Now Comes the above Petitioner in motion to move this honorable Court to recall remittitur, because petitioner PCR appellate Counsel filed an Johnson petition for writ of certiorari and a motion to be relieved of counsel but, the court didn't follow it's procedure rules or process. Court didn't send petitioner an Johnson letter of notice that petitioner had a time limit to submit a pro se brief on his behalf. As of this action of the court in this matter, Petitioner is motioning this honorable Court to recall the remittitur so petitioner can present PCR issues to the appellate Court.
