

To: Charleston Common Pleas

Case Caption: Diane LaPrade aka: Diane Pyatt VS Sandra Freeman, defendant, et al

Case Number: 2016CP1005559

Date: March 20, 2020

Type: To update a cause of action dropped at the court March 19, 2020. The plaintiff was unable to get the paperwork stamped by the court because of the health concerns and was told to put it in a bin and they would clock it in later. The plaintiff is adding additional information to help clarify the matter brought before the court.

The parties to this lawsuit have been served by certified mail on March 19, 2020 and a copy of that letter has been enclosed and they have been notified of the appeal being available at the court for viewing.

To appeal an order made by the Charleston County Court dated January 28, 2020 to the South Carolina Court of Appeals on March 19, 2020. The plaintiff is requesting that the case be given further considerations and be amended in order for the plaintiff to receive further relief as it may deem proper, equitable and just concerning the Plaintiff.

The plaintiff is also seeking and an automatic stay of the hearing to be held March 31, 2020 while considerations are being made.

Diane LaPrade - Prose

Diane LaPrade
They told me to put it in a bin today also 1:00 PM.

RECEIVED

MAR 25 2020

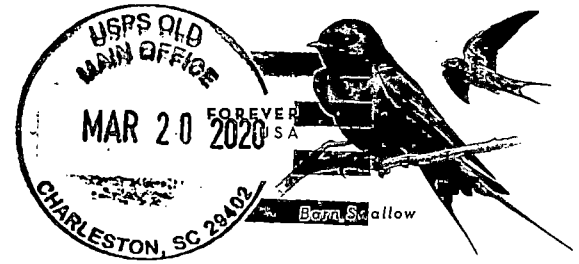

SC Court of Appeals

Steve Sprade
P.O. Box 1511
Goose Creek, SC 29445

RECEIVED

MAR 25 2020

SC Court of Appeals South Carolina Court of Appeals
Jenny Abbott Kitchings, Clerk
P.O. Office Box 11629
Columbia, SC 29211

CHARLESTON
2108 528 1252
20 MAR 20
PM 11

