S.C. SUPREME COURT

Re: George W. Hughes v. State of South Carolina.
Appellate Case No. 2018-000553

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

By correspondence dated January 3, 2020, I requested that the enclosed Second Revised Petition for Writ of Certiorari be accepted for filed on today's date. I am attaching a copy of that request for your convenient reference. I realize that this request had not yet been ruled upon; however, I am enclosing my Second Revised Petition for Writ of Certiorari at this time. It was mailed on today's date. The Appendix to this PCR appeal was previously filed with the Court. I am enclosing one extra copy which I would appreciate being returned to me in the enclosed self-addressed envelope with postage affixed.

I appreciate your assistance in this matter. I hope you and your family had a joyful Christmas and that you will be blessed in 2020. I remain,

Sincerely yours,
