Re: Archie Patterson and Tami Bollerman vs. South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce
Civil Action No.: 2013-CP-06-00059

Judge Newman,

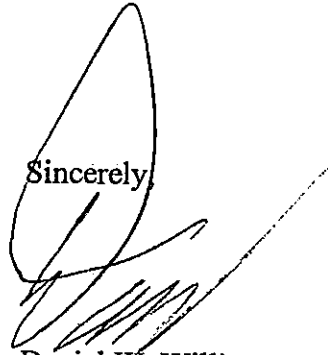

The above case is currently at the Court of Appeals, but it has been remanded to the Circuit Court to hear Defendants 59(e) motion.

This case was originally designated complex and was assigned to Judge Early to hear all matters. Judge Early retired after issuing the orders being appealed in this case. We originally contacted the Chief Justice to see if Judge Early could be given jurisdiction to hear the 59(e) motion, however Court Administration advised we should contact you as Chief Administrative Judge to hear the motion or to assign another judge to hear it.

Both parties would be happy for you to hear the motion if you are willing and wanted to know if you would have time in the next 30 days or so to hear the motion. My co-counsel is in the legislature so we prefer a Monday or Friday if possible and we are willing to travel to wherever you are holding Court for the motion to be heard. We will forward you the motion, orders, and other documents upon you advising us that you will be hearing the motion, or to the judge to whom you assign the motion.

Please let us know if we may provide anything else.

Sincerely,
