My name is Samuel Decarlos Watson, Appellant I'm sending this letter in regards of Appellate Case Number 2019-001903 I have proof attached from my public defender that I was within the Ten day window to file the appeal that was sent to the court's I have a order from your office dated January 10th 2020 saying Appellant's motion to file Appeal out of time is denied. Because appellant failed to timely serve the notice of appeal. This appeal is dismissed Do to Rule 203 (b)(2) Search After a plea or trial results in conviction or a proceeding resulting in revocation of probation as you can see that the appeal was served on all respondents within the Ten day after the sentence was imposed Rule 263 (b) the time prescribed by these rules for performing any act as you can see I sent this appeal to Chris bands and the York County Clerk of Court's on the same day I was sentenced in there Court's on January 28th 2020 I got a letter of Remittitur from your office I would like for the attached letter I've sent along with this to help me get my case back opened and looked into it will show that I didn't have anyone there to represent me I have many letters to prove this from the office of the attorney general dated February 4th 2020 saying I needed a attorney appointed to represent me the judgment was done on appellate case number 2019-00193 on January 10th

Dear Mr. Watson:

I have received your letter dated 12-21-2019. In it, you ask about why I filed an appeal on your behalf. I did so because you wrote to me on 10-11-2019 requesting an appeal. I filed the appeal based on that letter. While your appeal was definitely within the 10 day window provided by the rules, I did not receive your letter until after the 10 day window to appeal was expired. I filed your appeal and a motion to allow your appeal to go forward as I wasn't able to file it before your time was expired. The Court of Appeals granted my motion and allowed your appeal to go forward. As for any legal basis for the appeal, I do not believe there is any but I am required to file it if you ask, which it seems that you did.

I have enclosed a copy of your October 11, 2019 letter and your sentencing sheets. You should have also received a letter dated December 4, 2019 with your discovery and letters, as you requested.

I hope this answers your questions.

Sincerely,

Chris Bonds
