1 MR. SORENSON: The State calls Daemon Crim.

2 Good afternoon, ma'am.

3 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

4 MR. SORENSON: Before you, Your Honor, is Daemon
5 Crim with his attorney Larry Weidner with the Beaufort
6 County Bar.

7 We are here, Your Honor, to enter guilty pleas on 8 two indictments, 2016-GS-18-1409, 1410, two counts of 9 criminal sexual conduct with a minor in the second
10 degree.

11 (WHEREUPON, counselors confer and documents signed by 12 defendant.)

13 MR. SORENSON: May I approach, Your Honor?

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 MR. SORENSON: And these, Your Honor, would be they 16 are both criminal sexual conduct with a minor second
17 degree under Statute 16-3-665(B). One of them is under 18 Subsection 1, and one of them is under Subsection 2.

19 THE CLERK: State your name for the record.

20 THE WITNESS: Daemon Crim.

21 (WHEREUPON, the witness was duly sworn.)

22 THE COURT: All right. You are Daemon Michael Crim?

23 MR. CRIM: Yes, ma'am.

24 THE COURT: All right. And you are represented by 25 Mr. Weidner?

1 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: And is that right, Weidner instead of 3 Weidner?

4 MR. WEIDNER: Weidner.

5 THE COURT: Known as Weidner, okay.

6 MR. SORENSON: I'm sorry.

7 THE COURT: No, no worries.

8 MR. SORENSON: The minute it came out of my mouth it

9 was like I am not positive ---

10 THE COURT: No worries.

11 MR. SORENSON: --- that is right.

12 THE COURT: No worries. All right.

13 Mr. Crim, I have questions for your attorney and 14 then questions for you.

15 Counsel, have you advised your client regarding the 16 nature of these offenses, the maximum possible penalty,

17 and his constitutional rights including his rights to a

18 jury trial?

19 MR. WEIDNER: Yes, ma'am, I have.

20 THE COURT: Have you also discussed with your client

21 the classification of these offenses; one of them is a

22 violent offense -- or the classification of violent and 23 the classification of most serious?

24 MR. WEIDNER: Yes, ma'am, I have.

25 THE COURT: All right. And in your opinion does

1 your client understand the nature of these offenses, the
2 maximum possible penalty, and consequences in his rights?

3 MR. CRIM: Yes, ma'am.

4 THE COURT: Tell me how he wishes to plead to each
5 of these two offenses?

6 MR. WEIDNER: To each of the two offenses he pleads
7 guilty.

8 THE COURT: And do you concur with his decisions?

9 MR. WEIDNER: Yes, ma'am.

10 THE COURT: From your investigation of the facts and 11 circumstances of your client's case do you believe that 12 the State could produce sufficient evidence to convict
13 and establish your client's guilt beyond a reasonable
14 doubt and if he was to stand trial that his conviction
15 would be probable?

16 MR. WEIDNER: Yes, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: And do you have any concerns regarding 18 your client's competency?

19 MR. WEIDNER: No, ma'am.

20 THE COURT: All right.

21 Now Mr. Crim, I have many questions to ask of you.
22 The reason that I am asking you these questions is to be
23 sure that you are entering into these proceedings freely
24 and voluntarily, knowingly and intelligently.

25 If at any point in time you do not understand my

1 question, do not answer it but let me know that you do
2 not understand my question. There are many ways to
3 explain any one thing.

4 And if you need to stop and speak with Mr. Weidner I
5 want you to feel free to do that. Do you understand?

6 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. Tell me how old you are.

8 MR. CRIM: Twenty-three, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: How far did you go in school?

10 MR. CRIM: To graduated high school, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Are you married?

12 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Where are you employed?

14 MR. CRIM: I am currently employed at Pilot Travel
15 Center off -- in Charleston.

16 THE COURT: Have you ever been treated for alcohol
17 or drug abuse?

18 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Have you ever been treated for mental 20 health challenges?

21 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: In the last 72 hours have you had any 23 alcohol?

25 THE COURT: All right. When?

1 MR. CRIM: It was about two days ago, Your Honor.
 2 THE COURT: That would have been Saturday?
 3 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.
 4 THE COURT: All right. What did you have?
 5 MR. CRIM: A few beers, Your Honor.
 6 THE COURT: Can you help me be a little more
 7 specific?
 8 MR. CRIM: About four, Your Honor.
 9 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?
 10 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.
 11 THE COURT: All right. Have you had any drugs?
 12 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.
 13 MR. WEIDNER: Have you had any medicine?
 14 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.
 15 THE COURT: All right. What medicine?
 16 MR. CRIM: I am under Flomax, Your Honor, for kidney 17 stones currently.
 18 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?
 19 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.
 20 THE COURT: All right. Did you have your Flomax
 21 yesterday?
 22 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.
 23 THE COURT: And today?
 24 MR. CRIM: And this morning, Your Honor.
 25 THE COURT: All right. And is there anything about

1 your kidney stone situation or the medicine that would
2 interfere with your ability to know what you are doing
3 here today?

4 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. Now is there anything about 6 the fact that you had four beers on Saturday that would 7 keep you from knowing or understanding or interfering
8 with your ability to know what we are doing here today?

9 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Do you agree with that, Mr. Weidner?

11 MR. WEIDNER: Yes, ma'am.

12 THE COURT: All right. Now are you aware of any
13 issues or challenges or problems that you have - and I am
14 going to give you some examples - a physical problem, a
15 mental problem, a nervous problem, a drug or an alcohol
16 problem, are you aware of any issues or challenges or 17 problems that you have in life that might or could 18 interfere with your ability to know exactly what you are 19 doing here today?

20 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Now, Mr. Crim, are you on 22 probation or parole currently?

23 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. Now let's -- I want to talk
25 with you about these two offenses.

1 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: I am first going to talk to you about
3 2016-GS-18-1410 and then 2016-GS-18-1409.

4 Mr. Crim, do you understand first of all that this
5 offense is punishable by 20 years in prison?

6 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. And do you understand that
8 this offense has specific classifications, the first of 9 which is violent, the other is most serious. I want to 10 talk first about the classification of violent and then 11 the classification of the most serious, okay.

12 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: If you have questions I want you to 14 certainly to ask me or ask your attorney.

15 Now, Mr. Crim, when a person is convicted of a 16 violent offense that classification has an impact on an
17 individual both inside the Department of Corrections if a
18 person is sentenced to the Department of Corrections and 19 then when the person is released from the Department of 20 Corrections to their -- the rules that govern the way
21 they can live once they are out of the Department of 22 Corrections. And I want to give you that overarching
23 description, and then I am going to be a little more
24 specific.

25 So my first question for you is do you understand

1 that because this is a violent offense and has that
2 classification if you are incarcerated you will be
3 incarcerated in a facility intended for violent
4 offenders; do you understand that?

5 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: And then do you understand that a person
7 who is convicted of a violent offense is not allowed to 8 earn work credits or educational credits; do you
9 understand that?

10 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. Do you understand that there
12 are also consequences for when that person is released
13 from the Department of Corrections; for example, that 14 person because they have been convicted of a violent
15 offense they are not allowed to work in any capacity in 16 the School District; do you understand?

17 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Those individuals are not allowed to 19 have a residential care license; do you understand that?

20 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. And unless it is a part of 22 their employment they are not allowed to own body armor
23 or use body armor; do you understand that?

24 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. And there are other

1 consequences to the classification of a violent offense.

2 Do you understand?

3 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Is there any question in your mind that
5 this offense is a violent offense?

6 (WHEREUPON, Mr. Crim confers with counsel.)

7 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. It has that classification.

9 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Now this offense also is 11 classified as most serious. And I need you to listen
12 very carefully.

13 Under the Statute 17-25-45, which is a statute which 14 has been passed by legislature and it is intended no
15 doubt from a policy standpoint of being an anti-16 recidivism statute, and what this statute says is that 17 there will be certain crimes that will have certain 18 classifications in South Carolina and if a person is 19 convicted of a crime with the classification which is 20 most serious - and those are offenses like criminal
21 sexual conduct with a minor under (B)(1). Murder,
22 kidnapping, burglary in the first degree are examples of 23 most serious offenses - if a person is convicted of one 24 most-serious offense and they are then charged over the 25 course of their life with a second most-serious offense

1 and the State serves that person notice that the State
2 intends to seek a penalty of life without the possibility
3 of parole and the person is then convicted of that second
4 most-serious offense then the person will spend the rest
5 of their life in prison without the possibility of 6 parole. Do you understand that?

7 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: That is a consequence to this plea here
9 today. Do you understand?

10 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: You will have a most-serious strike. Do
12 you understand?

13 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. There is another
15 consequence. Under the same statute, 17-25-45, there is 16 another group of crimes which are serious crimes. They 17 have that classification.

18 And the rule with regard to the serious crime is if 19 a person is convicted of one most-serious and a serious
20 crime and they are then charged with a second serious
21 offense and the State serves that person notice that the 22 State intends to seek a penalty of life without the 23 possibility of parole and the person is then convicted
24 they would spend the rest of their life in prison without 25 the possibility of parole. Do you understand?

1 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: In other words, a most-serious can also
3 be a strike under the three-strike rule or it can be 4 considered as most-serious to -- most-serious or under 5 the classification of serious. It can be one of the 6 three. Do you understand?

7 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Do you have any questions
9 about that?

10 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. One of the things that I do,
12 one of my practices, is that I establish at this point
13 what strike a person has. And I intend to do that. I am 14 going to begin with Mr. Sorenson and then Mr. Weidner and 15 then finally you.

16 All right. Mr. Sorenson, what strike do you believe 17 this is?

18 MR. SORENSON: This would be -- he doesn't have any 19 prior record. This would be his first strike.

20 THE COURT: All right. Very well.

21 Do you concur, Mr. Weidner?

22 MR. WEIDNER: Yes, ma'am, I do.

23 THE COURT: And most importantly, Mr. Crim, this
24 would be as you understand it your first strike?

25 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. Now do you understand, Mr.
2 Crim, that in the event that I sentence you to time in
3 prison, whatever that sentence is, is the time that you
4 need to count on serving?

5 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Very well.

7 Now I want to talk about 2016-GS-18-1409 which is 8 criminal sexual conduct with a minor. And this is under 9 16-36-55(B) (2). First of all, do you understand that this 10 offense also carries 20 years in prison?

11 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Do you understand that your exposure
13 here today is 40 years in prison?

14 (WHEREUPON, Mr. Crim confers with counsel.)

15 THE COURT: You can ask your lawyer. You can talk
16 to your lawyer.

17 (WHEREUPON, Mr. Crim confers with counsel.)

18 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. In other words, if I gave 20 you consecutive time, 20 plus 20 is 40; do you
21 understand?

