Re: The State v. Kevin Herriott
Appellate Case No. 2019-000969

RECEIVED

MAR 12 2020

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Allen:

On March 11, 2020, the Court of Appeals sent a letter indicating the State had thirty days to serve and file an Initial Brief of Respondent and Designation of Matter in the above case. The State never received service of the Initial Brief or Designation of Matter from Appellant. In addition, when the State pulled documents off of the Court's Appellate Case Management System, the document labeled Initial Brief has Exhibits attached which are not appropriate for consideration in the Initial Brief. Further, there appears to be a request that the Court serve his Brief and other documents on the State in the place of him being required to serve the documents. I just wanted to bring these issues to your attention. I ask that you hold the time for the State's Initial Brief of Respondent in abeyance until the matter is reviewed. Do not hesitate to contact me if you need any additional information from this office.

Sincerely,

William M. Blich, Jr.
Senior Assistant Deputy Attorney General
