RE: David Washington VS. Mullins Municipal Court

Appellate Case No:2019-000531

Attention: Jenny A. Kitchings

I received your letter on 2-18-2020 from Court of Appeals in Columbia, SC. Under rule 208 and 209 I am not filing the brief. If failure to file the brief in this case will be dismissed. Also, statement of the case. So you can dismiss my case because the court on 7-31-2019 by not having a transcript of the hearing. I still don't have the transcript, but I paid for it, you have the receipt in your records. The order by this court was granted on 2-14-2020. Now this case is to be reviewed by the South Carolina Supreme Court. I am asking for judgment under rule 203 (d). Also, it was ordered by Honorable Judge M. Nettles. All the violations in this court case by this court. Please read all the documents on the back of this letter. If you have any questions please let me know before I file this case. I will be filing my case in ten days in the South Carolina Supreme Court. Under the Freedom of Information Act 5 USC 552(1) based on those facts in this case.

Thank you,

David Washington

(4) Failure to File. Upon the failure of the appellant to file and serve his brief within the time prescribed, the clerk of the appellate court shall sign an order dismissing the appeal, and the appeal shall not be reinstated except as provided by Rule 231. Upon the failure of respondent to timely file a brief, the appellate court may take such action as it deems proper.

(b) Content. The initial briefs under this Rule and the final briefs under Rule 211 shall contain:

(1) Brief of Appellant. The brief of appellant shall contain under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated:

(A) Table of Contents and Cases. A table of contents, with page references, and a table of cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes, and other authorities cited, with references to the pages of the brief where they are cited.

(B) Statement of Issues on Appeal. A statement of each of the issues presented for review. The statement shall be concise and direct as to each issue, and may be stated in question form. Broad general statements may be disregarded by the appellate court. Ordinarily, no point will be considered which is not set forth in the statement of the issues on appeal.

(C) Statement of the Case. The statement shall contain a concise history of the proceedings, insofar as necessary to an understanding of the appeal. The statement shall not contain contested matters and shall contain, as a minimum, the following information: the date of the commencement of the action or matter; the nature of the action or matter; the nature of the defense or of the response; the action of the court, jury, master, or administrative tribunal; the date(s) of trial or hearing; the mode of trial; the amount involved on appeal; the date and nature of the order, judgment or decision appealed from; the date of the service of the notice of appeal; the date of and description of such orders, judgments, decisions and proceedings of the lower court or administrative tribunal that may have affected the appeal, or may throw light upon the questions involved in the appeal; and any changes made

RULE 209DESIGNATION OF MATTER TO BE INCLUDED IN THE RECORD ON APPEAL

(a) Time to Serve and File. At the same time a party serves his initial brief(s) under Rule 208, to include a reply brief, he shall also serve on all parties to the appeal a Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal which shall set forth with specificity those parts of the transcript, pleadings, orders, exhibits, or other materials which he proposes to include in the record on appeal. One copy of this Designation with proof of service shall immediately be filed with the clerk of the appellate court.

(b) Content. The Designation must clearly identify what the party desires to have included in the Record on Appeal, and the Designation may only propose to include portions of the transcript, pleadings, orders, exhibits, or other materials which may be properly included in the Record on Appeal [See Rule 210(c)]. A party shall not include any matter in his Designation which is not relevant to the appeal.

(c) Certification. The Designation shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by the party's counsel of record that the Designation contains no matter which is irrelevant to the appeal.