22 MR. CRIM: Yes ---

23 THE COURT: That is how I arrived at that. All
24 right.

25 Now, Counsel, violent -- it is also violent?

1 MR. SORENSON: Yes -- yes, ma'am.

2 THE COURT: And it is also ---

3 MR. SORENSON: My position is it is most serious. I
4 think that is what we spent a fair amount of time ---

5 THE COURT: Yes, fair amount of time.

6 MR. SORENSON: --- back in chambers talking about.

7 THE COURT: Yes. Yes. And I will go over it in 8 just that way.

9 MR. SORENSON: Yes, ma'am.

10 THE COURT: Do you understand that everything that I 11 told you a moment ago about the classification of the 12 prior crime is violent; this one likewise is violent?

13 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: And all of the consequences that I just 15 told you about when we talked about 2016-GS-18-1410 apply 16 to this offense as well.

17 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Now there is a question
19 about whether or not this offense is a most-serious
20 offense. And I have spent a fair amount of time talking
21 to your lawyer as well as Mr. Sorenson about how the law
22 has developed and whether or not the State has changed an 23 old statute that would affect this offense from being a
24 most-serious offense.

25 And the State takes the position this is a

1 most-serious offense. And your very bright, capable
2 lawyer believes that there is a substantial argument that
3 this is no longer a most-serious offense. Do you
4 understand that?

5 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: I don't know that there is clarity about
7 that. But for purposes of your plea here today you need
8 to assume that this is a most-serious offense. Do you
9 understand?

10 MR. WEIDNER: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 MR. WEIDNER: And, ma'am, just to be clear, I am
13 taking the position that given the proper findings that 14 neither of these would be a most-serious offense.

15 THE COURT: That is correct. That is absolutely
16 correct. Thank you.

17 MR. WEIDNER: I didn't interrupt you before. I just 18 wanted to make sure that I had that.

19 THE COURT: That is absolutely appropriate, Mr.
20 Weidner. That is absolutely appropriate. Thank you.

21 MR. WEIDNER: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Yes. Yes. And for our record, I think
23 that the question is only about this one.

24 MR. WEIDNER: I understand.

25 THE COURT: I don't believe that there is a question

1 about whether or not 2016-GS-18-1410 is a most-serious
2 offense. I think it is.

3 And I think that you have a certainly a very 4 legitimate argument that this one may or may not be.

5 MR. WEIDNER: I understand your ruling.

6 THE COURT: Yes. This one being 2016-GS-18-1409.
7 Now very well.

8 So, Mr. Crim, again, what I have just explained to 9 you about most-serious offenses would and ought be 10 considered by you with regards to 2016-GS-18-1409. Do
11 you understand?

12 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Very well. Now I will ask
14 you -- or first of all, say that you have told me that 15 you understand the nature of these offenses. Well, let 16 me stop there because I failed to go over the sex-
17 offender registry.

18 Mr. Crim, do you understand that at the conclusion
19 of today's plea that you very well may be required to 20 register as a sex offender?

21 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: For the rest of your life?

23 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. And do you know that there
25 are a number of requirements for those who are registered

1 sex offender; do you understand?

2 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Govern where you can live. It is -- you
4 have to -- how often you have to register. If you change
5 your residence, for example, you have three days to 6 reregister that new address. And, quite frankly, our 7 Legislature is known to change those requirements from 8 time to time, and you are responsible for keeping up
9 with -- or would be responsible for keeping up with those 10 requirements. Do you understand?

11 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. And do you understand that 13 GPS monitoring for the rest of your life may be required
14 as well?

15 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. All right. Now and finally 17 do you understand that if you do not comply with the 18 requirements of the sex-offender registry that there are 19 penalties that are associated with violations?

20 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. And they are -- some of them
22 are mandatory.

23 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: And they are graduated. Meaning if you
25 fail to comply, first offense there is a penalty. If you

1 fail to comply with your sex-offender registry
2 requirements second offense the penalties are worse. Do
3 you understand?

4 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. All right. Now so you have 6 told me that you understand the nature of these offenses,
7 the maximum possible penalty, the consequences of your
8 plea here today. Keeping these matters in the forefront
9 of your mind, Mr. Crim, how to you plead to 2016-GS-18-
10 1409?

11 MR. CRIM: Guilty, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: How do yo plead to 2016-GS-18-1410?

13 MR. CRIM: Guilty, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Do you understand that when you plead
15 guilty you give up certain very important constitutional
16 rights?

17 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: We are going to go over some of them.
19 We will not go over all of them. But if you have 20 questions I certainly want you to stop, talk to your 21 lawyer, ask me. Okay?

22 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. First you give up the right
24 to remain silent. You are talking to me ---

25 MR. CRIM: Yes, ma'am.

1 THE COURT: --- so you are not being silent. That
2 is your Fifth Amendment right.

3 You give up your right against self-incrimination.
4 What that means is is that no one can make you testify
5 against yourself. Do you understand that?

6 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: You are under oath. You just told me
8 that you are guilty. That was self-incriminating. Do
9 you understand?

10 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: You just gave up your Fifth Amendment
12 right. Do you understand?

13 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: You give up your right to require that 15 the State prove you guilty beyond a reasonable doubt if 16 they can. You give up your right to have your lawyer
17 cross-examine the witnesses who would testify against 18 you. You give up your right to have your lawyer summon 19 witnesses to testify in your defense. You give up your 20 right to present defenses. You give up your right to 21 challenge any incrementing statements that you may have 22 made in this case; for example and typically what I am
23 talking about, are from oft-times confessions that were 24 given to law-enforcement. Well, those are self -- or 25 those are incriminating statements given to the

1 government. You give up your right to have your lawyer
2 challenge those. Do you understand that?

3 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: That is -- that is -- you give up your
5 right to have your lawyer challenge any stops or searches
6 or seizures that you think were not appropriate. You
7 give up your right to a jury trial. Do you understand?

8 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Now do you fully understand, Mr. Crim,
10 that if you wanted a jury trial you would certainly have 11 a jury trial?

12 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: And at that trial it would be up to you
14 to decide whether to testify or not. And in the event
15 that you chose to go to trial and you chose not to 16 testify, exercise your Fifth Amendment right, that the 17 judge would tell the jury trying your case that they 18 could not consider your decision not to testify. In 19 fact, the judge would tell the jury that the jury could
20 not even discuss your decision not to testify in the jury
21 room because that was the exercise of your Fifth
22 Amendment right and you didn't have to prove anything.
23 That the burden to prove guilty is and remains on the 24 State to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt and you
25 would not have to prove anything. Do you understand

1 that?

2 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. Now do you clearly
4 understand that when you plead guilty that you give up
5 certain very important constitutional rights?

6 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: And some of which we have talked about,
8 and there are others in which we have not. Do you
9 understand?

10 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. And do you wish to enter
12 your plea of guilty understanding that you give up
13 certain very important constitutional rights?

14 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. Now do you clearly
16 understand that when you plead guilty that you give up
17 your right to have a jury determine if you are guilty or 18 not guilty?

19 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: And do you understand if I accept your 21 plea I will sentence you?

22 MR. CRIM: Yes.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 (WHEREUPON, Mr. Crim confers with counsel.)

25 THE COURT: Now I want to pause here for a moment

1 because I want to review what you have told me. You
2 have told me that you understand the nature of these
3 offenses, your sex offenses, maximum possible penalty 40
4 years. Consequences we have been through them, violent,
5 most-serious, sex offender registry. And you have also
6 told me that you understand your constitutional rights.

7 Keeping all of these matters absolutely in the 8 forefront of your mind do you still wish to continue with 9 your plea of guilty to each of these two offenses?

10 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. I want you to listen very 12 carefully, because at this point I am going to ask Mr.
13 Sorensen to go over the facts that the State is prepared 14 to present at trial for the purpose of proving your 15 guilt.

16 And when he is finished I am going to ask you is 17 that what happened. Let me tell you that the reason that 18 I am going through this part of the plea is because every 19 plea must be supported by a factual basis. And that is 20 the reason for it. Okay?

21 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: So I need you to listen carefully. When 23 he is finished I will ask you is that what happened. You
24 need to correct anything that I am told that needs to be 25 corrected to be sure that I have an accurate picture of

1 what happened. Okay?

2 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. Yes, sir, Mr. Sorenson.

4 MR. SORENSON: Thank you. May it please the court,
5 Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 MR. SORENSON: This offense occurred, Your Honor,
8 back on the early part of July of 2016. I need to give 9 Your Honor a little bit of kind of background to how 10 these events kind of came to be at that time.

11 Back in the early part of 2016, at the time, the 12 defendant was 21 years of age. He was employed at that 13 time by the United States Marine Corp and was stationed
14 as a correctional officer over at the Naval Brig.

15 At some point in time he became acquainted with one
16 of the victims in this case, Victim 1. Her
17 mother and stepfather -- I believe the stepfather was 18 working over doing IT work over at the Naval Weapons
19 Station and had become -- had gotten to know Mr. Crim.

20 Apparently, from kind of looking through and talking 21 to everybody there, the home that they lived in they were 22 allowing some of the people that worked over there to 23 kind of get off of the barracks and to come kind of crash
24 at their house. I guess they had kind of a big game room
25 with several beds set up in it. And the defendant was

1 one of those individuals that were coming over there.

2 The early part of 2016, specifically right around
3 Valentine's Day of 2016, in talking to [Victim 1] is the
4 first time that her and the defendant had kind of started
5 their relationship. It had gotten beyond just 6 acquaintances and/or friends.

7 She was at the time 13 years of age. Her birthday
8 is [REDACTED] of 2002. So she would have been about 13
9 years and approximate four months when the two of them
10 first -- she indicates the first time that they kissed.
11 Which would have been somewhere right around Valentine's
12 Day of 2016.

13 Over the next approximately four to five months
14 according to [Victim 1] that relationship escalated and did
15 turn into a sexual relationship between the two of them
16 where she indicates that -- and us. Her statement to law
17 enforcement was that she had had sexual intercourse with 18 the defendant twice. In talking to her she indicates it
19 was a lot more than that. Leading up to ultimately, as I
20 indicated, the early part of July around the July 4th
21 holiday.

22 The other victim in this case, [REDACTED] [Victim 2]
23 [Victim 2] birthday is on [REDACTED] of 2002. So she is 24 about six months older than [Victim 1]. So at the time of 25 our incident she was 14 years of age and about three

1 months.

2 She is on -- the two -- just a little background,
3 Your Honor. These two girls went to middle school
4 together. They had been friends for about two years.
5 Over in Goose Creek in that area.

6 Ultimately Victim 1 and her family moved to North
7 Charleston. And our ultimate incident location is their
8 home at [REDACTED] which is located in North
9 Charleston in Dorchester County.

10 So at that point in time the two of them they had 11 still -- they were out for the summer. I believe they 12 had both completed the eighth grade at that point in 13 time.

