SC Court of Appeals

To Whom it may concern:

I Yvonne L. Hemmings is begging for the Court to waive the Court Fee of $250.00. I really can't afford it. I receive $1,154.00 a month. My spouse Peter R. Hemmings is disabled and has been since June 6, 2007 at age 46 and had second heart attack May, 2013. He applied for Social Security several times but was told he doesn't have enough points in the system. Right now we are in a financial bind. Presently we owe First Citizens Bank $6,122.33, and Discover Card $4,486.19, these two were used to help us pay our bills, and not including several hospital bills.

I received the letter from the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission dated October 15, 2019, and when I called on 12/17/19 to find out what was going on with the case. I spoke with Mrs. Eugenia Hollmon, she told me that the case was closed and I told her that I didn't know that I was suppose to contact them within thirty days. And she told me to appeal it at the courts of Appeal.

Please help me, your consideration will greatly be appreciated.

Sincerely Thanks,
Yvonne L. Hemmings
