MOTION TO DISMISS

The Appellant filed a Notice of Appeal on May 20, 2019. Counsel has discussed this Appeal with Appellant and it appears that the Appellant does not wish to go forward with this appeal and therefore requests that this Appeal be dismissed.

Appellant has been made aware that she has a right to seek appellate review and is entitled to an appointed attorney to assist her if she is declared indigent. I have fully advised her of the consequences of withdrawing this appeal and she understands that once withdrawn, the appeal will be dismissed and this will mean that the decision of the circuit court will be the final decision and she will not be able to seek review at some later time. Her decision was made of her own free will with a full understanding of the consequences of withdrawing this appeal.

As evidenced by her signature below, the Appellant wishes this appeal to be withdrawn and the matter dismissed.

Respectfully submitted,

Tommy A. Thomas, Esq.
