

The South Carolina Court of Appeals Feb 18, 2013
Appellate Case Number 2012-211936 67336

From: Appellant Sharon D. Vaughan (Pro-Se)

RECEIVED
FEB 22 2013
SC Court of Appeals

To The Court:

In the matter, Appellant Vaughan is submitting, Emergency Writ of Stay & Supersedeas, for Injunction. Appellant is submitting within 10 days of a Fraudulent Order Being signed by Lower Court, and attached to this Writ.

- (1) Because Appellant Vaughan (Pro-Se) is representing herself in this appeal.
- (2) Because of a Critical Medical Emergency which rendered the Appellant Vaughan (Pro-Se) unable to carry out, any Business or Personal affairs for over a week, there is a time delay, only in the mailing, appellant answered within the 10 days of order was signed. Asking the Court for consideration on this matter. (Order attached to Writ.)

Sincerely,
Sharon D. Vaughan
14 Coltenham Circle
Greenville SC 29617
864 325-9551