Dear Clerk of Court, ^{SC} Court of Appeals

I recieved the letter from the court dated 3-13-20. I noticed that I have 10 days in order to correct the mistakes/ deficiency in my designation of matter. Well the detention center just gave me this mail on 3-20-20, which means that 7 days have passed already by the time I got this letter sent on 3-13-20. As I have told the courts before, many times that this detention center moves at their own pace. Also that I don't have means to complete the task in the time frame given to me. Also that this detention center does not have a correct law library that I may see what the certificate of counsel "209(c) nor 267(B)" looks like. This leaves me at a handicap compared to a well trained lawyer with every book, forms, papers, etc. at the tip of his fingers. I will need more time to be able to try and complete the tasks set before me. I will also need some leniency on this legal battle as i'm not a lawyer nor has the means to do everything properly.

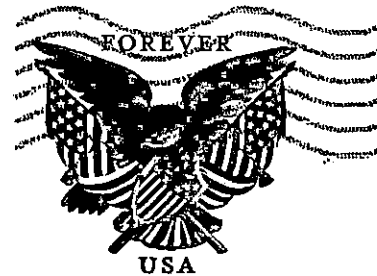

Thank You,
David Drenth
