1 jurors. And remember this, each individual one of you will 2 have your own thoughts and your own opinion. And at some 3 point, your foreperson will say to you, I think that we 4 should, you know, try to make some decisions. And I
5 believe, again, factoring in that the critical key
6 component of the State asking you to find Johnnie guilty
7 rests upon lie after lie after lie, after concealing, after 8 concealing, after hiding.

9 I feel confident, I feel hopeful, that you'll remember
10 the bullet hole in the blue Honda Accord, and the fact that 11 the window is not shattered, and that you will tear off 12 your pieces of paper when that time comes, and you will 13 write down your decision on each indictment, and you will 14 fold that up, and you will pass it on down the line to your 15 foreperson, who will then look at those pieces of paper,
16 and bring back a verdict on these indictments which says
17 every person in this country, every person in this room,
18 everyone here, has an absolute right to defend themselves,
19 and that's a verdict of not guilty. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, everyone stand up
21 and take a quick stretch.

22 You all ready? Okay. Go ahead and take a seat.

23 CHARGE TO THE JURY:

24 THE COURT: Madam Foreperson, members of the jury, you
