THE COURT: Call your first witness.

MS. BAGLEY: Stephen Hunt.

JOSEPH STEPHEN HUNT,

having been first duly sworn,

was examined and testified as follows:

THE WITNESS: My full name is James Stephen Hunt, but I go by Steve Hunt.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS. BAGLEY:

Q. Could you please tell the Court what you do for a living.

A. I work for a company called Warren Group in Columbia, South Carolina. We are forensic engineers and consultants, and we investigate accidents and losses and claims for insurance companies and law firms, and I'm a safety consultant.

Q. What does forensics mean in your line of work?

A. It means that we are -- we're on behalf of the legal court system to analyze losses, investigate those losses and/or accidents and determine the cause, if we can.

Q. And to the extent that is any different than what you described, what are your duties and responsibilities as president and senior safety consultant with Warren?

A. As senior safety consultant, my area of expertise is fall safety. About 90 percent of the cases that I've worked in the last 16 years have been premises liability, slip, trips, and falls.

Q. How much of your work is on behalf of plaintiffs and defendants on litigated cases?

A. I have run about 20 percent plaintiff and about 40 percent defense cases in my career.

MS. BAGLEY: May I approach the witness, Your Honor?

THE COURT: You may.

BY MS. BAGLEY:

Q. I'm going to hand you what's been marked for identification as Plaintiff's Exhibit 5. Could you tell me what that document is, please.

A. Yes, ma'am, this is my detailed CV.

Q. And does it accurately reflect your educational background and work experience?

A. Yes, ma'am, it does.

Q. And what is your educational background?

A. I have a BS degree in administrative management and a minor in occupational safety and health from Clemson University in 1977.

Q. All right. Could you please give the Court a brief overview of your experience.

A. I graduated from Clemson in 1977 and went to work for the insurance industry and worked as a safety and loss consultant, and that job entailed inspecting the clients of the insurance customers, their policyholders, inspecting their premises to detect hazards, investigating accidents that they may have had, auditing their safety programs.

I did training and wrote detailed technical reports to those clients specifying recommendations to them on how they could correct deficiencies that I found in my inspections as well as make improvements in their overall loss prevention programs.

Q. And what certificates or licenses do you have?

A. I have -- in addition to my college degree, I've got an associate's degree from risk management from the insurance institute in 1982. I'm also a chartered property and casualty underwriter, and I finished that program in 1989.

Q. How many years have you worked as a safety consultant?

A. Thirty-nine years; twenty-three, as I said, was with the insurance industry, and the last sixteen have been in the forensic area.

Q. How many accident investigations have you conducted in your career?

A. Accident investigations, over 1,000.

Q. Do you know how many of those relate to slip, trip, or falls on walkway areas?

A. That would be probably in the neighborhood of 350 to 400, something of that nature.

Q. Are you a member of any professional organizations?

A. I am. Been a member of the American Society of Safety Engineers since 1978 Charter Property Casualty and Underwriters Society since '89; also a member of the International Protection Society, and those are the major ones that I'm currently involved in.

Q. Have you published any articles in your field?

A. I have. I've written columns for some of our clients over the years, and then we've had newsletters from our firm and also have things on our web site that I have published.

Q. In your work as a safety consultant, have you had experience in reviewing and interpreting construction plans to determine whether a facility has been constructed in accordance with those plans?

A. Yes. Those are relevant in many of the cases, and we ask for them. We don't always get them, but we do probably get them and need them in about 30 percent of the cases.

MS. BAGLEY: Your Honor, at this time, we would offer Mr. Hunt as an expert in the field of fall safety investigation and codes and regulations, standards relative to building construction.

THE COURT: Any cross-examination as to his qualifications?

MR. McLEOD: Just briefly, Your Honor.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. You're not a licensed contractor, correct?

A. No. I'm a safety expert.

Q. Okay. And you're not a licensed architect, correct?

A. That's correct. I'm a safety expert.

Q. You're not a licensed engineer, correct?

A. That's correct. I'm a safety expert.

Q. Sorry. Just need to get it on record.

So are you qualified to review plans as a residential contractor would be?

A. I review the plans from comparing them to established codes and standards and to see if they are in compliance with them and whether or not the actual construction was performed in accordance with the plans.

Q. Well, you would agree with me that a residential builder or a commercial builder would be better able to read a set of plans than you would be?

A. I don't know about that. It depends on what --

THE COURT: This is on qualifications, Mr. McLeod.

MR. McLEOD: That's all the question I have.

THE COURT: I'm going to find him qualified to render opinions on premises liability as plaintiff's expert.

MS. BAGLEY: At this time, I would also move that Exhibit No. 5, Mr. Hunt's CV, be moved into evidence.

THE COURT: Any objection?

MR. McLEOD: No objection.

(Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 5 was marked for identification and admitted into evidence.)

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS. BAGLEY:

Q. Are you familiar with the plans and drawings for the Fred's store located in Williston, South Carolina?

A. Yes, ma'am, I am.

Q. Did you have an opportunity to review those during your work on this case?

A. I surely did.

Q. And are you familiar with architectural drawings?

A. Yes, I am.

Q. What are those?

A. Well, architectural drawings are the plans that were drawn by the architect for the building, the structure itself.

Q. And what are engineer site plans?

A. Well, the site plans are the drawings and plans that are developed by the engineer after the elevations are shot, and that has to do with incorporating the building on to the site, and they're looking at the parking lot, the walks, the curbs, the parking lot, primarily for drainage.

Q. Are you referring to the engineer?

A. The engineer, correct. You got one set of plans that is the building by the architect, and you got the engineer's plans for siting it on the particular piece of land that is selected for the siting.

MS. BAGLEY: May I approach the witness?

THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

BY MS. BAGLEY:

Q. I'm going to show you what has been premarked as Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 3. Can you identify that document?

A. Yes, I can.

Q. All right. What are those?

A. Those are the site plans.

Q. And, generally, can you describe what the site plans call for or show insofar as the front walk of Fred's is concerned?

A. Well, sure. It just shows where the concrete sidewalk would be and where the entrance to the Fred's would be and the elevations at that point, and those are the general areas that I focussed in on because that's where the accident happened.

Q. And do you have an opinion to a reasonable degree of professional certainty as to whether or not the sidewalk in front of the Fred's at issue was designed properly?

A. Was it designed properly? I would say so, yes.

Q. Do you have an opinion as to whether the sidewalk was constructed properly?

A. As far as the sidewalk or the curb ramps, the sidewalk probably was, but the curb ramps that were located on --

THE COURT: I can't hear you. Speak up.

THE WITNESS: The curb ramps that were on the sidewalk were not constructed in accordance with these plans.

BY MS. BAGLEY:

Q. What is the basis for your opinion?

A. My review of these site plans and also my interview with the engineer Hildebrand.

Q. Describe a little bit more fully with regard to how the curb ramp was not constructed properly.

THE COURT: I thought he said they weren't constructed in accordance with the site plans. I don't know if he said properly, constructed properly, or just not in accordance with the site plans.

