Re: Essie Ford, Appellant v. Ralph Kline, Respondent
Appellant Case No 2020-000061

Dear Clerks,

Please find attached the following documents; Form 11 and email correspondence dated January 15, 2020. As you can see in the email correspondence, I have ordered the transcript within the time period outlined in the Appellant Court Rules. Please find the form and the email correspondence as sufficient compliance. I have mailed you the original as well with copies to all the necessary parties.

If this is not deemed sufficient, please call my office immediately at 843-381-8182 or email me at bronteanelli@sclegal.org so I may file the appropriate motion in compliance with your letter.

Sincerely,

South Carolina Legal Services

SC Court of Appeals

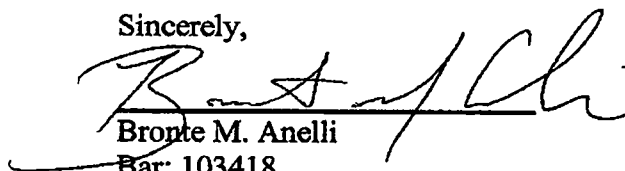

Dear Ms. Hurley:

On December 17, 2019, the above case was tried before the Honorable Judge Benjamin Culbertson, Circuit Court Judge, in Horry County. My records indicate that you were the court reporter for this case.

I requested the records to be provided to me on January 15, 2020. I have attached the email correspondence to this letter. Please provide me with a transcript of the proceedings. Please transcribe the entire record.

I agree to pay the per page charge for this transcript as provided by Rule 607, SCACR.

Sincerely,

Bronte M. Anelli

Ms. Hurley,

My name is Bronte Anelli. I am the attorney on record for Ford v. Kline, 2019-DR-26-01113. By any chance were you the court reporter for Judge Benjamin Culbertson in Horry County, SC on the above mentioned date? If so, I am wondering how much it would cost to obtain the transcript? If not, do you know who was so I may contact them?

Sincerely,
Bronte M. Anelli

Hi there,

After checking my records, I was not the reporter that day, I am showing it was Grace Hurley. Thank you!