14 As I indicated, over that -- on the Fourth of July
15 holiday Victim 2 had come to spend several days at 16 Victim 1's home. They had basically had done that over
17 the last couple of years, kind of going back and forth
18 spending the night at each other's homes.

19 Our incident that is alleged in the indictments,
20 Your Honor, occurred on the early morning hours one of 21 those nights that Victim 2 was over Victim 1's home. They 22 were up in that game room watching -- watching movies
23 when ultimately they ended up engaging not only sexual 24 intercourse but digital penetration and the defendant
25 performing oral sex on both of -- both of the girls.

1 [Victim 2] indicates to us that ultimately she ended up
2 bleeding as a result of that. They basically all of that
3 ended. They went to bed. And the next morning [Victim 2]
4 went home.

5 Over the next day or two she ends up saying
6 something to her father and her father's girlfriend about
7 having some itching going on. They attempt to, you know,
8 provide her with some vaginal cream. That doesn't --
9 doesn't stop the problem. And several days after that is 10 when she confides in her dad what had happened that 11 night.

12 Her father takes her at that point in time to 13 Trident Medical Center. We are outside the range where 14 they could do a sexual assault kit on her in an attempt 15 to find any evidence. But they do do at that point in 16 time a general exam of her. And it is a female
17 physician's assistant that does that and does -- does 18 note some trauma to her genital area which would be 19 consistent with what she had reported.

20 At that point in time the Dorchester County
21 Sherriff's Office was contacted. Lieutenant Peters is 22 assigned the case. Upon him learning at that point in 23 time that the defendant was active-duty Marine, Naval 24 Criminal Investigative Services was also contacted. And 25 it is an agent, Erin Longo, who is assigned through NCIS.

1 They had learned at that point in time actually from
2 Victim 1's mother - because I believe she had actually
3 paid for the defendant ticket - that he actually had 4 flown home to deal with some medical issues with his
5 mother to the State of Nevada. They had learned also 6 when he was supposed to return and ultimately were 7 waiting for Mr. Crim at the Charleston Metropolitan 8 Airport.

9 He was taken into custody. Lieutenant Peters had 10 obtained these two warrants at that point in time. Was 11 brought back to the Dorchester County Sheriff's Office.

12 And after a little bit of questioning after being 13 mirandized by the two of them and waiving his rights he 14 ultimately ended up giving a what amounted to about a
15 six-page handwritten in his own handwriting confession
16 admitting to having -- having sex with Victim 1 on two 17 occasions and admitting to the incident that I just 18 described to Your Honor with all three of them. Admitted
19 to knowing their ages. Admitted to knowing that that was 20 the age of consent in South Carolina being 16. Admitted
21 that apparently - and I didn't know this before that - 22 but I believe the actually the age of consent in the 23 military is actually 18.

24 But that would basically be the facts, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Is that what happened?

1 (WHEREUPON, Mr. Crim turns toward counsel.)

2 MR. CRIM: There was like -- there's parts in there
3 that were wrong ...

4 (WHEREUPON, Mr. Crim confers with counsel.)

5 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Now has anyone promised you
7 anything or held out any hope of any sort of a reward to 8 get you to plead guilty?

9 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Has anyone tried to force you or 11 threaten you, pressure you or intimidate you to make you
12 plead guilty?

13 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Have you had enough time to make up
15 your mind that this is what you want to do?

16 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: And are you pleading guilty here today
18 freely and voluntarily?

19 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: And are you pleading guilty because you
21 are in fact guilty?

22 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. Now I want to talk about 24 your relationship with Mr. Weidner. Have you spoken with 25 Mr. Weidner for as many times and for as long a period of

1 time on each occasion as you believe appropriate for him
2 to properly represent you?

3 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. Has Mr. Weidner investigated
5 your case?

6 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Has he -- and I will go back and ask.
8 Have you met with him many times?

9 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. More than five times?

11 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. And has he discussed with 13 you the elements of these two statutory provisions?

14 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And has he been over with you the 16 evidence that the State has to present at trial for the 17 purpose of proving your guilt?

18 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Has he been over all of the discovery
20 with you that he has received from the State?

21 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: I don't know that you asked for copies,
23 but if you did ask did he give them to you?

24 MR. CRIM: I did not ask for any copies, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Now has he spoken to those that

1 you wished him to speak with?

2 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. Now has Mr. Weidner been
4 over with you the consequences of your plea here today?

5 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: And do you have any lingering questions
7 of him at this point?

8 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And has he answered all of your
10 questions?

11 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Has Mr. Weidner done everything for you
13 in your case that you believe he could have done or 14 should have done to properly represent you?

15 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Has he done anything in his 17 representation of you that you think he should not have 18 done?

19 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Are you completely satisfied with the 21 representation that you have received from Mr. Weidner?

22 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Has anyone associated with your case;
24 your attorney, the solicitor, any of the police officers
25 involved with your arrest or any of the folks at the

1 Detention Center if you were in fact detained, has anyone
2 associated with your case mistreated you in any way?

3 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Have you understood my questions?

5 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Is there anything that you want to ask
7 me about what we have just been over?

8 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Do you understand that you have a right
10 to appeal your guilty plea and any sentence that I
11 impose, however, if you wish to appeal you or an attorney
12 on your behalf must appeal within ten days. Do you
13 understand?

14 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Now with respect to each and every 16 answer that you have given me here today have you been 17 absolutely candid with me?

18 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Have you been truthful with me?

20 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. And have your answers been 22 your own?

23 MR. CRIM: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Whose answers have you given me today?

25 MR. CRIM: My own, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Has anyone told you how to answer my
2 questions?

3 MR. CRIM: No, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: I find that there is a substantial
5 factual basis for Mr. Crim's plea to these two charges.
6 I find that his decision to plead guilty is freely and 7 voluntarily and knowingly and intelligently made, that he 8 has had advice of counsel in Mr. Weidner with whom he 9 tells me he is satisfied. And I will accept the plea.

10 All right. Victim's record, please.

11 MR. SORENSON: No ---

12 THE COURT: No record you told me earlier.

13 MR. SORENSON: --- prior record. That would be 14 correct, Your Honor.

15 I do have several people that like to address the 16 court.

17 THE COURT: Certainly.

18 MR. SORENSON: Present, Your Honor -- I am going to 19 go from Your Honor's right to left. In the far back we 20 have Ms. Roxanne Taylor. That would be Victim-1's mother.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MR. SORENSON: She had indicated before I don't 23 believe she wishes to address the court. So but she is 24 here.

25 And then in the front row all the way to Your

1 Honor's left is Shaun Mammano who is [Victim 2]'s father.
2 And then [Victim 2] in the blue right next to him. And I do
3 believe they would like to address the court.

4 THE COURT: Happy to hear from both of them.

5 MR. MAMMANO: This is Shawn Mammano.

6 THE COURT: Yes. And that is S-H ...?

7 MR. MAMMANO: ... A-U-N.

8 THE COURT: ... U-N. Not ... W-N. Thank you for 9 that.

10 MR. MAMMANO: Yes, ma'am.

11 THE COURT: And your last name is spelled?

12 MR. MAMMANO: M-A-M-M-A-N-O.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 MR. MAMMANO: Yes, ma'am.

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 MR. MANNANO: I am currently serving in the 17 military, Your Honor, in the United States Air Force. I
18 have been in for almost 20 years. I retire coming up in 19 August. And I am military police, security forces.

20 So I am not a big fan of, you know, this type of 21 behavior and him being in the military. We are trained
22 on this kind of thing especially in our profession. It
23 is unacceptable to me and to that of a military member of 24 this type of behavior.

25 How it has impacted my family, you know, counseling,

1 therapy sessions, her dealing with guilt. At first she
2 was too young at the time. So it has been a couple of 3 years that.

4 So in regards to sentencing I would ask you don't go
5 lightly, Your Honor. That is all I have.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 MR. MANNANO: Yes, sir. Thank you.

8 [Victim 2]: I am [Victim 2]. I am about to -- I am
9 16. I am going into my junior year. (Pause for 10 composure.) I apologize.

11 THE COURT: You don't need to.

12 [Victim 2]: This has been really -- really tough
13 on me. Because at first I thought I was in the wrong,
14 you know, like. But he gave me some sad story about his 15 grandma dying. And I felt bad for him. And, you know,
16 at the time I felt like -- I was like this is kind of 17 interesting. And I was -- it's not. It is -- it is 18 disgusting. In my opinion as well as a lot of others.

19 It's put my dad through the ringer. And watching
20 him stress about this, it is hard. Because I have 21 already lost my mom. And I felt like -- this is just 22 affected on how I look at myself, you know. Like I
23 should be able to look at myself and think I am
24 respectable, and I feel like I can't anymore.

25 It ruined a really good friendship of mine. And I

1 would really like him to know I am extremely angry. I
2 wish I didn't lose my virginity that way. But I did.

3 And when it comes to sentencing I just wish you
4 would max it out. Because I am a headstrong person; and
5 if he could do that to me, who else, you know.

6 That's all I really have.

7 THE COURT: Thank you so much. All right. Do y'all
8 want to -- why don't y'all have a seat right over here in 9 the jury box.

10 MR. MANNONO: Yes, ma'am.

11 THE COURT: You can sit on the back row if you want
12 to. That way you can sit together. Very well. All
13 right. Anyone else?

14 MR. SORENSON: And that would be all. And just one
15 thing just to kind of touch on that Victim 2 had 16 mentioned. She said losing a good friendship. Her and 17 Victim 1 I don't think have talked basically since this.
18 I mean it obviously caused a lot of friction. I think
19 their parents and on all of that. But so that is what 20 she was referring to.

21 I don't believe Ms. Taylor would like to address the 22 court. I mean obviously her daughter was prepared I mean
23 to be here and testify tomorrow if need be so.

24 THE COURT: Very well. Thank you.

25 MR. SORENSON: Thank you. And just to -- just for

1 the record, Your Honor, Lieutenant Peters and Agent Longo
2 are both present. I don't believe either one of them
3 wish to address the court. Okay. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Weidner.

5 MR. WEIDNER: Yes, ma'am.

6 THE COURT: I am listening to you, sir.

7 MR. WEIDNER: Yes, ma'am, I have got just sort of 8 for housekeeping purposes I would like to put on the 9 record that I had provided you statements ---

10 THE COURT: You did.

11 MR. WEIDNER: --- for you to consider on that issue
12 regarding 17-25-45 and that I understand you ruled
13 against me on the one. The other one is still out there.
14 I am asking for a finding pursuant to the appropriate
15 statute of a consent on that issue.

16 I also gave you copies of Mr. Crim's military
17 appreciation certificates and awards that he had received
18 as a military service member. I have also given you a
19 statement by a Dr. McKee who did a psychosexual
20 evaluation. And I have also given you a number of 21 personal letters from friends and family on my client's
22 behalf.

23 My client also has friends and family here in the 24 gallery. Several who -- several of whom would like to 25 address the court. First is his mother Ms. Kelly Leuthi.

