

RECEIVED

MAR 01 2013

2-27-13

S.C. SUPREME COURT

Mr. Shearouse

Sir, in regards to Appellate Case No. 2012-207554
James Curtis Cobbert III v. State of South Carolina.
I Mr. Cobbert is proceeding Prose in the matter and is wonder, if and when Petition for Writ of Certiorari is granted: Do I have to file with the courts additional copies of appendix and brief?
Or do I just file with the court (1) one copy of my brief and (1) copy to the respondents. I'm also burden with the colors of the covers for the brief and I'm wondering do I have to comply with that rule. I James Cobbert feels that it would be a heavy burden to fulfill those requirements being that I Mr. Cobbert am a inmate and is limited to access to certain supplies. I'm requesting to this court the exception of certain rules being that I'm an indigent

Thank you!

James Cobbert

