Re: Team IA, Inc. v. Cicero Lucas, Appellate Case No. 2017-001497

Dear Ms. Kitchens:

In your letter of January 21, 2020, you listed several potential dates in May 2020 on which the Court might hold oral argument in this appeal. At present I have no conflicts on any of the dates listed. However, if possible, I would appreciate not having the argument (if the Court determines to have it) the second week of May because my daughter and son-in-law, who live out of state, are expecting my second grandchild that week. My wife and I are to go help for a week, by taking care of the older child. I understand, of course, that the Court may need to proceed with a hearing during that week, and, if so, I will make appropriate arrangements.

Thank you for your assistance.

With best regards,

Julio E. Mendoza, Jr.