THE WITNESS: Not in accordance with the site plans, and I could -- if I could maybe show -- get up and show this, maybe that would help.

THE COURT: You do however best you can present it.

THE WITNESS: I guess I can hold it up here.

THE COURT: What he's showing us, that's page two?

THE WITNESS: That's page two of the site plan.

THE COURT: Of the site plan that's Exhibit 3.

THE WITNESS: And so what you have here is these are the two entranceways.

THE COURT: You want to say that again?

THE WITNESS: Hold on a minute. Let's use a chair or something. Actually, I got a little gadget here. Can y'all see it?

THE COURT: No, I can't. Put it back up there. Entranceway, that's one there?

THE WITNESS: That's the doors and the entrance way to the Fred's.

THE COURT: Correct.

THE WITNESS: And here's the other one.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE WITNESS: And, actually, she fell on a flare that was located on a curb ramp that is not pictured in these site plans, and the reason it wasn't pictured in these site plans is they didn't intend for curb ramps to even be constructed. They only -- or handicapped ramps, whatever you want to call them, and the reason for this is when the engineer got the elevations, it showed that he didn't need to have a big curb, a six-inch curb, and it could be flush.

So, if you look, the finished floor level for Fred's is 108 feet. The sidewalk, which is a ten-foot sidewalk where these tick marks and this number right here, which is 10749, that's how much of a drop that you have.

Now, that drop of .1 of a foot is 1.2 inches, if that makes sense. So this sidewalk -- and typically sidewalks are constructed to slope a little bit, just for drainage, to keep water off of a building, so there's no -- if you look at the architectural plans, architectural plans at the word ramp, they show the flares for the ramp as well.

So there's several things going on here that tell me that -- that show us that a curb ramp was not to be constructed on this.

THE COURT: All right. Come back up.

BY MS. BAGLEY:

Q. Mr. Hunt, did you have an opportunity to inspect the area where Ms. Fountain allegedly fell?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. And based on your inspection, did the curb ramp as built, was it constructed properly?

A. No, it was not constructed properly, so in addition to the fact that the curb ramp should have never been constructed to begin with, and if it had never been constructed, we would have had the intention was to have a flush -- the parking lot asphalt was to be flush with the sidewalk.

If that was the case, she never would have tripped and fell because it would have been completely flush, but what they did build was improper, and I can -- in several ways, and I can talk about that, if you'd like.

Q. Please do.

A. First, let me just go over the -- this is some of the details from the architectural drawing and, again, with the architectural drawings -

MR. LaFAVE: Are those -- I'm sorry. Are those from the site plans?

THE WITNESS: I think these are from the architectural drawings.

BY MS. BAGLEY:

Q. Take a look at page three of the site plans.

A. It could be. It has them in both.

THE COURT: Well, which ones are you referring to?

THE WITNESS: Either one, for the point I'm going to make. Yeah, this is in the site plan as well.

THE COURT: Page three?

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right.

THE WITNESS: And the only point I'm trying to make is that, you know, is that -- and a lot of these are standard details. They're just shown in that, and this is a typical curb. A curb is six inches high, okay? And so that's important for what we're going to talk about here in a minute.

So now we come, we have -- this is the details for the handicapped plan right here.

BY MS. BAGLEY:

Q. Is that also from the site plans?
A. I would say it's probably on both.
Q. Will you take a look at the site plans and --
A. I will.
THE COURT: Page one of the site plans.
THE WITNESS: It's on page one of the site plan, correct.
BY MS. BAGLEY:
Q. Thank you.
A. And, again, they put those standard details in everything, but this is a -- this is what we would call a proper curb ramp, and the reason we have to provide these curb cuts, or these curb ramps, is because of ANSI, American National Standards Institute A117.1, which is the accessibility law in South Carolina, okay? It's required in South Carolina. Also, it's the very same design for a curb ramp is what the ADA, Americans with Disabilities Act, has.

The reason we've been having to do this for 30 years now is since the early '90s, because they passed the law, the ADA law, that says you have to provide a barrier-free entrance into -- accessible route into and out of buildings that the public visits, and so this is the design that they've had for all these years.

And this design, you'll see what the design shows is that there's -- this is a six-inch curb, okay? And you have to have a 12:1 slope, so a 12:1 slope -- so for every inch in rise, we've got one inch of run, so if you have a six-inch curb, you're going to have six feet of run. All right? And that's what this design says.

You have six feet. That flare is supposed to be six feet long, and that curb is supposed to be six inches high. Another detail on there -- and that's the slope it's showing the slope. To make a little more sense, I think we'll look at the actual as built in a few minutes, but also note -- so these flares are sloping toward this, which is the entrance path toward the building, and that is the ramp that the pedestrians are to walk over.

The reason for these flares, the reason for these flares is for people with mobility problems in wheelchairs. When they come out, they use the little ramp to get down, and it is a ramp as well, so we've got two slopes going on here, a running slope and then this, which they call the flare on this side of the ramp.

Did you have another question?

Q. Did the ramp as built comply with the site plans?

A. Okay. So this is the -- what we have here is the actual curb ramp that was constructed at the Fred's, and this is the flare. I think this is from Defendant's Exhibit 2. This is the flare in the area where she tripped and fell.

MS. BAGLEY: And just a point of clarification, that was a stamp from a deposition, Your Honor.

THE COURT: That's Exhibit No. --

MS. BAGLEY: 1.

THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

MS. BAGLEY: Thank you.

THE WITNESS: So what's wrong with the picture?

THE COURT: What what's wrong with the picture? What's wrong with the --

THE WITNESS: What's wrong with the ramp? What's wrong with the scene here? First, it never should have been built. It should have been flush. This curb, right here, is around two inches.

THE COURT: What does code call for?

THE WITNESS: The plans call for six inches. A normal step by the building code is supposed to be a minimum of four inches, okay? But this one is two, and the reason this is important is because small changes in elevation are very hard for people to see and perceive, and they don't see them and they catch their toe on them and they trip and fall.

Over my 39 years, I can't tell you how many sidewalk cases I've worked where the sidewalk was uplifted by a tree root or through differential settlement, it's like this, and people walking down the sidewalk catch their foot and trip and fall and they're hurt. So none of them ever see it, and they don't see it because people do not look down at their feet when they walk. They look where they're going, which I think is what Ms. Fountain testified to.

So this is two inches. What is wrong --

THE COURT: And the site plan calls for it to be flush; is that correct?

THE WITNESS: The site plan called for it to be flush; in other words, there should have been no curved flare at all, no change in elevation, none at all. It should have been completely flush across here, but the asphalt for the sidewalk should have been brought up to this level, okay? And then just a normal walking surface into the building.

What else is wrong with this is that back to my example, where you have a six-inch curb height, on a one and twelve slope, that would give you a six-foot flare. On a two-inch curb, our flare should be two feet, right? This flare isn't two feet. It's actually 48 inches. It's longer, but it's not because it's gradual. It's because it's very wavy and irregularly constructed.