1 THE COURT: Just -- yeah, come on forward. All I
2 need you to do is to identify yourself for our record.

3 MS. LUTHIE: I am Kelly Leuthi, Daemon's mom.

4 THE COURT: And how do you spell your last name?

5 MS. LUTHIE: It is L-E-U-T-H-I.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MS. LUTHIE: I'm sorry, I am nervous.

8 THE COURT: Oh, I understand.

9 MS. LUTHIE: I just wanted to -- of course I am his 10 mom; so I am going to say everything that I possibly can,
11 because he is a wonderful child. It is a lack of 12 judgment that took place that day. I -- there is not --
13 I am so sorry. I am just

14 THE COURT: It's okay. And there is some tissue
15 right there for you.

16 MS. LUTHIE: This is my -- my first born. I am
17 extremely proud of him for the person that he is. I am
18 not proud of the situation that took place that day.

19 And I do know that he was also very young and naïve
20 and has been through a lot himself. He has lost a lot of 21 family members in very harsh ways. I raised him on my 22 own until I was gracious enough to have met my wonderful
23 husband now.

24 And I would just like the court to please have 25 leniency as much as they possibly can to know that he can

1 and will be a better person, but he has to have the 2 chance to do that and being that long of a time away is
3 not going to help that and can actually made him even a
4 harder of a person instead of continuing to be the loving
5 person that he is, that I know him and all of his whole
6 family. I would have more family here, but they are all
7 gone. So -- passed away.

8 So thank you for letting me take the time. And to 9 the other families, I apologize. Being a mother. And 10 that's all I can say.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 MS. LUTHIE: Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Thank you so much.

14 MR. WEIDNER: I would also note that his stepfather
15 is here. His boss is here. Mr. Thomas Mayes. This is 16 as direct supervisor at his place of employment.

17 THE COURT: Yes. Yes, sir, again I just need you to 18 identify yourself.

19 MR. MAYES: My name is Thomas Mayes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: And how do you spell your last name?

21 MR. MAYES: M-A-Y-E-S.

22 THE COURT: Thank you. Yes, sir.

23 MR. MAYES: I want to say that when we first hired
24 Daemon on to work with us at Pilot he had a very strong
25 go-to get-going attitude. Always a hard-worker. Never

1 late. Always on time and always pushing. Which
2 ultimately led to him being reviewed for management
3 position and higher.

4 The only thing that was holding him back was this 5 case. And he was very open and forward with us. And he 6 was still just as hard going and just as pushing, just as 7 being a good team member and a good friend and a good
8 mentor. To other people as well. And we would gladly
9 have him back tomorrow if we could.

10 THE COURT: Thank you so much.

11 MR. MAYES: You are welcome, Your Honor.

12 MR. WEIDNER: And then Daemon has a number of 13 friends in the gallery. But I think they have -- Mr.
14 Dolan, Mike Dolan, is going to be the spokesman for the 15 group. But I would like to make the court aware that all
16 of those people are here in support of my client.

17 MR. DOYLE: Hi, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Hello. And all I need you to do, again,
19 is just to identify yourself for our records.

20 MR. DOYLE: Okay. My name is Michael Doyle.
21 D-O-Y-L-E.

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 MR. DOYLE: I have known Crim, Daemon, for nine to 24 ten years. I think I am his longest friend that he still 25 talks to. This is a man with - I'm sorry. I am nervous

1 public speaking.

2 THE COURT: That's all right.

3 MR. DOYLE: He is a good person. We all make 4 mistakes. And we all fall down. This is not who he is.
5 He is -- he is a very good person. I have known him in 6 high school. We did multiple different extracurricular
7 as well as school. He has always been a very good
8 student and very devoted to his extracurricular
9 activities. He is a standup person.

10 If you were to give him the maximum, truly a
11 detriment to society would be transpiring. I feel like 12 he has a part to play in society in what is coming next,
13 and I just ask that you please consider that.

14 THE COURT: I will. Thank you.

15 MR. DOYLE: Thanks.

16 MR. WEIDNER: My client would like to address the 17 court, please.

18 THE COURT: Indeed.

19 MR. CRIM: Do I need to state myself again, Your 20 Honor, for the record?

21 THE COURT: No, sir.

22 MR. CRIM: Okay. I would just like to first off
23 apologize to first of all the victim and the victims
24 involved and the parents that were involved.

25 It was -- I am guilty and I have no excuse. It was

1 a horrible lapse in judgment, a horrible time in my life,
2 and something that I will never -- never be able to
3 forgive myself for.

4 And I have been doing my best to keep moving
5 forward. And I will do my best to keep moving forward no
6 matter the verdict that I get today, Your Honor. That is 7 it, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Thank you. Very well.

9 Yes, sir.

10 MR. WEIDNER: Well, just some thoughts, ma'am. And 11 I think you can tell by the silence in the courtroom that 12 everybody recognizes this is really a sad situation all
13 the way around.

14 Just there is just so much immaturity within this 15 whole case going around. You know, we had a young marine
16 who is far from home. He puts himself in a situation
17 that he should not have. And he knows that. His mom was 18 sick. He was going through some other personal issues.
19 And he had some young ladies who were, you know,
20 essentially, I don't know, unsupervised and engaging in 21 behaviors that perhaps they -- I don't know if they 22 thought would make them cool like the Kardashian's or 23 something. I don't know what was going on. But this was 24 just a bad situation that should never have happened.

25 My client did not have the maturity and the judgment

1 to extricate himself from that. And he is paying for
2 that now. No question about it. He has fessed up and he
3 has admitted that he was wrong.

4 Just everybody acting without any conscious regard
5 of the consequences. My client the biggest one. And you
6 are going to punish him as you see fit.

7 I ask that -- certainly we have seen a broad
8 spectrum of these types of cases. You know, from what we 9 have here all the way out to someone grabbing somebody
10 off the street and doing bad things. And I would ask you
11 to keep in mind when you are talking about the spectrum
12 of punishment to keep in mind where on this spectrum of 13 misconduct this particular case rests.

14 You have heard from his friends. He has kept his 15 head up while he has been working. You heard from his 16 boss. He has kept charging forward. He has kept his 17 head up.

18 He is trying to do the right things. Warehousing
19 him for the next 10, 15, 20 years that is -- that is just 20 warehousing him. That is not going to do anything
21 positive in the end of this.

22 Again, there is a punishment component. I get it.
23 He gets it. But I don't think the right answer is to 24 warehouse him forever.

25 As part of the punishment he has already -- he has

1 just stood here and pled guilty essentially to a life
2 sentence because now he is going to have to register as a
3 sex offender for the rest of his life.

4 He has also lost a promising career in the Marine
5 Corp that meant a lot to him. I mean you have seen the 6 awards and decorations that he had. He was doing great
7 things. Just got stupid. Just bad.

8 And that is sad. That is a lot of -- a lot of 9 potential that has at least been put on pause here
10 depending on how you rule on this.

11 Now I don't think that you can -- I ask the court to 12 consider his rehabilitative potential. You have heard
13 testimony. You have got documentation that shows that 14 this is an aberration in his behavior. This is not 15 something that he does.

16 You have got, you know, Dr. McKee's letter there
17 that says he is not a pedophile, he is not a sexual 18 predator, he is not likely to reoffend. That is good
19 information for you to use to make a decision.

20 You have got his acceptance of responsibility. He
21 never denied it. He cooperated with the cops. He gave a
22 full confession. Has come in here and confessed and pled
23 guilty straight up.

24 And you heard him: Hey, I was wrong.

25 I accept that he has fallen on his sword and he is

1 taking his medicine. That says a lot about where his
2 head is going forward.

3 And so I think that that speaks well for his
4 rehabilitative potential. He has got the support of 5 family and friends, coworkers.

6 We are just asking that you give him an opportunity
7 to have a future and to learn something from this and 8 make something positive out of it or at least get himself
9 moving forward again.

10 You heard that that is his personality. You have 11 got his record. Clearly he charges forward in the Marine 12 Corp. He go to work, he charges forward. I think it is 13 fair to surmise that he is going to -- he is going to 14 take a hit here, but he is going to charge forward and he
15 is going to learn from it and he is going to try to go
16 forward to do things.

17 And we are just trying to ask you to give him on 18 opportunity before he is an old man. Warehousing him is 19 just that is just a waste of future potential.

20 We ask you to consider all those things in 21 sentencing, ma'am. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you so much.

23 Now I have a number of documents. I know that you
24 wanted the originals back.

25 MR. WEIDNER: Just his military stuff, ma'am.

1 THE COURT: Exactly.

2 MR. WEIDNER: The others I can put in, but ---

3 THE COURT: And I think that I would like these --
4 and I read the letters that were passed up. Many of 5 them -- well, all of them very eloquent. And I have read
6 Jeffrey McKee's report. I think they should be made a
7 part of this record.

8 MR. WEIDNER: Yes, ma'am.

9 THE COURT: And they can be one exhibit. Because I
10 have considered them.

11 I have looked at the voluntary statements. And I
12 believe that I have looked at two from Victim 2 and one
13 from Victim 1. And I do not believe -- and I think based 14 upon my review of, if you will, our old statute and our 15 new statute -- and we talked about 17-25-45, and the 16 statute -- the old statute allowed after conviction for 17 the court to make an inquiry, and the statute -- the 18 statutory section that is referred to with regards to 19 criminal sexual conduct in the second degree is the 20 statute referred to is 655-3.

21 There is no 655-3 in our new statute. There was a
22 655-3 under the old, if you will, which has now been 23 amended, statute, criminal sexual conduct. And what that
24 statute said is that if following conviction the court
25 made a determination that the matter was one of consent

1 that -- that the court could make that finding.

2 I have read the statements. And I want to address
3 first of all that I do not believe that this applies to 4 the 13-year-old. And the reason that I don't is because
5 it clearly under the old statute did not apply to a 13-
6 year-old.

7 And given the statute as it has been amended, I
8 don't believe that it applies to the 13-year-old because 9 as you look at the two statute I believe that the 10 language, the consent language, which addressed victims
11 between the ages of 14 and 16, and I believe that that 12 was the Legislature's ability to address the Romeo
13 circumstance.

14 And I believe that currently that the bulk of those
15 considerations are dealt with in the statutes themselves
16 when they deal with the ages of the alleged victim and 17 the defendants. Clearly under the 655-3 as it existed,
18 that analysis was not possible for a 13-year-old or a 12-
19 year-old or an 11-year-old.

20 I know, counsel, that you have urged the court to 21 consider the language that we addressed in chambers and 22 that you have urged the court to consider that a 13-year-
23 old the consent language can be considered with regard to 24 a 13-year-old.

25 I think that -- and that is based upon what appears

1 to be a Scribner's error made by the Legislature as they
2 recrafted the statutes.

