Re: Appellate Case No. 2019-000768

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

Please be advised by the mailing address above that I have been transferred to a different correctional facility. I arrived here on January 6, 2020. Due to circumstances beyond my control my legal box (materials) did not come with me until much later, and as such, has hampered my preparation and submittance of my prose response.

Additionally, law library access, here, is by a week-in-advance, sign up system, for an hour and a half per session. Causing an additional unforeseen hardship where my research is conducted, as it is my every intention to submit a response prepared in as proper format as possible.

With my response being due on or by February 1, 2020, I am concerned about having it completed on time. And as such, rather than err on the side of caution I would respectfully wish to petition the court for an extension of 30 days to ensure that my submission is timely, as well as, fully prepared.

This request is made with the assurance that it is not intended to create an unnecessary intentional delay.

Having said as much, I anxiously await any response that the court finds suitable, and just.

Yours, Sincerely, I am
Tamarcus Detrell Long