It's hard to see in this photograph. You can see a little bit. It starts out high and kind of comes down, but back in here, it's even higher, but the important part about it is if it had been two foot rather than 48 inches, you know, the flare would have been back here and half the distance, which might have made a difference. It might have taken it out of her path that day.

The other thing is because it's 48 inches and because of where it's located, when I took a ten-foot level and looked at all of the flares, this is the only flare that protrudes into the walking zone, which is back here on the plan, the actual running ramp. This one protrudes about 13 inches into, so it's the only flare of the four flares that does that, and, again, that might have made a difference in her walking path that day.

The other thing I want to point out is that the plans -- and it's the architectural plans -- the architectural plans called for painting of the curb. This is still considered part of the curb. I don't know why, but they didn't paint this. It really should have been painted by the contractor, especially given the fact that it doesn't meet the codes and standards for a regular curb ramp, but it was not painted. If it was painted, that may have also made a difference.

I have seen -- investigated a lot of accidents before where paintings, they still did not see it because it was so small and they tripped and fell, but it could -- all of these things can make a difference.

MS. BAGLEY: May I approach the witness, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. BAGLEY: The parties are stipulating to the architectural drawings. We didn't admit them yesterday.

THE COURT: And they would be what number?

MS. BAGLEY: Plaintiff's 6.

(Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 6 was marked for identification and admitted into evidence.)

BY MS. BAGLEY:

Q. I've just handed you what's been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 6. Can you identify that set of documents?

A. Yes, ma'am. These are the architectural plans, the drawings of the building.

Q. And you testified a moment ago that those plans called for the painting of the sidewalk edge?

A. Yes, ma'am.

Q. Can you tell us where in those plans it calls for --

A. I believe that's under A4.0. Yeah, it's in A4.0. It says the front sidewalk edge and four inches of the top edge painted yellow.

Q. And is it your opinion that the sidewalk and curb ramp as constructed do not comply with architectural drawings?

A. That is correct, in all of those areas. And I would indicate on the front page of the architect plans that it does reference that the 2003 international building code and the 1998 international code counsel, ANSI, which is the American National Standards Institute, accessible buildings A117.1 were the codes that they referenced in developing these plans.

Q. And are those the codes and regulations that you referenced earlier?

A. Yes, ma'am.

Q. Is it your opinion that the sidewalk and curb ramp as constructed violated those curbs and regulations?

A. Yes, ma'am.

Q. Do you have an opinion, Mr. Hunt, as to whether the general contractor Tippins-Polk should have known that the plans called for the sidewalks to be flush?

A. Yes. I mean, I would think that a contractor should have the specialized knowledge and skill to be able to read the plans and to know about them.

In addition, also in these plans, it states very specifically, in both the architectural plans and in the site plans, that if there's to be a change of if there is a question about any of the plans as designed that they should contact the engineer or the architect for clarification and problem solving, if necessary.

Q. And did you see anything in your review of this case to see if the contractor either contacted the engineer or the architect?

A. No. In fact, when I interviewed Mr. Hildebrand he stated he never got a call from the contractor about his work.

Q. Mr. Hunt, is the demonstrative -- the blow-up of the photo of the area that you were referencing a bit ago, is the is the ramp will necessarily -- the flare will necessarily have an elevation in it that's less than four inches; is that right?

A. Yes, it is a decreasing slope; yes, that's correct.

Q. And that would not violate any code, would it?

A. No, because -- and this is an important point: The design, which has been a tried and true design by ANSI and the ADA for many years, contemplates the six-inch curb. You can see the six -- when you approach this ramp, you can see the six-inch height and see the slope starting to go down.

That's contemplated in the design; however, if you've only got two inches, two inches is less than a normal step. It's very difficult to see, so you can't see that slope or the step.

Q. In your experience, Mr. Hunt, do you have an opinion as to whether WILDEVCO would have had a duty to hire someone other than the general contractor to inspect the property to make sure that it had complied with the site plans and architectural plans?

A. I don't believe. There's no requirement or duty that I know of that would require him to do that.

Q. And would you expect WILDEVCO to be able to discern the alleged construction defects to which you testified?

A. I've read his deposition, and he doesn't have a background in -- he doesn't have any training, experience, or education in construction or anything that would have given him specialized knowledge to be able to know this.

Q. Mr. Hunt, do you have an opinion to a reasonable degree of professional certainty more likely than not whether the defects which you testified caused or contributed to cause Ms. Fountain's fall?

A. Yes. I think it is the direct cause of her fall, the fact that -- either way you want to look at it, but the fact that if it wasn't there, it would have been flush, she could have walked plainly in; the fact that it was there and built improperly with a small change in elevation that was hard for her to see -- she didn't see it. She was looking where she was going through the entranceway and caught her toe, tripped and fell.

MS. BAGLEY: Thank you, Mr. Hunt. No further questions.

THE WITNESS: By the way, there was a video -- just to add to that, Fred's had video surveillance of the actual fall, and I did review that, and her fall from the video, which clearly shows how it happened.

MS. BAGLEY: Thank you, Mr. Hunt.

THE COURT: Mr. McLeod?

MR. McLEOD: Thank you, Your Honor.

RECROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Mr. Hunt, the site plans, do they include how to construct the sidewalk?

A. Yes.

Q. It does? That's your opinion?

A. Well, they've got the details for it.

Q. Okay. And do the architectural plans tell you how to build the sidewalk?

A. I'll probably have to look back through those to see if they have them in there.

THE COURT: Do you have someplace you can refer him to?

MR. McLEOD: I think he referred to them already when he said the curb be painted in the front.

THE WITNESS: Yeah, that was 4. Yeah, it does have the -- it does have it right here.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. So what's your opinion --

A. Four inch -- four-inch slab.

Q. So which controls the construction of the sidewalk, in your opinion?

A. Which controls the construction --

Q. Yeah, the --

A. The site plans, the site plans, because, again, those are the ones where you have shocked the elevations, and, you know, they can vary from site to site as to how you lay it out.

Q. So how far up that sidewalk up to the side of the building did the site plans control? Does that make sense?

A. Are you talking about the one over there?

Q. Well, you're saying that the site plans include this sidewalk --

A. The site plans include the entire sidewalk.

Q. The entire sidewalk?

A. Yeah.

Q. So the site plans contemplate all the way up to the building wall, exterior wall; that's your opinion?

A. I'm not sure I'm understanding your questions. The site plans show the elevations over here on this one.

Q. Right.

A. They show the elevations for the sidewalk. That's the sidewalk. We're talking about the sidewalk.

Q. Yeah, yeah.

A. All the way across there, all right?

Q. And so these plans, the site plans, they control over the construction of this sidewalk that we see right here that you just pointed to.

