Appellate Case No. 2020-000454

RECEIVED
MAR 26 2020
SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Allen:

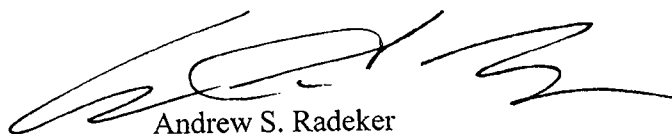

I represent the appellant in the above-referenced case. I received a letter from you yesterday stating that I had not provided a copy of "this document" to the Office of Court Administration. I can only assume that by "this document" you mean the correspondence ordering the remaining transcript in this case. As noted in the enclosed copy of my email correspondence with your office, I did, in fact, provide a copy of the correspondence ordering the transcript to the Office of Court Administration; however, since you have determined that I did not, I provide another copy of it to that office by copy of this letter. I must admit that I am curious about the method used by your office to reach the determination that I had not previously provided that correspondence to that office. If I am just off base and you mean to refer to a different document, please let me know what that document is.

I also note that I received a copy of the ordered transcript on March 19, 2020. By my calculation, that makes the appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal due on April 20, 2020, since April 18, 2020, is a Saturday. If the court sees this differently, please let me know.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Of course, if you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

With kind regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
HARRISON, RADEKER & SMITH, P.A.

Ms. Huntsinger & Ms. Hollis:

I believe Ms. Huntsinger was the court reporter for the status conference that was held on January 23, 2020, in this case. In any event, I need to order the transcript of that conference. If you would let us know how much it is when it is ready, we will get you a check.

Please let me know if you need any further information.

Ms. Singleton:

The email requesting the transcript was sent with a courtesy copy to Court Administration at transcripts@sccourts.org, which, for reasons unknown to me, is displayed as the lowercase word "transcripts," as though that were the name of the addressee, by my Outlook program. Do I need to send another copy of it to Court Administration in addition to the one already sent to them?

Also, I received a copy of the requested transcript on March 19.

Thank you.