3 If I was to adopt your theory and I understand it,
4 that would mean that the Legislature made it possible to 5 analyze whether or not an eleven-year-old could consent
6 to sexual intercourse. And I find that, if you will,
7 beyond the pale. I cannot imagine that the Legislature
8 intended that.

9 Because, as you know, the age groups are 11
10 through -- or under the age of 14, which would be 11, 12,
11 and 13. And then the other group of potential victims
12 would be 14, 15, 16.

13 So for that reason I do not believe that the consent
14 analysis is appropriate with regards to the 13-year-old.

15 With regards to the 14-year-old there is an 16 ambiguity in the law. I know that, Mr. Sorenson, you
17 take the position that it doesn't apply all, that it
18 clearly is a Scribner's error.

19 And there is no statute. There is no 655-3. It
20 just doesn't exist. So there is no provision in the new 21 law to even consider the consent language.

22 However, this is a criminal statute. It ought be
23 construed in favor of the defendant. And in doing so I
24 think it is appropriate to go through the consent
25 analysis.

1 Now I have read the statements. I have listened to
2 all of you. I am convinced that through relationship
3 with her friend, through some amount of alcohol, through
4 perhaps the very date and around the Valentine Time time
5 of the year, and the fact of this 21-year-old older
6 person I believe after having read all of these things
7 that [Victim 2]'s will was overcome. I do not believe there
8 was consent.

9 MR. SORENSON: Okay, and just to make sure we are 10 clear on that just so there is no -- she would not
11 have -- she didn't meet him until July.

12 THE COURT: That is -- oh, that is correct. Thank 13 you for that clarification.

14 MR. SORENSON: It would have been [Victim 1] ---

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 MR. WEIDNER: Right.

17 THE COURT: Started -- started when they kissed on 18 Valentine's Day.

19 MR. SORENSON: Well, that ---

20 MR. WEIDNER: That is the other ---

21 THE COURT: That is ---

22 MR. SORENSON: That is ---

23 THE COURT: --- the 13-year-old.

24 MR. SORENSON: That is the 13-year-old, yes.

25 THE COURT: I do know that.

1 MR. SORENSON: Yes.

2 THE COURT: I do know that. That was ---

3 MR. SORENSON: [Victim 2] indicates and I believe

4 [Victim 1] ---

5 THE COURT: July the 1st.

6 MR. SORENSON: That is -- the night that this
7 happened was the first day she had ever met the 8 defendant.

9 THE COURT: Exactly. Exactly. Thank you for that 10 clarification.

11 And I do -- I guess what I focused on with the 13-
12 year-old is if -- should I do the analysis and if I do
13 the analysis what am I thinking. And I really don't 14 believe that is what the law is. And so I moved on to 15 the 14-year-old.

16 And you are right with [Victim 2]. And that was in 17 July. You are absolutely correct.

18 However, there is no question in my mind but that 19 her will was overcome. There was no consent. And her
20 descriptions are very clear to me in that regard.

21 So that would be the determination of the court.

22 I know that, Mr. Weidner, that that was a
23 determination that you requested. And I note your 24 exception for the record.

25 MR. WEIDNER: Thank you, ma'am.

1 THE COURT: Now anything else in that regard?
2 MR. SORENSON: No, Your Honor.
3 MR. WEIDNER: No, ma'am.
4 THE COURT: All right. I have entered my sentences.
5 And I am going -- Victim 2, you are -- where is Victim 2?
6 Victim 2: Over here.
7 THE COURT: There you are. I do want to see you
8 when I am finished with sentencing, okay. All right.
9 And you too, Dad. I would like you to be present.
10 All right. With regard to 2016-GS-18-1409, criminal 11 sexual conduct with a minor, Mr. Crim, I am going to 12 commit you to the State Department of Corrections for a 13 period of 20 years. You will register as a sex offender
14 with GPS monitoring.
15 With regards to 2016-GS-18-1410 I am going to 16 likewise sentence you to the State Department of 17 Corrections for a period of 20 years.
18 These sentences will run concurrent. You will
19 register as a sex offender, as I stated, with GPS
20 monitoring. And you will be given credit for the time
21 that you've served. Very well.

I, Victim 2 understand I do not have to say anything, and I volunteer the following information of my own free will, for whatever purposes it may serve. I can read and write and completed the 8th grade in school.

The day this all happened, it was 1 day since I had been there. Daemon had told me, that morning I think, that Victim 1 had wanted to try a threesome some day and it to be w/ someone she trusted. Later on, I asked Victim 1 about it and she told me yes. Later that night, they asked me if I was comfortable with it & I really just shrugged my shoulders. I agreed with it, had a few beers, and a mixed drink of some sort, and it all happened. But before they kept asking me if I was comfortable & I just kept saying I guess. When we all went (Vic. 1, me, & Daemon) to watch the movie, and he was rubbing on my thighs, and I covered my face. I knew what we were doing was wrong. Vic. 1 & Daemon started to kiss as he was rubbing my thighs, and he started to rub my vagina. I didn't really make a sound. I was told to be quiet by both of them. Then Victim 1 told me to take off my pants, I wondered why, but I just continued to do it. I took off my leggings and left my shirt & underwear on. She wanted to try and go down on me, which I was uncomfortable, but I wasn't comfortable either. But she got scared and told Daemon to do it so he did. I stayed quiet b/c they both asked me if I would be quiet, so I did. [Vic. 1] had started to go down on him & they started to have sex. I stayed to the right of the floor for a few minutes. After they got done, I believe he put a condom on, and he started to have sex with me. After he started, I was starting to really think about the age difference, and was more disappointed in myself. It started to hurt after awhile, and I said ow, & he stopped. Him & [Vic. 1] got intimate for a while than me & [Vic. 1] went to her room. [Vic. 1] said, so, how was it? I told her it was hard to stay quiet, and then I told her, but I really started to think about the age difference, and I felt bad that I even agreed to that b/c it was her boyfriend but she told me it was fine. The next 3 days, there was really nothing said about it except for when I went on snap chat & told Logan about it, I just didn't mention the age difference. I think Daemon took me home 3 days later, and in the car he asked me if [Victim 1] & I had talked about it at all and I told him the night of & then he asked if it was in a bad way and I told him no. I was told not to say anything to my dad, and I wouldn't have if I didn't have any problems.

Section 16-3-655 Criminal sexual conduct with a minor; aggravating and mitigating circumstances; penalties; repeat offenders

(A) A person is guilty of criminal sexual conduct with a minor in the first degree if:

(1) the actor engages in sexual battery with a victim who is less than eleven years of age; or

(2) the actor engages in sexual battery with a victim who is less than sixteen years of age and the actor has previously been convicted of, pled guilty or nolo contendere to, or adjudicated delinquent for an offense listed in Section 23-3-430(C) or has been ordered to be included in the sex offender registry pursuant to Section 23-3-430(D).

(B) A person is guilty of criminal sexual conduct with a minor in the second degree if:

(1) the actor engages in sexual battery with a victim who is fourteen years of age or less but who is at least eleven years of age; or

(2) the actor engages in sexual battery with a victim who is at least fourteen years of age but who is less than sixteen years of age and the actor is in a position of familial, custodial, or official authority to coerce the victim to submit or is older than the victim. However, a person may not be convicted of a violation of the provisions of this item if he is eighteen years of age or less when he engages in consensual sexual conduct with another person who is at least fourteen years of age.

(C) A person is guilty of criminal sexual conduct with a minor in the third degree if the actor is over fourteen years of age and the actor wilfully and lewdly commits or attempts to commit a lewd or lascivious act upon or with the body, or its parts, of a child under sixteen years of age, with the intent of arousing, appealing to, or gratifying the lust, passions, or sexual desires of the actor or the child. However, a person may not be convicted of a violation of the provisions of this subsection if the person is eighteen years of age or less when the person engages in consensual lewd or lascivious conduct with another person who is at least fourteen years of age.

(D)(1) A person convicted of a violation of subsection (A)(1) is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be imprisoned for a mandatory minimum of twenty-five years, no part of which may be suspended nor probation granted, or must be imprisoned for life. In the case of a person pleading guilty or nolo contendere to a violation of subsection (A)(1), the judge must make a specific finding on the record regarding whether the type of conduct that constituted the sexual battery involved sexual or anal intercourse by a person or intrusion by an object. In the case of a person convicted at trial for a violation of subsection (A)(1), the judge or jury, whichever is applicable, must designate as part of the verdict whether the conduct that constituted the sexual battery involved sexual or anal intercourse by a person or intrusion by an object. If the person has previously been convicted of, pled guilty or nolo contendere to, or adjudicated delinquent for first degree criminal sexual conduct with a minor who is less than eleven years of age or a federal or out-of-state offense that would constitute first degree criminal sexual conduct with a minor who is less than eleven years of age, he must be punished by death or by imprisonment for life, as provided in this section. For the purpose of determining a prior conviction under this subsection, the person must have been convicted of, pled guilty or nolo contendere to, or adjudicated delinquent on a separate occasion, prior to the instant adjudication, for first degree criminal sexual conduct with a minor who is less than eleven years of age or a federal or out-of-state offense that would constitute first degree criminal sexual conduct with a minor who is less than eleven years of age. In order to be eligible for the death penalty pursuant to this section, the sexual battery constituting the current offense and any prior offense must have involved sexual or anal intercourse by a person or intrusion by an object. If any prior offense that would make a person eligible for the death penalty pursuant to this section occurred prior to the effective date of this act and no specific finding was made regarding the nature of the conduct or is an out-of-state or federal conviction, the determination of whether the sexual battery constituting the prior offense involved sexual or anal intercourse by a person or intrusion by an object must be made in the separate sentencing proceeding provided in this section and proven beyond a reasonable doubt and designated in writing by the judge or jury, whichever is applicable. If the judge or jury, whichever is applicable, does not find that the prior offense involved sexual or anal intercourse by a person or intrusion by an object, then the person must be sentenced to imprisonment for life. For purposes of this subsection, imprisonment for life means imprisonment until death.

(2) A person convicted of a violation of subsection (A)(2) is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be imprisoned for not less than ten years nor more than thirty years, no part of which may be suspended nor probation granted.

(3) A person convicted of a violation of subsection (B) is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be imprisoned for not more than twenty years in the discretion of the court.

(4) A person convicted of a violation of subsection (C) is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined in the discretion of the court or imprisoned not more than fifteen years, or both.

