Re: Franklin Benjamin, #245407 v. SCDC
Appellate Case No. 2020-000055

Dear Mr. Benjamin:

The Court is in receipt of your record on appeal. This material is being returned to you pursuant to Rule 210, SCACR. The respondent's initial brief and designation of matter has not yet been received. Thirty days after service of the respondent's initial brief and designation of matter is when the record on appeal needs to be served and filed. The record on appeal must include all material that is listed in all parties' designations of matter.

A designation of matter must still be served and filed before this appeal can proceed. The documents that you submitted with your record on appeal must be listed in your designation of matter. Your record on appeal cannot take the place of your designation of matter.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