A. They control with the elevation, that part of it. There's also other requirements as far as, you know, how -- you know, what the height of the curb, what type of concrete, things of that nature that are used for the sidewalk.

Q. The site plans control that? I'm getting confused. Let's start over.

A. Okay.

Q. All right. This sidewalk that we see right here at the Fred's store that's in Williston, do the site plans control construction of this or do the architectural plans control?

A. Site plans do.

Q. And that's your opinion?

A. Yes, yes.

Q. Okay.

A. But, I mean, it's a combination. You have a --

THE COURT: He's already said the site plans control the elevation. Architectural plans control what goes in it and the components and sidewalk and all that.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

THE COURT: You said it three times.

MR. McLEOD: I was unclear, and I'm sorry.

THE WITNESS: No, no, no. I'm --

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Okay. Have you ever constructed a curb ramp?

A. No, I have not.

Q. Have you -- other than the one at your office, I think you testified -- well, have you ever seen the construction of any curb ramp?

A. Oh, yeah. I've seen a bunch of them.

Q. Okay.

A. Including the one at our office, which I testified about in our deposition, if you want to get into all that.

Q. Now, a curb can be less than six inches, correct, under code, correct?

A. Yeah, yeah. I mean, you can work with them. Ideally, they should be six inches because that's what the design calls for, but when you have elevations, you can work with them, but they shouldn't be under four.

Q. That's not in the code, correct?

A. It's in the building code, that four-inch minimum -- it's a minimum step.

Q. Well, a curb is not a step, correct?

A. Yes, a curb is a step. It is a step. You step up on it.

Q. Okay. And you mentioned the slope, 1:12. That's a -- you could build a slope less than that, correct?

A. Yeah. You could have it more gradual or you could go up to a one and ten as well. You have to have enough room behind it on the landing part of the ramp in order to have a more -- a steeper slope of one and ten.

Q. And how many inches did you say this flare came out in front of this door?

A. Thirteen inches.

Q. Thirteen inches, and since the site plans control, we've got a ramp of four feet here, correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. Do you know how big the door was?
A. The door is a six-foot door.
Q. So four is less than six?
A. Correct.
Q. So under the site plans, you've got the flush -- I mean, the flare coming in front of the door, correct?
A. Yeah, but the --
Q. If this is six and that's four --
A. Yeah, I know, but that's -- you've got to remember, that has -- that flare has a slope on it.
Q. Sure, but if the door up here is six feet and the flush area is four feet, you're going to have an area over here and an area over on the right side and the left side of the flare in front of the six-feet door, correct?
A. Yeah, that's correct, that's correct, and that's the -- yeah, that's correct in the standard detail.
Q. So when it sticks out in front of the door, that is contemplated in the plans, correct?
A. Well, typically -- typically, that's the typical standard detail, but typically the ramp area is the same width as the doors.
Q. Let's talk about these plans and this store, okay? This is four feet, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And the door is six feet, correct, so there are flares that are going to be in front of the doorway, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. When you talked to Mr. Hildebrand, he told you the parking lot was supposed to be flush all the way across the front?

A. That's what I interpreted when I talked to him, but you got to remember I talked to him the night before my deposition, but now when you look at it, you see that it drops to 107.5 over here, so you would have .9 minus .5, which would be -- 4 times 12 would be -- you'd have about a 4.5 drop -- a 4.8 drop, excuse me, on that corner.

Q. How many inches is that?

A. 4.8 inches drop.

Q. Okay. So at this corner of the store there is a slope of what?

A. 4.8.

Q. 4.8 inches?

A. And it slopes up to where this here is supposed to be flush.

Q. Right. It's your opinion that anything under four inches is a tripping hazard, correct?

A. No.

Q. Oh, it's not?

A. I'm saying anything under four inches is difficult to see and can be a tripping hazard.

Q. Okay. So it's not your opinion that anything under four inches is a tripping hazard?

A. Well, I take that back. I guess I am saying that, that anything under four inches can be a tripping hazard, yeah.

Q. Okay. So then let's go back to this design. So you wouldn't want a curb running less than four inches across the front of this Fred's store, correct?

A. Excuse me?

Q. If anything under four inches is a tripping hazard, you would not want to design a plan where you have less than four inches of a curb going across the front of the Fred's store, correct?

A. No.

Q. So tell me where it's going to get flush. Well, where is the parking lot becoming flush with the sidewalk in this design?

A. Here, all around the front entranceway where he's got it at 107.9. Remember, the finished floor is 108, and then it drops to 1.2 inches, which is the slope of the sidewalk and it should be flush right here, right at that point where the asphalt meets the thing.

Now, back to this, what you're saying about a tripping hazard here, at some point -- you've got a long run here. At some point, this 4.8 inches comes up and will be flush right here, and it gets shorter and shorter -- I mean, I see that's where you're going.

Q. Exactly.

A. But, again, the point here is, remember, when you're coming from a parking lot, that's contemplated that people will see that, that they will see the high curb and it going slope -- that's the same principle we have with the slope on the flare, that you have the height of the six-inch curb or the four-inch curb and you see that in your field of vision which tells you that it's sloping -- you can see the slope coming down. That's incorporated within the design.

Again, also, it's more important here than it is there. Why? Because we're walking into the entranceway of a store, where you got doors, where you got people coming and going and your eyes are focussed on what you're going to be doing when you come in that door, not looking down from your field of vision.

Q. I'm going to get to that. That's a very important point. I appreciate you pointing that out, and we'll get to that in a little bit. What is the maximum you could have for, like, a flare that we're talking about on a ramp? What's the maximum slope?

A. The maximum slope?
Q. Yes.
A. The most you can have is a one and ten.
Q. Okay.
A. According to the code.
Q. Have you made any calculations to figure out the slope that runs from the right side of the store all the way to the flush part?
A. No, no, I haven't. I mean, to me that didn't --
Q. It's not important?
A. I don't see that being important.
THE COURT: Speak up, please.
THE WITNESS: I said I didn't see that as being important.
BY MR. McLEOD:
Q. Well, it's 4.8, you don't even have to drop an inch, so to drop an inch in a 1:12, you only have to go one foot, right?
A. Right.
Q. Okay. So we go one foot to the left of this corner of the building, and the rest of it is under four inches; is that correct, until it gets to the center?
A. I don't know how the slope -- I don't know how the slope would work, because you've got other factors at work, like how much asphalt they put in there, et cetera.

I mean, I haven't -- I haven't analyzed that.

Q. Okay. Well, let's analyze it right now. You're qualified to do it. Tell me what the slope is right there. Is it supposed to be a level slope or is it supposed to be wavy or you tell me?

A. No, I mean --

THE COURT: What's the question? Hold on. Rephrase the question so I can understand it.

MR. McLEOD: Yes, Your Honor. Yes, Your Honor.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Okay. We talked about the maximum slope, 1:12, and so if you got this side over here, which you just testified to was 4 inches, 4.8 inches --

A. Right.

Q. And you testified earlier, just a little while ago, that anything under four inches is a tripping hazard, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And so when you use that slope, 1:12, if you go one foot, that edge of that curb has now dropped -- it's dropped by one inch, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. So one foot from the right, you got an area that's starting below four inches, correct?

