. At which time, he was unaware that the Order of dismissal was on the wrong matter. In reply to the original order of dismissal, appellant began to litigate about the loss or destruction of his initial brief. Appellant has had several problems with the Kershaw Correctional Institution's legal mail system has lost and/or destroyed documents that I have mailed. Appellant has consistently received resistance in his access to the courts.

In support of this motion, Appellant now hereby provides a Designation of Matter to this court.

For the foregoing reasons, Appellant prays that this motion be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Pedro Wise
