PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Pro Se Plaintiff is requesting a RECONSIDERATION due to egregious of the COURT for failure to review substantial evidence and apply the law. The most egregious error of the COURT is the failure to hold South Carolina Worker's Compensation Commission for a fraudulent ORDER stating by Commissioner Michael Campbell stating that Pro Se Plaintiff was not disable and did not receive disability payments. The COURT failed to hold South Carolina Worker's Compensation Commission stating that pertinent medical records and verification of disability payments was not provided to the commission which was an errant and fraudulent ORDER that has been verified as part of the SUPPLEMENTAL RECORD. Pro Se Plaintiff provided the COURT with verification of documents submitted to South Carolina Worker's Compensation Commission by Form 50 with attachments dated October 9, 2014 that included medical documentations, disability payments and email communications from Amazon. The verification was provided by Attorney Helen F. Hiser, legal counsel for Defendants in seeking to complete Record On Appeal. The COURT completely ignored the pertinent documentations that are part of the record. In doing so therefore the COURT allows unjust actions of South Carolina Worker's Compensation Commission to STAND and a violations of Pro Se Plaintiff rightful worker's compensation claims. And furthermore Attorney Helen F. Hiser and Attorney Rusty Goudelock was deceptive in their responses to South Carolina Worker's Compensation Commission and to the COURT as verification by substantial records of evidence.

WHEREFORE, Pro Se Plaintiff request a RECONSIDERATION of RULING due to errant and egregious findings of the COURT to hold Defendants accountable according to the law.
