JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

vs.)

MOTION AND AFFIDAVIT FOR EMERGENCY HEARING
(For Eviction)

RALPH OGBURN) Respondent.)

FILE NO. _____

I have had several hearings in accordance to an eviction but my case seems to be one sided. All of the evidence and witnesses that I have has not been seen, or given a chance to be heard. Mr. Ogburn and I had a verbal agreement for me to stay in the home until I could purchase. This agreement was fine while I was his employee but when I sought to find a better job, paying more money, the agreement disappeared. I was behind when I left his place of business and we agreed that I'd pay him when I got my first commission check. Before I could get it, he sent paperwork for a non-renewal on the lease and that I was to vacate the premises. I think that it was unfair and that I was treated unfairly when I tried to present my case. I don't believe that I am to live free because I know what I owe, but if he was willing to work with me while I worked for him it's not right for him to make me just uproot my family because I decided to leave his place of employment. I wanted better for my family and I am being penalized for it. I request that a higher court hear my case. The deputy has already posted the writ to remove me and can remove me as soon as tomorrow. I just want to be heard.

Therefore, I am requesting an emergency hearing.
