Appellate Case No. 2018-000723

ORDER

The respondents' initial briefs were filed in this case in February 2019. The appellant requested to hold this case in abeyance since March 2019. This is the appellant's sixth request for a sixty-day extension. The parties have a draft settlement proposal. Counsel for the appellant indicates no other extensions will be necessary. The respondents did not file a return. Accordingly, the motion is granted. The Court will not entertain any further requests for an extension in this case.