A. Right.
Q. And it runs all the way --
A. Till it gets flush, at some point down this line.
Q. Right here is where it says, correct?
A. No. That's not what that's saying. That's saying that that mark right there is to be flush. It's not telling you that this is running from here to there. It could be coming up and reach this point here.
Q. Wouldn't it be smart to make a note of it on the site plan if that's the height of it there?
A. Not necessarily. I mean, I don't see how that has anything to do with the fall incident that occurred over here at the entranceway.
Q. I'm talking about the plans, and whether or not these plans -- would you design a building with a slope running all the way across the front of it calling for less than a four-inch curb?
A. No.
Q. You wouldn't want --
A. You wouldn't want that.
Q. Okay.
A. And, see, he started -- this is started at 4.8.
Q. And so you go a foot to the left, and you're at 3.8.
A. So if people are coming from -- you know, I still don't understand what this has to do with her fall over here --

THE COURT: Sir, let's start over now. Ask a question. You quit trying to worry about what he's going to ask and answer it. Let's move on. We're stuck on this.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Well, then you'll agree with me, won't you, if you design a building that you've got a curb running across the whole front less than four inches, running all the way to the center of the building, you've got a tripping hazard all along that front, correct?

A. No, because, again, it's the same principle as the flare. When you have a high part that it starts from, that's within your visual field, you can see that it's starting to slope, so that alerts you to the fact that there is a change in elevation there so that you can step up on it, especially if you're walking from the parking lot towards, say, that part.

If you want to go walk on that, that part of the walk, that's in your field of vision; however, if you're walking toward the -- and the same thing applies with the sloping flare from six inches down to zero. That's what the codes, the standards say, for safe design.

Q. Okay. What do they say specifically again?

A. They're saying that these designs that we've talked about and I pointed out earlier, that's what they defined as a safe design, to start out with a high curb and to come down to a slope on the flare.

It's when you've got a real small change in elevation that runs the entire length around the entranceway that's where you have no visual cue -- there is nothing to visually cue you in on that height.

Q. You said you're a safety consultant for 37 years?

A. Thirty-nine, yeah.

Q. And you touched on it, and it included inspection of properties in an effort to find tripping hazards, correct?

A. That's -- well, yes. That's part of what I've done.

Q. Finding hazards similar to what Ms. Fountain --

A. That's correct.

Q. -- tripped on?

A. That's correct.

Q. And you've been a safety consultant dealing with loss prevention at retail stores, correct?

A. Yes, I have.

Q. Walmart, correct?

A. Walmart was one of my clients and Lowe's was one of my clients.

Q. And they hired you to walk around the store looking for tripping hazards similar to what got Ms. Fountain, correct, among others?

A. Among others. We looked at -- they have a number of risks, both of them.

Q. And then when you come across something like a tripping hazard, you can safeguard it?

A. That's correct.

Q. Correct? And then you can -- if you can't, I guess, adequately safeguard, you can warn about it, correct?

A. That's correct. And a warning, as we talked about here, would be painting, but it says -- another standard that I often use is the American Society of Testing Materials, ASTM, 16-37 which is the safety walkway standard which the construction industry uses, and basically they say, you know, warnings are great, but warnings do not trump safe design and construction, so while I said earlier painting can be helpful, it's not as good as having a good design in the first place.

Q. Imagine if you had a curb at 4.8 at the far right of a building and it ran about 50 feet down to zero, would that be a safe design?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. You said you did some work for Lowe's and Walmart, retail stores similar to Fred's, correct?

A. Well, I don't know if they're similar to Fred's, because I don't really --

THE COURT: They're all retail outlets. Go ahead.

THE WITNESS: They're both retail, yeah.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Let me ask you this: Did you ever deal with repainting curbs and parking lot striping and that type of thing?

A. Have I dealt with that?

Q. Well, I mean --

A. I've recommended that.

Q. To repaint them?

A. Yeah.

Q. How often shall should a store repaint the yellow paint on a curb, for example?

A. I think that's going to be a judgment call based on how worn it is. I mean, some of them may take a lot of abuse from carts and things like that and weather and the quality of the paint that was used. I mean --

Q. One common premises incident that often results in serious injuries is a trip and fall, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. That's what happened to Ms. Fountain, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And I wanted to mention you had some publications, some of them were on your web site, such as a block, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And I'm going to hand you what's going to be marked as No. 4, Defendant's No. 4.

THE COURT: What is it?

MR. McLEOD: It is a blog from Mr. Hunt's web site. I can give you a --

THE COURT: Your question is?

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. This is a blog you published on your web site, correct?

A. It is.

Q. And it's dealing with trips and falls, right?

A. It is.

Q. And in this blog, you indicate you did an investigation where somebody tripped over a wheel stop at an apartment complex, correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. And the wheel stop, it migrated over as a tripping hazard, correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. And your conclusion was the apartment management company failed to provide a safety pedestrian walkway where one was expected by the nature of the environment, correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. The apartment didn't create that condition, correct?

A. The apartment didn't create that --

Q. The apartment management did not create that condition, correct?

A. No. It was -- it's the cars bumping up against the wheel stops that moved it over into the pedestrian path that caused it.

Q. The apartment management company did not put the wheel stops in the parking lot, correct?

A. The management of the apartment complex?

Q. Yes, sir.

A. Not the management at this apartment complex because they weren't the original owners of it. They purchased it at some time later, and the wheel stops were there when they bought it.

Q. But someone else installed wheel stops, correct?

A. Somebody else installed the wheel stops.

Q. Okay. Now, you'll agree with me owners and occupants of buildings open to the public have a recognized safety standard to inspect their properties with an interest in preventing pedestrian falls, correct?

A. Yes, and in this case, which is interesting that you brought this out, this is a maintenance issue. It is also something that -- a condition of that can be observed by management, so they do have the duty to inspect, but these wheel stops were in the center and there was a change. They moved. It's something they could see, that they could notice as something as opposed to a design defect that has no change. It's been there from the beginning and they relied upon the contractor to build it properly, so that's the distinction between this. Owners still have duties, though.

Q. I appreciate that distinction, but it's still a recognized safety standard that owners and occupants of buildings open to the public do inspections, looking for tripping hazards, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And Ms. Fountain, when she approached the Fred's store, she would have expected to have a safe walking area, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. However, WILDEVCO and Fred's failed to provide her a safe walkway as she traveled into the store, correct?

MR. LaFAVE: Objection.

THE COURT: Sustained. That's for me to decide.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. You did a lot of investigation into this trip and fall, correct?

