Petition For Rehearing

This matter comes before the Court pursuant for petition for rehearing do to the dismissal of application for post-conviction relief filed on June 21, 2016. Do to the fact of appellate Counsel not informing me of Post Conviction remedies or of one year limitations period governing petitions. In reference to case Sutton v. State, 361 S.C 644, 606 S.E. 2d 779 (2004).

Also do to no representation of counsel during the dismissal Part of Post-conviction relief I filed my appeal to the wrong Courts and was never recieved in the statue of limitations. See attachment exhibit (A) Petitioner evidence went to Greenville County Clerk of Court.

Raekwon N. McLean v. State of South Carolina

Memorandum in Support

On June 21, 2016 Petitioner Raekwon N. McLean submitted an application of Post Conviction Relief for Prosecutorial Misconduct, Ineffective assistance of Counsel and Coercion of Plea amounting to 5th, 6th & 14th Amendments of U.S. Const. violation standards. Due to ineffective assistance of counsel appellate counsel did not inform me of Post Conviction remedies or of one year limitations period governing Petitions. Sutton v. State, 361 S.C. 644, 606 S.E. 2d 779 (2004). which lead to the missing of my deadline to file, which violated my Constitutional Rights.

RE: I'm writing in reference to appealing the dismissal of my PCR pertaining to my Case 2013A2320602895, 2013A2320602899, civil case, 2016CP2303739. Also in reference of the dismissal of counsel Deshawn H. Mitchell, AAG, Bar No. 101813.

Dear Honorable Paul Wickensimer, I'm writing in regards to the dismissal of Counsel Deshawn H Mitchell, AAG, Bar No. 101813, I never had any knowledge of him representing me what so ever so I agree with his relief. I'm also writing in regards to appealing the dismissal of my PCR for Case 2013A2320602895, 2013A2320602899, civil case, 2016CP2303739. Do Post conviction remedies or of one year limitations period governing petitions. In reference to Case Sutton vs. State, December 13, 2004 361 S.C 644 606 S.E 2d 779. There also was institutional lockdowns that with held me from meeting it as well. These circumstances are in violation of my constitutional rights 6 ad amendment.