(E) If the State seeks the death penalty, upon conviction or adjudication of guilt of a defendant pursuant to this section, a statutory aggravating circumstance is found beyond a reasonable doubt pursuant to items (1) and (2), and a recommendation of death is not made, the trial judge must impose a sentence of life imprisonment. For purposes of this section, "life imprisonment" means until death of the offender without the possibility of parole, and when requested by the State or the defendant, the judge must charge the jury in his instructions that life imprisonment means until the death of the defendant without the possibility of parole. No person sentenced to life imprisonment, pursuant to this subsection, is eligible for parole, community supervision, or any early release program, nor is the person eligible to receive any work credits, education credits, good conduct credits, or any other credits that would reduce the mandatory life imprisonment required by this section. Under no circumstances may a female who is pregnant be executed, so long as she is pregnant or for a period of at least nine months after she is no longer pregnant. When the Governor commutes a sentence of death imposed pursuant to this section to life imprisonment pursuant to the provisions of Section 14, Article IV of the Constitution of South Carolina, 1895, the commuttee is not eligible for parole, community supervision, or any early release program, nor is the person eligible to receive any work credits, good conduct credits, education credits, or any other credits that would reduce the mandatory imprisonment required by this subsection.

(1) When the State seeks the death penalty, upon conviction or adjudication of guilt of a defendant pursuant to this section, the court shall conduct a separate sentencing proceeding. In the proceeding, if a statutory aggravating circumstance is found, the defendant must be sentenced to either death or life imprisonment. The proceeding must be conducted by the trial judge before the trial jury as soon as practicable after the lapse of twenty-four hours unless waived by the defendant. If trial by jury has been waived by the defendant and the State, or if the defendant pled guilty, the sentencing proceeding must be conducted before the judge. In the sentencing proceeding, the jury or judge shall hear additional evidence in extenuation, mitigation, or aggravation of the punishment. Only evidence in aggravation as the State has informed the defendant in writing before the trial is admissible. This section must not be construed to authorize the introduction of any evidence secured in violation of the Constitution of the United States, or the State of South Carolina, or the applicable laws of either. The State, the defendant, and his counsel are permitted to present arguments for or against the sentence to be imposed. The defendant and his counsel shall have the closing argument regarding the sentence to be imposed.

(2) In sentencing a person, upon conviction or adjudication of guilt of a defendant pursuant to this section, the judge shall consider, or he shall include in his instructions to the jury for it to consider, mitigating circumstances otherwise authorized or allowed by law and the following statutory aggravating and mitigating circumstances which may be supported by the evidence:

(a) Statutory aggravating circumstances:

(i) The victim's resistance was overcome by force.

(ii) The victim was prevented from resisting the act because the actor was armed with a dangerous weapon.

(iii) The victim was prevented from resisting the act by threats of great and immediate bodily harm, accompanied by an apparent power to inflict bodily harm.

(iv) The victim is prevented from resisting the act because the victim suffers from a physical or mental infirmity preventing his resistance.

(v) The crime was committed by a person with a prior conviction for murder.

(vi) The offender committed the crime for himself or another for the purpose of receiving money or a thing of monetary value.

(vii) The offender caused or directed another to commit the crime or committed the crime as an agent or employee of another person.

(viii) The crime was committed against two or more persons by the defendant by one act, or pursuant to one scheme, or course of conduct.

(ix) The crime was committed during the commission of burglary in any degree, kidnapping, or trafficking in persons.

(b) Mitigating circumstances:

(i) The defendant has no significant history of prior criminal convictions involving the use of violence against another person.

(ii) The crime was committed while the defendant was under the influence of mental or emotional disturbance.

(iii) The defendant was an accomplice in the crime committed by another person and his participation was relatively minor.

(iv) The defendant acted under duress or under the domination of another person.

(v) The capacity of the defendant to appreciate the criminality of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of law was substantially impaired.

(vi) The age or mentality of the defendant at the time of the crime.

(vii) The defendant was below the age of eighteen at the time of the crime.

The statutory instructions as to statutory aggravating and mitigating circumstances must be given in charge and in writing to the jury for its deliberation. The jury, if its verdict is a recommendation of death, shall designate in writing, and signed by all members of the jury, the statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances, which it found beyond a reasonable doubt. The jury, if it does not recommend death, after finding a statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances beyond a reasonable doubt, shall designate in writing, and signed by all members of the jury, the statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances it found beyond a reasonable doubt. In nonjury cases, the judge shall make the designation of the statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances. Unless at least one of the statutory aggravating circumstances enumerated in this section is found, the death penalty must not be imposed.

When a statutory aggravating circumstance is found and a recommendation of death is made, the trial judge shall sentence the defendant to death. The trial judge, before imposing the death penalty, shall find as an affirmative fact that the death penalty was warranted under the evidence of the case and was not a result of prejudice, passion, or any other arbitrary factor. When a statutory aggravating circumstance is found and a sentence of death is not recommended by the jury, the trial judge shall sentence the defendant to life imprisonment as provided in this subsection. Before dismissing the jury, the trial judge shall question the jury as to whether or not it found a statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances beyond a reasonable doubt. If the jury does not unanimously find any statutory aggravating circumstances or circumstances beyond a reasonable doubt, it shall not make a sentencing recommendation. When a statutory aggravating circumstance is not found, the trial judge shall sentence the defendant to life imprisonment. No person sentenced to life imprisonment pursuant to this section is eligible for parole or to receive any work credits, good conduct credits, education credits, or any other credits that would reduce the sentence required by this section. If the jury has found a statutory aggravating circumstance or circumstances beyond a reasonable doubt, the jury shall designate this finding, in writing, signed by all the members of the jury. The jury shall not recommend the death penalty if the vote for the death penalty is not unanimous as provided. If members of the jury after a reasonable deliberation cannot agree on a recommendation as to whether or not the death sentence should be imposed on a defendant upon conviction or adjudication of guilt of a defendant pursuant to this section, the trial judge shall dismiss the jury and shall sentence the defendant to life imprisonment, as provided in this subsection.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 14-7-1020, in cases involving capital punishment a person called as a juror must be examined by the attorney for the defense.

(4) In a criminal action pursuant to this section, which may be punishable by death, a person may not be disqualified, excused, or excluded from service as a juror by reason of his beliefs or attitudes against capital punishment unless those beliefs or attitudes would render him unable to return a verdict according to law.

(F)(1) In all cases in which an individual is sentenced to death pursuant to this section, the trial judge, before the dismissal of the jury, shall verbally instruct the jury concerning the discussion of its verdict. A standard written instruction must be promulgated by the Supreme Court for use in capital cases brought pursuant to this section.

(2) The verbal instruction must include:

(a) the right of the juror to refuse to discuss the verdict;

(b) the right of the juror to discuss the verdict to the extent that the juror so chooses;

(c) the right of the juror to terminate any discussion pertaining to the verdict at any time the juror so chooses;

(d) the right of the juror to report any person who continues to pursue a discussion of the verdict or who continues to harass the juror after the juror has refused to discuss the verdict or communicated a desire to terminate discussion of the verdict; and

(e) the name, address, and phone number of the person or persons to whom the juror should report any harassment concerning the refusal to discuss the verdict or the juror's decision to terminate discussion of the verdict.

(3) In addition to the verbal instruction of the trial judge, each juror, upon dismissal from jury service, shall receive a copy of the written jury instruction as provided in item (1).

(G)(1) Whenever the death penalty is imposed pursuant to this section, and upon the judgment becoming final in the trial court, the sentence shall be reviewed on the record by the Supreme Court of South Carolina. The clerk of the trial court, within ten days after receiving the transcript, shall transmit the entire record and transcript to the Supreme Court of South Carolina together with a notice prepared by the clerk and a report prepared by the trial judge. The notice shall set forth the title and docket number of the case, the name of the defendant and the name and address of his attorney, a narrative statement of the judgment, the offense, and the punishment prescribed. The report shall be in the form of a standard questionnaire prepared and supplied by the Supreme Court of South Carolina.

(2) The Supreme Court of South Carolina shall consider the punishment as well as any errors by way of appeal.

(3) With regard to the sentence, the court shall determine whether the:

(a) sentence of death was imposed under the influence of passion, prejudice, or any other arbitrary factor;

(b) evidence supports the jury's or judge's finding of a statutory aggravating circumstance as enumerated in subsection (E)(2)(a); and

(c) sentence of death is excessive or disproportionate to the penalty imposed in similar cases, considering both the crime and the defendant.

(4) Both the defendant and the State shall have the right to submit briefs within the time provided by the court and to present oral arguments to the court.

(5) The court shall include in its decision a reference to those similar cases which it took into consideration. In addition to its authority regarding correction of errors, the court, with regard to review of death sentences, is authorized to:

(a) affirm the sentence of death; or

(b) set the sentence aside and remand the case for resentencing by the trial judge based on the record and argument of counsel. The records of those similar cases referred to by the Supreme Court of South Carolina in its decision, and the extracts prepared as provided for, must be provided to the resentencing judge for his consideration. If the court finds error prejudicial to the defendant in the sentencing proceeding conducted by the trial judge before the trial jury as outlined in subsection (E)(1), the court may set the sentence aside and remand the case for a resentencing proceeding to be conducted by the same or a different trial judge and by a new jury impaneled for this purpose. In the resentencing proceeding, the new jury, if the defendant does not waive the right of a trial jury for the resentencing proceeding, shall hear evidence in extenuation, mitigation, or aggravation of the punishment in addition to any evidence admitted in the defendant's first trial relating to guilt for the particular crime for which the defendant has been found guilty.

(6) The sentence review is in addition to direct appeal, if taken, and the review and appeal must be consolidated for consideration. The court shall render its decision on all legal errors, the factual substantiation of the verdict, and the validity of the sentence.

(H)(1) Whenever the solicitor seeks the death penalty pursuant to this section, he shall notify the defense attorney of his intention to seek the death penalty at least thirty days prior to the trial of the case. At the request of the defense attorney, the defense attorney must be excused from all other trial duties ten days prior to the term of court in which the trial is to be held.

(2)(a) Whenever any person is charged with first degree criminal sexual conduct with a minor who is less than eleven years and the death penalty is sought, the court, upon determining that the person is unable financially to retain adequate legal counsel, shall appoint two attorneys to defend the person in the trial of the action. One of the attorneys so appointed shall have at least five years' experience as a licensed attorney and at least three years' experience in the actual trial of felony cases, and only one of the attorneys so appointed may be the public defender or a member of his staff. In all cases when no conflict exists, the public defender or member of his staff must be appointed if qualified. If a conflict exists, the court then shall turn first to the contract public defender attorneys, if qualified, before turning to the Office of Indigent Defense.

(b) Notwithstanding another provision of law, the court shall order payment of all fees and costs from funds available to the Office of Indigent Defense for the defense of the indigent. Any attorney appointed must be compensated at a rate not to exceed fifty dollars per hour for time expended out of court and seventy-five dollars per hour for time expended in court. Compensation may not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars and must be paid from funds available to the Office of Indigent Defense for the defense of indigent represented by court-appointed, private counsel.

