Appellate Case No. 2020-000058

APPEAL FROM DARLINGTON COUNTY

Court of Common Pleas

Roger E. Henderson 754, Circuit Court Judge

Case No. C/A No.2019-CP-16-0705

MOTION of JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT:

On Fri, Nov15, 2019 at 9:10am

Email from Joe: McLean@cjp.law.com>

To: Henderson, Roger E. <RHeadersonJ@sccourts.org>

The circuit court Judge Roger E. Henderson was instructing the defense attorney on what to file against plaintiff (Angel Phillips).

All parties were in Common Pleas Court at the time the Defense attorney states he (Joe) done as instructed by Judge Henderson by preparing a proposed order in the above case. The propose order was sent to Darlington Clerk of Court after being formatted by defense attorney. The proposed order was e-filed the morning of court and sent to Judge Henderson by the clerk of court.

Legal Issues:

Why was Judge Henderson instructing the defense attorney in this legal proceeding and conspiring with the defense on what to file against plaintiff in above case at the day and time of court proceeding going on:

The proposal order was never sent to plaintiff on Fri Nov 15, 2019 at 9:10 am, The plaintiff was in court. The plaintiff never received copy of the legal proposal order from the defense attorney filed on the above date and time. Just email exchanges between defense attorney, Judge Henderson and the clerk of court.

Judge Henderson

As you instructed, I have prepared a proposed order in the above case. A copy is attached, and by copy of this e-mail I am sending a copy to the plaintiff. This proposed order will also be e-filed this morning with a request that it be sent to you by the clerk of court.

Please let me know if you need anything further from me at this time.

With kind regards,

Joe
