Re: Gregory Mackey v. SCDPPPS
Appellate Case No. 2019-000553

Dear Mr. Mackey:

Upon reviewing your record on appeal, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be dismissed:

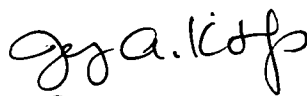

- The caption does not comply with Rule 267(a), SCACR. Specifically, the caption of the document should read "Record on Appeal," and all names and addresses of all counsel shall be on the title page.
- Pursuant to Rule 210(d), SCACR, nothing shall be printed on the title page except the caption.
- Pursuant to Rule 210(e), SCACR, the record on appeal shall contain an index.

The Court is in receipt of your motions to file out of time, the record on appeal, and the final reply brief. The Court is still awaiting the appellant's final brief. You previously submitted initial briefs but not final briefs. The Appellant's Final Brief must be submitted within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be dismissed.

In response to your cover letter stating the Court did not return "clocked-in-stamped copy(ies)" of briefs, you did not provide the Court with self-addressed, stamped envelopes for return of these briefs. Upon review of your cover letters, you did provide a copy of these briefs for return but no self-addressed, stamped envelope. The Court has enclosed copies of these clocked in copies, but in going forward, a self-addressed stamped envelope must be included along with a copy of the filing if you want the document to be returned to you.

Very truly yours,

CLERK

Enclosure