A. Yeah, about normal, I guess.

Q. Did Fred's ever indicate to you that they did inspections looking for tripping hazards?

A. I never had any documents or any information on Fred's as to what they did or didn't do with regard to this other than what was testified to by maybe Mr. Polk or somebody in some of the depositions, and I can't even recall what they said about that.

Q. Well, under that recognized safety standard, they should have, though, correct?

A. No. I'm saying that they relied on the contractor.

Q. Okay.

A. Unless you can show me they had specialized knowledge and skill in the area and had performed some kinds of inspections, but I don't -- I never saw any of that.

Q. Did you ever ask for it?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Did WILDEVCO conduct these type of tripping hazards -- inspections looking for tripping hazards? Excuse me.

A. I don't know.

Q. Did you ask for any documentation about that?

A. No. I didn't see any documentation.

Q. They should have, correct, under that recognized safety standard, correct?

A. Well, I think if they are in the area there, if they notice something, they have a duty to act on it if there's a change.

Like, for example -- and I don't have any information on that, but the typical thing you find is parking lots, essentially, there is some maintenance issue. Suppose the parking lot has a pothole in it that somebody could fall in. I would hope that WILDEVCO, or whoever, when they are at the site, would notice that and have it repaired, or if there's a broken section out of the concrete which could create a tripping hazard, they could see that. They could see there's a change as opposed to a subtle defect like this, which is, you know, a construction defect.

Q. You testified earlier that sort of the primary focus of where the customers all go are in that little front area of the store, correct?

A. I'm just saying to get into the store, you have to go through the entranceway.

Q. Okay. Does -- the Fred's store in Williston, does have a curb less than four inches?

A. Yes.

Q. And after four-and-a-half years after construction, you'd expect someone to pick up on a curb being less than four inches, correct?

A. No. People don't do that. It happens all the time, unfortunately.

THE COURT: Speak up, please. I can't hear you.

THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. I said it happens all the time, unfortunately. The answer is no. Sir, could I have a drink of water?

THE COURT: All right. Move along please.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. You looked at architectural drawings, correct?

A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. And the architectural drawings contained curb ramp, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. As did the engineering site plans, correct?

A. No. The site plans, they just have the standard detail on there, but they're not --

Q. So then you'll agree with me that this ramp detail was on the engineering site plans, correct?

A. Yes, it was.

Q. And you may have touched on it a little bit, so I'm sorry to replow it, but any time you build a curb ramp, you're going to have an area less than four inches, correct?

A. Yes. It's -- the sloping flare is always going to go to zero to flush.

Q. And we touched on this a little bit. Tell me what the safety hierarchy system is.

A. Well, the safety hierarchy is a principle that's been in place for many, many years, and it basically says that if you think you a hazard, you should first try to design it out so that you don't have the hazard. Whether it has to do with something like this or a machine, you design it out.

If you can't design it out, then you try to put a safeguard in place and something that would help people encountering the hazard, and, thirdly, the last part is that you would warn about. Obviously, that elimination of the hazard would be the best alternative.

Q. And so according to the ramp included on the site plans, there is going to be an area under four inches, correct?

A. Yeah, but if you're talking about the safety hierarchy, the top of the hierarchy would be to eliminate the hazard by having it flush and not having the curb ramp at all.

Q. I'm talking about just this drawing about the --

A. Right.

Q. The site plan's ramp has a detail that's going to have an edge less than four inches, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And you testified earlier anything under four inches is a tripping hazard, correct?

A. No. What I've said is, is if you don't have any -- what I've said is that you are going to have -- in these designs, you're going to have some areas under the four inches, but you've got to have a starting height that serves as a visual cue to the walker that tells them that they can see, that shows them that yes, there's where the slope is going to begin and to know to alert them so that they can avoid it.

They've got to step up, regardless. On any curb or any flare, you've got to step up.

Q. So -- and you agree and it's your opinion anything under four inches is a tripping hazard, correct?

THE COURT: Mr. McLeod, you have asked him that at least ten times. Don't argue with me. Move on, please.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. And so according to this design, there is going to be an area under four inches, and this design doesn't design out an area less than four inches, correct?

A. Yes. It doesn't design it out. It's contemplated in the design.

Q. So is that safety hierarchy, it applies to retail establishments like the Fred's store in Williston, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And so should -- when you have an area under four inches, you should safeguard it, correct?

A. No. If it's a proper design, if it's the proper design, it's contemplated to be safe.

Q. Painting it is a means to warn the customers, correct? Painting the curb, the transition of the area, is a means to warn customers, correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. Placing a sign in front of the transition is a way to warn customers, correct?

A. That would be another way, unless it's a sign that they could run into and get hurt, but that's -- bollards, sometimes you see bollards. They're ramp posts.

Q. Were there any bollards at the Fred's store in Williston?

A. No. There's not any in that one.
Q. Was there any in front of the propane area?
A. I can't recall if there were or not, but that wasn't on the design.
Q. It wasn't on the architectural plans either, correct?
A. It wasn't on the architectural or the site plans, but they're not -- you know, bollards are -- there's no real requirement to use them. They just happen to be something that is used from time to time.
Q. Does the building code require that the -- in 2005, did the building code require the curb to be painted?
A. No, it did not. There's a new -- we actually had no standards for painting of the curbs prior to the most recent one, which happened after the accident, and there now is a standard that requires for the flares to be painted on these curb ramps.
Q. And when was that implemented?
A. I think it's January of 2012 is when it became effective.
Q. And along the same lines, there is no code requirement, building code requirement, that the ramp edge or transition area be painted, correct?
A. No. Back then there wasn't.

Q. Do you know if Fred's or WILDEVCO ever hired a safety consultant like yourself to do any inspections around the property?

A. I don't know, no.

Q. Should they have?

A. No, I don't think so, not for something like a store like this.

Q. Even though they have a recognized safety standard to conduct inspections looking for tripping hazards?

THE COURT: Is that a question? Please, gentlemen. Come on.

MR. McLEOD: All right.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Have you ever visited the Fred's store in Varnville, South Carolina?

MR. LaFAVE: Objection.

THE COURT: Sustained. Nothing to do with this case. Move along.

MR. McLEOD: It does, Your Honor. I would like to get it on the record.

THE COURT: Please move along. You want to do a proffer?

MR. McLEOD: Yes.

THE COURT: What do you want to talk about?

MR. McLEOD: He visited the store.

THE COURT: Which store?

MR. McLEOD: Varnville.

THE COURT: With regard to this litigation?

MR. McLEOD: With regard to this litigation. I have building records that indicate it.

THE COURT: What is your question?

MR. McLEOD: I want to get into the fact that the Varnville store put up bollards, painted, and put up a warning sign in the same area, type area, that the plaintiff tripped because there was a previous incident that occurred December 20th, 2009.

THE COURT: Sir?

MR. LaFAVE: Your Honor, he has no evidence at this point, number one, as to the measurements of the flared sides at the Varnville store.

Number two: There's no evidence as to who installed the bollards or the warning signs, merely the fact that they were put up. There is evidence in the record from the lease agreement the exterior of the buildings, curb ramps, parking lots, those are all maintained by the landlord, not by Fred's.

