Appeal Of Order To Dismiss

RECEIVED

MAR 16 2020

SC Court of Appeals

Now comes Plaintiff Pro se., Mitchell Shane Matthews with this Appeal of order
To Dismiss, that was electronically signed by The Honorable Judge R.E.Hood,
On 10-22-19. Plaintiff does appeal this decision based on the following:

Issues

1- Plaintiff was given A hearing before the Honorable D.A. Early on 2-13-19, at which time plaintiff was given Four months to File A New complaint and that the statute of limitations would be tolled during that period. See Attached letter that was sent by the defendants attorney David A. DeMasters to The Law Clerk Jocelyn Newman at the clerks office.

2- Defendants have totally misrepresented the dates of this civil action in order to get Judge Hood to sign the order of dismissal. There was A clearly established time line for this matter to be brought back before the court, yet the defense counsel has left out this in the hopes of securing that dismissal.

3- As the defense attorneys are officers of the court they are suppose to uphold the proffessional standards that have been outlined for there field.
To withhold information that would give clarity to the courts is A clear violation of those standards. The letter attached does clearly show the court that this has occured.

Relief

Plaintiff requests that the Court overturn the order of dismissal and allow plaintiff to proceed with this civil matter, As this would be in the interest of justice.

Plaintiff does submit this foregoing as True and correct under penalty of perjury on this 30th day of October, 2019.

Dated: 10-30-19

Respectfully

Mitchell S. Matthews
