Re: Sylvia Lockaby v. City of Simpsonville, Janice Curtis, and Adam Randolph
Appellate Case No. 2019-001449

Dear Madam or Sir:

Good afternoon. By letter on December 30, 2019, the Court notified the undersigned that it had not yet received any information regarding an extension being granted to the court reporter. A copy of the letter notifying the South Carolina Office of Court Administration of the transcript delay, that was sent on November 26, 2019, is enclosed with this letter along with a proof of service and the requisite duplicates. I have received no communication from either the court reporter or the Office of Court Administration regarding this transcript since the enclosed correspondence.

Of course, if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me.

With kind regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
HARRISON, RADEKER & SMITH, P.A.

Re: Sylvia Lockaby v. City of Simpsonville, Janice Curtis, and Adam Randolph
Common Pleas Case No. 2018-CP-23-00731
Appellate Case No. 2019-001449

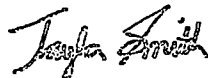

Dear Ms. Allen:

Please allow this letter to inform South Carolina Court Administration that the appellant, Sylvia Lockaby, has not yet received the transcript from the summary judgment hearing in the above-referenced matter. Our firm requested the transcript by letter on September 9, 2019 from Ms. April Herron, the court reporter at the mentioned hearing, which proved dispositive of this case at the trial level. A copy of that correspondence (that was also filed with the Court of Appeals) is enclosed herewith.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Of course, if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me.

With kind regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