THE COURT: Sustained.

MR. McLEOD: We had --

THE COURT: Sustained. Move along. We are trying it on the Williston store.

MR. McLEOD: May I get on the record the fact that they had previous knowledge? We have a witness who's familiar with the Varnville store.

THE COURT: I have sustained this objection. Please move to another subject. We're trying this case based on what happened in the Williston store, not in Varnville.

MR. McLEOD: Please bear with me. Part of the elements is they knew or should have known about defective conditions.

THE COURT: You're protected.

MR. McLEOD: Thank you, Your Honor.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Fred's -- neither Fred's nor WILDEVCO painted the transition prior to plaintiff's fall, correct?

A. No, it wasn't painted.

THE COURT: Speak up. I can't hear you.

THE WITNESS: No, it was not painted at the time of her fall, so nobody painted it.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. And they didn't put up any warning signs or bollards, correct?

A. No, but I don't believe they were aware it was a hazard, so they didn't have a duty to.

MR. McLEOD: I think that's it, Your Honor.

That's it. Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. LaFAVE: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the Court:

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. LaFAVE:

Q. Mr. Hunt, good morning.

A. Good morning.

Q. You were asked a number of questions about this, and I think you've mentioned that this was in the site plan -- the standard detail report of the curb ramp was in the site plans, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. If the engineer who has already testified in this case indicates simply including it in the standard detail report does not indicate it is to be built in the final construction, would you defer to the engineer in that regard?

A. Yes, I would.

Q. Okay. And you've also seen the blowup of the site plans, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. And your testimony here is the site plans, which is what governs the construction of the building, do not call for the installation of that curb ramp, correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. I believe your testimony was the curb ramp itself where the flare started down was two inches; is that right?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So if we are going from a one and 12 slope, that flare should have been how long?

A. Two feet.

Q. If we were going from a one to ten, that flare should have been how long?

A. That should have been 30 inches, something like that.

Q. Thirty inches or twenty inches?

A. I mean 20 inches, correct.

Q. Okay. So we're between 24 and 20 inches long, and this curb flare was how long?

A. It was 48 inches because of the irregular way of the construction to it.

Q. And you've also testified from a safety standpoint it's advisable to eliminate low transition; is that right, transitions under four inches?

A. That's correct.

Q. And you'd agree, obviously, that the transition on a flare at certain points is going to be less than that four inches, right?

A. I would agree with that.

Q. Would you agree that it's recommended to keep that flare as small as possible to avoid a longer transition below four inches?

A. Yes. I think that's the point I was trying to make.

THE COURT: Speak up, please.

THE WITNESS: I said yes, I think that was the point I was trying to make earlier. I'm sorry. I'm losing my voice.

BY MR. LaFAVE:

Q. The image of the standard detail report, does this at all in any way indicate the length or width of the doors?

A. No.

Q. Okay. So this standard detail report does not even contemplate the presence of entrance or exit doors, does it?

A. No, it does not.

Q. You were also asked a number of questions about your background as far as investigations, talked about investigations for Walmart and investigations for Lowe's. What's the number of investigations you've done for retail entities?

A. For retail?

Q. Yes, sir.

A. In my career?
Q. In your career, trip and fall incidents at retail locations.
A. Oh, man, it would be hundreds.
Q. Okay. The retailers that you've done these investigations for, are they knowledgeable about building codes?
A. Well, most of the people I deal with there, they're not.
Q. At the store level?
A. The store manager people are not, no.
Q. Would an ordinary person at a store level conducting a reasonable inspection be able to identify this curb ramp as a tripping hazard?
A. No.
Q. Would they be able to identify this in a reasonable inspection as a building code violation?
A. No.
Q. Was there any deterioration that you could see or change that you could perceive in that curb ramp, being a crack, chunks missing, anything of that sort?
A. No. There was nothing like that.
Q. The condition of that curb ramp in your opinion as it was built in five months previous?
A. Yeah. It was made out of concrete and it had not changed.

Q. How many of your investigations for retailers have involved onces you've rendered your opinion code violations?

A. Oh, gosh. I'm not sure I could hazard a guess on that. I mean, my memory is not that good going back over 39 years, I'd guess.

Q. And those investigations, had there been certificates of occupancy issued?

A. I don't know, in a lot of them.

Q. Okay.

A. You know, I really don't.

Q. Have you ever had occasion to do an investigation where you found a code violation after certificate of occupancy has been issued?

A. Oh, yes; oh, yes. In the forensic area, I've had more experience in that.

Q. Are you aware of any duty where a retailer is required to hire a safety expert such as yourself to look for trip and fall hazards?

A. There's no requirement.

Q. What is the most common occasion that you get brought in by a retailer to do an investigation?

A. Well, when we had -- when I worked for the insurance industry, we were providing insurance coverage for them, and so, you know, we did it as a service, and then when I worked for an insurance service provider, a third party administrator, we did it as part of a package of services. It was a contract to do services for, like, Lowe's.

Q. What would be the most common indicator to a retailer that an issue like this would be hazardous?

A. If someone like me had pointed it out to them.

Q. Is there an alternative that would have been an indicator that this could be a problem to a retailer?

A. I mean, if an accident had happened there previously, they might choose -- an investigation might show that.

Q. Are you aware from 2005 when Fred's took ownership and occupied this building from March of 2010 of any trip and falls at the Williston store on that particular curb ramp?

A. I was not made aware that there were any other falls.

Q. You were also asked some questions by counsel about whether or not Fred's was doing any inspections. If there was a deposition of a risk manager as to inspections done on a store level, would you defer to the store manager of Fred's as to what was or wasn't done?

A. Sure. That would be information that I would take into consideration.

Q. Okay. You had also talked about the ASTM standards. Are those factors into this particular building?

A. No. It's not really specified on the details.

Q. Okay.

A. It's just a good consensus standard.

Q. Would they be relied on by the inspector when they're going through to issue the certificate of occupancy?

A. Excuse me?

Q. Would the ASTM standards be relied on by the county inspector when they're issuing the certificate of occupancy?

A. No. I wouldn't think, so no.

Q. Counsel also asked you some questions about the safety hierarchy. Do you believe based on the site plans that the engineer in this case intended to design out this potential trip hazard by designing out the sidewalk?

A. That's what he did. That's what he did. I don't know -- I really don't know what his intentions were with it. It could have, but --

Q. Okay. But, in your opinion, if the site plans were complied with, it would have designed out this particular hazard, correct?

A. That's correct. It would have been flush. The entranceway would have been flush, and she wouldn't have tripped and fell.

Q. Would you consider that particular curb ramp a latent defect in the construction of this building?

A. I'm not sure what you mean by a latent defect.

Q. Was the curb ramp defective, as far as the construction?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay.

MR. LaFAVE: No further questions.

MS. BAGLEY: Nothing from us, Your Honor.

