ORDER OF DISMISSAL

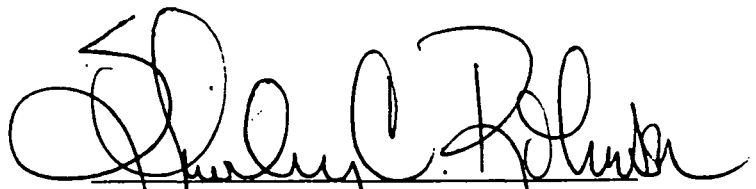

This matter is before the South Carolina Administrative Law Court ("ALC" or "Court") pursuant to the Notice of Appeal filed September 10, 2012 by Edward Bryan ("Appellant"), an inmate incarcerated with the South Carolina Department of Corrections ("Department"). Appellant appeals the decision of the Department denying his grievance in which the Appellant complains the Department wrongfully denied him access to legal supplies which caused him to be adversely impacted in an ongoing legal proceeding.

On December 3, 2012, the Department filed the Record on Appeal. ALC Rule 60(A) requires that the party first noticing the appeal file an original brief within sixty-five (65) days after the date of assignment. This case was assigned to the undersigned on November 7, 2012. As of this date, no brief has been filed by the Appellant.

Pursuant to ALC Rule 62, an Administrative Law Judge may dismiss an appeal for failure to comply with the rules of procedure for appeals. The requirement that the Appellant file a brief with the Court in accordance with the timeframes set forth in the ALC Rules of Procedure is an indispensable component of the appellate process. As the Appellant did not file an Appellant Brief with the Court as required by the ALC Rules, this matter is dismissed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that this appeal is DISMISSED, with prejudice.
AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
