Statement of Issues

Did the court of common pleas make an error in establishing the values which were originally established by the final divorce decree concerning non-marital property?

Statement of the case

On December 12, 2016 the final divorce decree stated that the court adopts the value of non-marital property at $58,352.

On October 25, 2018 the court of common pleas ordered the amount of $1,200 to the plaintiff Shannon Dean Howard.

On January 15, 2019 a notice of appeal was sent to Cheryll Rae Dodd Howard and Glenn Dodd respondents.

Argument

The value from the court of common pleas did not reflect the value from the divorce decree of non-marital property.

Conclusion

For the reason stated, the court should order a reimbursement for the non-marital property that was not received by the plaintiff.