(3)(a) Upon a finding in ex parte proceedings that investigative, expert, or other services are reasonably necessary for the representation of the defendant, whether in connection with issues relating to guilt or sentence, the court shall authorize the defendant's attorneys to obtain services on behalf of the defendant and shall order the payment, from funds available to the Office of Indigent Defense, of fees and expenses not to exceed twenty thousand dollars as the court deems appropriate. Payment of these fees and expenses may be ordered in cases where the defendant is an indigent represented by either court-appointed, private counsel, or the public defender.

(b) Court-appointed counsel seeking payment for fees and expenses shall request these payments from the Office of Indigent Defense within thirty days after the completion of the case. For the purposes of this statute, exhaustion of the funds shall occur if the funds administered by the Office of Indigent Defense and reserved for death penalty fees and expenses have been reduced to zero. If either the Death Penalty Trial Fund or the Conflict Fund has been exhausted in a month and the other fund contains money not scheduled to be disbursed in that month, then the Indigent Defense Commission must transfer a sufficient amount from the fund with the positive fund balance to the fund with no balance and pay the obligation to the extent possible.

(4) Payment in excess of the hourly rates and limit in item (2) or (3) is authorized only if the court certifies, in a written order with specific findings of fact, that payment in excess of the rates is necessary to provide compensation adequate to ensure effective assistance of counsel and payment in excess of the limit is appropriate because the services provided were reasonable and necessarily incurred. Upon a finding that timely procurement of services cannot await prior authorization, the court may authorize the provision of and payment for services nunc pro tunc.

(5) After completion of the trial, the court shall conduct a hearing to review and validate the fees, costs, and other expenditures on behalf of the defendant.

(6) The Supreme Court shall promulgate guidelines on the expertise and qualifications necessary for attorneys to be certified as competent to handle death penalty cases brought pursuant to this section.

(7) The Office of Indigent Defense shall maintain a list of death penalty qualified attorneys who have applied for and received certification by the Supreme Court as provided for in this subsection. In the event the court-appointed counsel notifies the chief administrative judge in writing that he or she does not wish to provide representation in a death penalty case, the chief administrative judge shall advise the Office of Indigent Defense which shall forward a name or names to the chief administrative judge for consideration. The appointment power is vested in the chief administrative judge. The Office of Indigent Defense shall establish guidelines as are necessary to ensure that attorneys' names are presented to the judges on a fair and equitable basis, taking into account geography and previous assignments from the list. Efforts must be made to present an attorney from the area or region where the action is initiated.

(8) The payment schedule provided in this subsection, as amended by Act 164 of 1993, shall apply to any case for which trial occurs on or after July 1, 1993.

(9) Notwithstanding another provision of law, only attorneys who are licensed to practice in this State and residents of this State may be appointed by the court and compensated with funds appropriated to the Death Penalty Trial Fund in the Office of Indigent Defense. This item shall not pertain to any case in which counsel has been appointed on the effective date of this act.

(10) The judicial department biennially shall develop and make available to the public a list of standard fees and expenses associated with the defense of an indigent person in a death penalty case.

(I) Notwithstanding another provision of law, in any trial pursuant to this section when the maximum penalty is death or in a separate sentencing proceeding following the trial, the defendant and his counsel shall have the right to make the last argument.

I, [Redacted] Victim 1 understand I do not have to say anything, and I volunteer the following information of my own free will, for whatever purposes it may serve. I can not read and write and completed the 8th grade in school.

I first met Daemon on Feb 12 2016. Daemon progressed to come over because he liked me, and my family. One of our former roommates had a discussion with me for the fact that Daemon had a crush on me. So Feb 14th is when it all started. Late evening (5/6 pm or so) me and him were upstairs watching Mr. Robot and sitting together (really close) and I honestly had a huge crush on him too. So we kissed. Best feeling ever. A few days later next month me and Daemon decided to tell my mother that we had feelings for each other. She said don't do anything stupid! No PPA, kissing, or anything extreme. So our relationship continue on. We moved to a new house and by then. Daemon was pretty much living with us. One day, in the pool, a couple days before Kaitlyn came over, Me and him had intercourse. I was a virgin at the time, so it hurt a little. In the pool I was sitting on his lap, cuddling against his neck. I look down and see he is aroused. He whispers into my ear and asks me if I wanna have sex with him. Granted I was turned on, I told him I wasn't so sure since I never had sex before. He said he wouldn't if I said no. Well I told him yes. I wanted to know how sex felt like. So we had intercourse, he ejaculated in the pool not on me. [Redacted] Victim 1

So when [Victim 2] came over, her "fuckbun" aka [Other 1] apparently did some crazy stuff with her before I picked her up. [Victim 2] talks to tons of boys, so she always has one doing crazy shit for her, one day when she was over, she was talking about sex with [Other 1] and brought up the idea to have a threesome with me & Daemon. I didn't exactly like it, but it was on my bucket list. Later on that day, we were watching South Park, [Victim 2] was on Daemon's phone on her snapchat, talking to boys. One of them asks for ~~more~~ nudes. she ~~didn't~~ didn't but it did bring up the idea to have a threesome. Like I said, didn't like that idea, so I leaned over to Daemon (we were on the floor) and told him I didn't like it. He said he won't do it unless I say it was ok. So we ended up having a threesome just so she ([Victim 2]) would shut up about it. He first ~~did~~ did oral with her and touching ~~me~~ me. Then he did oral on me, for like 2 min (great feeling, then he put a condom on had intercourse with me (omg amazing) then did it with her. He did ejaculate, but I am unaware of what he did with the condom. [Victim 2] did sneak some alcohol from Daemon to drink.

Q: Det. Blanchard

A: [Victim 1]

Q: Did you tell [Victim 2] about losing your virginity to Daemon?

A: Yes, after she arrived at my house.

Q: You said [Victim 2] brought up having a threesome with you + Daemon, was this conversation just between you and [Victim 2]?

A: Yes, she continued to mention it to me for the next couple days she was there.

Q: Did you have any conversation with Daemon about [Victim 2] wanting to have a threesome?

A: No, not until the night she was on snapchat and asked again while we were in the bedroom.

Larry Weidner, Esq.

Re: Daemon Crim

Dear Mr. Weidner:

Pursuant to your recent request, below is a summary of my forensic psychosexual evaluation of Daemon Crim, a 21 year old male, completed on 2/24/17. He had been charged with sexual acts allegedly occurring in 2016. Prior to the evaluation I reviewed documents sent to me by your office. I collected an extensive personal and sexual history from Mr. Crim and administered the Information & Orientation Scale (I&O), the Competency to Stand Trial Assessment Instrument (CAI), the Personality Assessment Inventory (PAI), the Trauma Symptom Inventory (TSI), the Substance Abuse Subtle Screening Inventory-3rd Edition (SASSI-3), and the Screening Scale for Pedophilic Interests (SSPI). Following the evaluation, I scored various measures of sexual recidivism risk: the Static 99-Revised (S99-R), Static 2002-Revised (S2002-R), Minnesota Sex Offender Screening Tool-Revised (MnSOST-R), Rapid Risk Assessment for Sex Offense Recidivism (RRASOR), Sexual Violence Risk-20 (SVR-20), and New Jersey Registrant Risk Assessment Scale (NJ-RRAS). I also calculated measures of recidivism for non-sexual crimes; that is, his risk of probation violation for general criminal offenses: the Salient Factor Score (SFS) used for decades by the U.S. Probation Office, and the SC Department of Probation, Parole, and Pardon Services' Parole Risk Assessment (PRA).

- Mr. Crim's clinical interview, sexual history, and test results (SSPI, SVR-20, S-99R, S2002-R, MnSOST-R, RRASOR, TSI Sexual Concerns and Dysfunctional Sexual Behavior scales) suggested he does not meet the criteria for Pedophilia or Pedophilic Disorder or another sexual deviance diagnosis.
- Mr. Crim's psychological test results (TSI, PAI, and I&O) do not indicate that he is presently faking any psychological or emotional symptoms to evade his present legal situation. During the evaluation, he was alert, cooperative, interactive and responsive. There was no indication of psychotic symptoms (e.g., delusions, hallucinations) or suicidal ideation. His intellectual functioning likely falls within the upper Average range consistent with his expressive and receptive vocabulary.

Crim, Daemon

His long- and short-term memory is intact. His affect was anxious and constricted but appropriate to his current legal situation. His judgment and reasoning are presently intact and realistic. Mr. Crim denied a history of alcohol or drug abuse/dependence corroborated by his PAI and SASSI-3 results below.

- On the TSI, all clinical scales were within normal limits suggesting that he has not been experiencing high levels of anxious arousal, depression, anger/irritability, intrusive thoughts/memories, dissociation (transient disruptions of attention), low self-esteem, or self-harming impulsivity. Of direct relevance to his current charge, TSI scales measuring sexual distress (Sexual Concerns) and inappropriate/indiscriminate sexual behavioral impulsivity (Dysfunctional Sexual Behavior) were within normal limits. His TSI results do not indicate that he suffers from Posttraumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) or other anxiety disorders.
- On the PAI, all clinical scales were within normal limits suggesting that Mr. Crim is not experiencing elevated symptoms of anxiety, depression, mania, paranoia, schizophrenia, antisocial or borderline personality disorders, alcohol abuse/dependence, drug abuse/dependence, aggression, or suicidal thinking/planning. Two scales measuring tendencies to use force (Aggression) and/or verbal/physical coercion (Dominance) in interpersonal relationships were well within normal limits. His score on the Violence Potential Index (VPI; combination of PAI scales and subscales) was also well within normal limits suggesting that his risk of harm to others is very low. The PAI does not directly assess sexual urges or behavior, however, Mr. Crim's overall PAI scales' profile does not empirically match (statistical Goodness of Fit) the scales' profile of a sample of rapists referenced in the PAI Manual. These PAI data were consistent with Mr. Crim's results on the Sexual Violence Risk-20 (SVR-20): his score of 2 (40 maximum) fell in the Low Risk category for sexual violence.
- On the SASSI-3, Mr. Crim's responses corroborated his PAI results described above. Determination of whether an individual might have a diagnosis of alcohol or drug dependence on the SASSI-3 is based on 9 different "decision rules"; any rule scored 'Yes' would indicate that the individual had a "High Probability of having a Substance Dependence Disorder." (Test Manual) All nine "decision rules" were scored "No" suggesting that Mr. Crim's alcohol and drug use in the six months before his alleged offenses indicated a "Low Probability of Alcohol or Drug Dependence."
- The sexual recidivism scales which follow (including the SVR-20 above) have been scored in a light most positive to the prosecution; that is, an assumption that the allegations are true. These scales have been the subject of dozens of peer-reviewed published research involving thousands of adult male sex offenders over the past 20 years. Mr. Crim's scores on the S99-R (3; 12 maximum), S2002-R (3; 16 maximum), RRASOR (2; 6 maximum), and MnSOST-R (-3; 31 maximum) fell in a low risk category for sexual recidivism. Less than 9% of men with similar scores on the S99-R, S2002-R, RRASOR, and MnSOST-R would likely be charged with another sexual offense within the next 5 to 6 years.

