State of South Carolina v. John Joseph Hart

9

Case No. 16-GS-04-02518 et. al.

Hearing of April 20, 2018

Before The Honorable R. Lawton McIntosh

1 with you -- it was ten, eleven years, so I
2 don't want no trouble.

3 She goes back and calls the law and makes 4 another charge on me and, uh, uh, and here I
5 am with -- the girl has done this so many 6 times that it is not funny. I've had seven 7 different domestic violences, or criminal 8 domestic violence cases when it's not true.
9 It's simply that she gets mad, she's 10 vindictive and she puts cases on me and then 11 she don't come to court and eventually it 12 works out but she thinks that it is funny to 13 have me locked up. She thinks that she is 14 teaching me something. The thing that it is 15 all a vindictive woman and I -- I've suffered 16 and my daughter has suffered dearly because 17 of this vindictive woman.

18 AGENT NESBITT: Your Honor, I would 19 like to point out that I just realized that 20 I made a mistake on -- I left out one of the 21 conditions that we violated him for in the 22 warrant, which was absconding.

23 THE COURT: Did you know about that,
24 Ms. Scalzo, the absconding allegation?

25 MS. SCALZO: Your Honor, it was not on
