Re: Timothy Blassingame v. State

Appellate Case No. 2019-002095

Lower Court Case No. 2019 CP 3700315

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I am in receipt of your letter dated Jan. 6, 2020. Within your letter you asked me to explain why a Appeal should be taken in this matter when the Judgment I wish to Appeal did not resolve my Rule 60(b)(4) motion.

Mr. Shearouse, with all do respect, for starters a prisoner shall have a "Judicial Right" to Appeal any Judgment or Order a court filed against him/her to Challenge the "Legalitys" of the ruling.<sup>(1)</sup>

Footnote

1. See/ Art. I section 22, S.C. Const.

In this case, I filed a S.C.R. Civ. Proc., Rule 56(a), motion for Summary judgment on the Respondent on or about June 17th 2019.<sup>(1)</sup> The South Carolina Supreme Court Mandates that....

“Once a party has been served a motion for Summary Judgment, and if the party whom which were served does not respond before the expiration of time allowed<sup>(2)</sup> set out in this rule, a ruling shall be made in favor of the Claimant”.

Therefore, the Courts ruling that the Respondent in this case is not at Default for failing to respond to my Rule 56(a), motion for Summary judgment goes against the Rules of Court set out by The Supreme Court of South Carolina in which is what I want to Appeal.

I hope this explains why I wish to Appeal the lower Courts Judgment.

Sincerely
Timothy Blassingame

Footnote

1) After (4) months of no response to his Summary Judgment Petitioner filed a Default Motion.

2) Thirty (30) days.
