Re: Kevin Herriott vs. The State
Appellate Case No. : 2019-969
Reply to A G's Response To Order

Dear Clerk :

I hope this letter meet you doing well. Anyways, on the above mentioned date, the Appellant Herriott now brings forth the A G's tedious reply to cause inordinate delay. According to the Exhibits and Brief of Appellant, the Appellant Herriott show cause why he could not provide copies of the Brief nor Exhibits. The Appellant Herriott submits that he alone cannot compel the responsible officials to make him get copies while in attempting to make copies available, he did, in fact, tried, but it was not available for him and the dead-line were foremost important to meet than missing the dead-line awaiting on the responsible officials to delay the Appellant Herriott when there was no set-schedule to receive law library services such as copies made available. Secondly, the Appellant Herriott admits he does not have a copy himself, but if possible will like to receive the original submitted documents and hand-write a copy for the A G's Office in respect to the Brief of Appellant. Thirdly, the Appellant is being stone-walked to make copies. It would be gracious if this Court or either the A G's Agency get in touch with the responsible officials and contact the SC Department of Corrections to help assist with his legal concerns to adequately provide copies making them available to Mr. Herriott would be awesome. (see attach).

Respectfully Submitted,

K. E. Herriott

I am being denied to use the law computer during the afforded time table due to being retaliated against R4U prison official Sergeant Wright.