- In New Jersey where the NJ-RRAS was developed by a state commission of academics and practitioners, Mr. Crim's score of 26 (111 maximum) fell in the lowest risk category: the men in the category were not required to maintain their names on the state's Sex Offender Registry.
- It is my opinion, based on Mr. Crim's responses to the CAI, that he is capable of understanding the proceedings against him and assisting his attorney in his defense. He did not display any current long- or short-term memory difficulties. He has a factual and rational understanding of the charges against him.
- Mr. Crim's scores on the SFS (10; 11 best score) and PRA (7; 20-41 High Probation Violation risk) fell in the category of the best likelihood to complete probation without incident. On the PRA, over 92 % of SC probationers/parolees with similar scores successfully complete their community supervision; none (0.00%) had their probation revoked due to a new violent crime.
- It is my opinion that given his very low sexual recidivism and NJ-RRAS scores, there is no empirical/quantitative reason to place Mr. Crim on the state's Sex Offender Registry.
- It is my opinion that Mr. Crim does not meet the state's statutory definition of a Sexually Violent Predator (SVP) based on my 35+ years of evaluating, treating, and conducting peer-reviewed published research on sex offenders—including 13 years of service on the SVP Act's Multidisciplinary Team reviewing over 6,000 cases of adolescent and adult sex offenders.

Please contact me at [REDACTED] or at [REDACTED] (cell) if you have questions regarding this report or need further information about Mr. Crim. I have attached a summary of my Curriculum Vitae for your and the Court's review.

To Whom It May Concern,

Re: Character Reference - Daemon Crim

My name is Jay Wolf and I am the Managing Partner of Juniper Capital Partners, LLC. Juniper is a real estate private equity firm based in Los Angeles, California with offices in New York and Miami.

I have known Daemon Crim for over 10 years. Throughout that time I've observed him to be a loving son, brother and mentor to his two younger siblings Tanner and Kalani. He often assisted them with their homework and school projects and served as a positive role model. He was always kind and respectful and that behavior carried on as he blossomed into a young man who enlisted in the Marines to serve his country. I have never known Daemon to be in any trouble whether at school, home or in his personal life and I was shocked and saddened to learn what had transpired.

In speaking with Daemon, I know he feels incredible remorse and regret, but as is true to his nature he takes responsibility for his actions regardless of the circumstances. Since being discharged, I know he has sought to make a positive contribution to society and has remained gainfully employed as a Shift Team Leader at the Pilot Travel Center while awaiting the outcome of these proceedings.

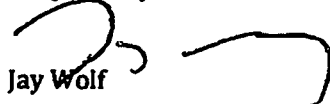

Among other assets our firm owns the Hard Rock Resort and Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada where Daemon's family currently resides. If Daemon were able to return to Las Vegas we would have a job for him at our hotel. I don't make this offer lightly, especially in light of these events, but I know who Daemon is.

I recognize that Daemon needs to be punished for his actions, but I hope the court in its wisdom can be mindful that Daemon is still an outstanding young man who served his country. I know he can still be a positive contributor to society if given the opportunity.

I would respectfully implore the court to be lenient as it decides what punishment is suitable. My thoughts and prayers go out to the victims and their families, but I also hate to see a life so full of promise and possibility irreparably damaged in the pursuit of justice.

I do not envy your task and I thank you for taking my thoughts into consideration.

Respectfully,

Jay Wolf

To Whom It May Concern:

This email note is addressed to the Court handling the criminal case involving Mr. Daemon Crim. I'm writing to provide a character reference for Daemon.

I have had the pleasure of knowing Daemon for approximately ten years and consider him to be part of our family. So much so a part of our family that when my wife and I learned he had been arrested and accused of a crime we offered to post his bail, which we happily did without reservation or hesitation. Daemon is like a son to us.

I understand that mistakes happen in life and that Daemon is not perfect - none of us are. However, with that said, I believe in Daemon's character and I believe he's a good man, a good adult and someone with honor and integrity.

By writing this letter I am offering my knowledge of Daemon as a good person and person that does not need to go to prison. I also offer the testament that should he go to prison he'll be robbed of a life that is just beginning and that has so much promise and potential. Society will also be robbed of the benefit of having this young man be part of our society and be someone that can offer meaningful contributions.

Professionally I am a Certified Fraud Investigator, an Accredited Healthcare Fraud Investigator, a Certified Insurance Fraud Investigator and a licensed Private Investigator. As such, I have spent my entire professional life around criminals and those that try to harm others and manipulate the system. Daemon is not a criminal, he is not a threat to society, he is a very young man who needs a chance at pursuing his life and making a positive difference in our world. Please don't send this young man to prison. It will do more harm than good. I assure the Court of this and stake my professional reputation on this.

Edward (Ted) Doyle

Sincerely,
Edward ("Ted") Doyle

To the court of South Carolina,

My name is Kai Luthi and i am Daemons stepfather, i work as a freelancer doing internet and wif in Las Vegas.

I am writing this letter to say how much Daemon has grown into an amazing man. Dedicated to everything he puts his heart in to. School, friendships, work and the Marines he has excelled in every aspect of these endeavors. He has a caring heart full of compassion and love.

I strongly believe that my son feels remorse and regret so please seek leniency.

To whoever it may concern,

My name is Kelly Luthi and I am the proud mother of Daemon Crim and his two younger brothers Kalani and Tanner. Daemon has been a big influence on his brother lives they look up to him with love. Daemon has always been from a very young age a joy to be around. He is strong willed, honest, hardworking and respectful. I could go on for days saying what a amazing son I have.

The circumstances that have brought us here today painfully and overwhelmingly have affected not only Daemon and his future in the military but our family and the other families involved. With that said and a open heart and prayer with god we are sincerely sorry for the actions that took place. Daemon is a amazing young man with a bright future ahead of him please take in consideration.

Sincerely,

Re: Daemon Crim

Your Honor,

My name is Amber Hoehn. I am Daemon's Aunt (the sister of his mother). I live in San Diego, CA with my husband and two daughters. I have known Daemon his whole life. I remember the day he was born, and how excited I was to become an Aunt. I spent a lot of time with Daemon when he was a child. We lived in the same home for a period of time, when he lived with my parents (his grandparents). As he and I got older, he would stay at my house on the weekends for sleepovers or I would take him camping. I always cherished my time with him. Because of our age difference, he became more like a little brother to me (the younger sibling I never had). As a boy he was very close with my mother (his Nana) and also my Grandmother (his great-Grandmother). I know losing both of them, was very hard on him. My daughters had the opportunity to meet Daemon at our Grandmother's funeral in 2015, they adored him just as much as the rest of the family. Even though Daemon was also grieving that day, it was admirable to watch him step up and be a strong man for our family. Consoling my sisters and I. My daughters still talk about him regularly because of that visit in which he stayed with us, asking when he will visit next.

When I learned that Daemon would be joining the military, I and the rest of our family were so very proud of him. As a boy Daemon loved to dress in camo and play Army men. It was a dream of his. When you asked him what he wanted to be when he was older, the answer never changed - A Soldier. I am so proud of him for taking the steps to follow his dreams. I am aware of the charges that Daemon faces, and it saddens me that something that was supposed to be an opportunity for a better life for Daemon, has brought him here. I know that Daemon will learn from this experience and be able to continue on with all his dreams in life and as a strong member of society.

I can say that in all the time I have known Daemon, I have seen him be nothing but respectful and caring. I have always trusted him and felt safe with him, as well as trusted him with my children. Thank you for your time in this matter, if any additional information is needed I can be reached at: [REDACTED]

Sincerely,

Amber Hoehn

To whoever it may concern,

I have known Daemon since freshman year of high school which was over 10 years ago. Since I've known him, I have been able to see his personal growth and witness him becoming a man. Since a young age, Daemon has always tried to do the right thing when called upon while striving for excellence both academically and with extracurricular activities.

Daemon made the choice from a very young age that he wanted to serve our country and standup for our collective freedom. This choice was made with full knowledge and complete understanding that he may not return, however he knew that this country is worth the risk and wanted to do his part for it. Daemon demonstrated true patriotism when he enlisted and only had the best intentions when choosing to serve. Daemon has and always demonstrated a strong work ethic and a code of moral fiber.

Daemon is not without fault, but when confronted with a situation he usually chooses to do the right thing. That being said, Daemon should be allowed back into society. I truly believe that not letting this young man back out into the world would be a travesty and potentially rob us all of a hardworking, and good willed member of society. One moment should not determine one's entire life, he should be given a chance to make things right and prove that he still a valued member of society.

Daemon Crim

I've known Daemon for about 4 years now. I met him while we were both serving in the Marine Corps at Naval Consolidated Brig Charleston. He was under me at the time, being new to the command. He was always polite and on time, with an amazing work ethic. After a couple months I really start to get to know him and we start to become really close. We would talk about anything and everything under the sun. He became one of my closest friends at the brig. We didn't hang out too much outside of work because I have a family, but there were a couple occasions where he came over and hung out with my wife and I. Daemon is just a genuine person. A person that you know you can trust, because of how he carries himself and how he acts towards other people. So this is me reaching out for somebody I genuinely believe is a good person. For the short amount of time that I've known Daemon he's been nothing but kind and genuine, and I would stand up for Daemon any chance I get. He made my time at the brig a lot more enjoyable because I knew I had a friend that I could trust.

Signed,

The Presiding Magistrate
South Carolina Local Court

Your Honour,

My name is Sidney Johnson and I am proud to offer my Character recommendation of Mr. Daemon to whom I have personally know for 1 year as my friend and college.

During my relationship with Mr. Daemon I have experienced an individual who always show up to work no matter how he feels or his body condition, works hard, and carries him in a polite, respectable manner. In addition, Mr. Daemon is a person of good moral character. I realize that might seem hard to believe, given the circumstances, but it's true nonetheless. He is a decent person at the core.

I know Daemon to be a dependable, responsible and courteous person. He is also a faithful team player. His good judgment and mature outlook ensure a logical and practical approach to his endeavors.

Daemon has made mistakes, and he is incredibly remorseful and is willing to do whatever it takes to make reparations, financially and emotionally, if possible. But to do that he needs you to give him an opportunity to get a second chance. I just hope you will recognize the power you wield with regard to the future of this man and make a fair decision.

To Whom It May Concern;

I have had the pleasure of meeting Daemon Crim when my son, Kai, started dating Daemon's mother, Kelly, 15 years ago.

Proudly I became his grandmother when Kai and Kelly married in 2005. Throughout the years, I fell in love with this polite, happy, loving, good-natured boy who grew into a wonderful, helpful yet shy young man.

When Daemon worked hard to realize his dream of becoming a Marine, our hearts burst with pride. I could not have asked for a more kind-hearted and well-mannered grandson.

Sincerely,
Cynthia Webb