THE COURT: You may step down. Thank you.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

THE COURT: Let the record reflect last night I read all the designations y'all handed to me, so what y'all need to do is maybe just put into the record, or make it a Court exhibit or an exhibit, the designations that you gave me, which I've read, and then we'll put the depositions in.

MR. LaFAVE: Was that subject to the one objection that we had?

THE COURT: I didn't overrule your objection because I've heard it all.

MR. LaFAVE: Okay. Fair enough.

THE COURT: And I've also read the deposition transcript of -- the de bene esse deposition of I guess it's Eugene Mitchell, and so we've done that, so you can call your next witness.

MS. LEWIS: Thank you, Your Honor. The plaintiff will call Angela Taylor.

ANGELA TAYLOR,

having been first duly sworn,

was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

THE WITNESS: My name is Angela Taylor.

BY MS. LEWIS:

Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Taylor. Where do you reside?

A. I reside in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Q. And are you currently employed?

A. Yes.

Q. And by whom are you employed?

A. Liberty Mutual Insurance.

Q. And what is your occupation?

A. I'm an attorney. My occupation is manager of the eastern region for our legal strategic services department where we are responsible for legal quality review of our outside counsel law firms.

Q. All right how long have you been in that position?

A. Fifteen years.

Q. And in your current position, do you have the opportunity to approve and review legal invoices from outside counsel?

A. I do.

MS. LEWIS: I would like to have marked for identification Plaintiff's 7, please.

BY MS. LEWIS:

Q. Ms. Taylor, I'm going to show you what has been marked for Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 7. Could you identify that document, please.

A. Yes, I can. Plaintiff's Exhibit 7 are legal invoices for outside counsel.

Q. And are those invoices submitted in the matter of Martha and Curtis Fountain versus WILDEVCO and Fred's?

A. Yes.

Q. And are those records of those invoices received and legal fees paid documents that are made and kept in the ordinary course of Liberty Mutual's business?

A. Yes, they are.

Q. And are the records routinely recorded at the time that the amounts are paid?

A. Yes, they are.

Q. All right. And were the records of payments for legal services that have been identified in that document made by a person with knowledge of the invoices and knowledge of the payments?

A. Yes, they were.

MS. LEWIS: All right. Your Honor, at this time, we would move to admit these invoices into evidence.

MR. McLEOD: I'd like -- no objection, with admission of it, but I'd like to cross her on some of the entries, if that's possible.

THE COURT: Mr. McLeod --

MR. McLEOD: Your Honor, they've produced this --

THE COURT: You know you get to cross-examine everyone that gets to testify.

BY MS. LEWIS:

Q. Ms. Taylor, with regard to those entries, were you involved in this case on a day-to-day level, the supervision of this particular case?

A. No, I was not.

Q. You would not have been the one to review these particular invoices as they were submitted on a monthly basis?

A. No, I was not.

Q. And I think you may have been made aware that there were underlying components. There was an underlying case and a third party claim?

A. Yes, I am.

Q. In your capacity currently, would you have the knowledge to testify as to which of these bills were related to which aspect of the case?

A. No.

MS. LEWIS: Thank you. I don't have anything further.

MR. McLEOD: Ms. Taylor, a couple questions.

THE COURT: Invoice number seven, is it broke out between the primary case and the indemnification case?

MS. LEWIS: Yes, Your Honor. What we have done is gone through the invoices and highlighted in yellow things we agree relate --

THE COURT: Who is we?

MS. LEWIS: My office, Lee Ellen and me, and we have highlighted those in yellow. Things that are not highlighted at all are things that we contend are related to the underlying claim and are due and payable, and things in blue are things such as Mr. Hunt who we hired before the third party claim but obviously has testified in this case as well. We deducted those. We have those, so 50 percent of those charges have been deducted, but

Ms. Taylor didn't do that, I did that, so she's really here to authenticate the invoices so that they can be presented to the Court, but I have prepared an affidavit showing -- you know, it's setting forth that we have reviewed and have deducted the tasks that we have determined were related to the third party claim.

THE COURT: Well, with that in mind, I may just let you show Mr. McLeod the affidavit. If he wants to cross-examine you, that may be the better cross-examination.

MR. McLEOD: Yeah, we do want to cross-examine her, and we mentioned this before we got back on, but we believe they waived any attorney-client privilege. There is nothing redacted in those, so we may have to go down that path. We believe, under the case law, once they --

THE COURT: That hasn't even come up yet. You may cross-examine.

MR. McLEOD: Thank you, Your Honor.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Ms. Taylor, are you familiar with the settlement process of this case at all?

A. No, I'm not.

Q. Did you review the settlement document in this case?

A. No, I did not.

MR. McLEOD: Then that's it. Thank you.

MR. LaFAVE: No questions, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Ms. Taylor, you may step down.

All right. Next witness, please.

MS. LEWIS: Your Honor, at this time all we need to do is submit our designations. I do need to recall Mr. Barber briefly on the -- just to question him about the settlement.

THE COURT: First of all, is Plaintiff's Exhibit 7 in yellow is what you're seeking reimbursement for?

MS. LEWIS: No, sir. The clear is what we're seeking full reimbursement for. Anything that is not highlighted is what we're seeking full reimbursement for. The yellow has been deducted in its entirety, and the blue we deducted half of those charges because we assessed those to be related to both claims.

THE COURT: What is the full amount?

MS. LEWIS: The full amount is 55,418.30, and it's included in my affidavit.

THE COURT: And where is your affidavit?

MS. LEWIS: Here's my affidavit, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Have you shared that with

Mr. McLeod?

MS. LEWIS: I have.

THE COURT: You may recall Mr. Barber.

Mr. Barber, you're still under oath. Come up and have a seat, please.

THADDEUS BARBER,

having been previously duly sworn,

was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MS. LEWIS:

Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Barber. Just briefly, were you contacted or consulted with regard to the settlement of the claim with the Fountains?

A. Yes.

Q. And did anyone promise you anything or threaten you in any way or do anything else to compel you to agree to settle that case?

A. No.

Q. Okay. And were you in agreement with the settlement?

A. Yes.

Q. And did you think that the settlement under the circumstances was reasonable?

A. Yes.

Q. All right. And did -- was there any misrepresentation or any effort by you to conclude or confer with the Fountains to enter into a settlement for any inappropriate reasons?

A. No.

MS. LEWIS: Thank you, Your Honor. I have nothing further.

THE COURT: Cross-examination?

MR. McLEOD: Sir?

THE COURT: You want to cross-examine him?

MR. McLEOD: Yes, I would.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Have you seen the settlement agreement in this matter?

A. I have not, no.

Q. You have not? Wouldn't you think it would be important to know the terms of the settlement agreement to determine if it was in your best interest?

A. Well, I knew the general settlement amount and the division of who was paying.

Q. Tell me that division again. What's the division under your understanding?

A. WILDEVCO is responsible for $250,000 and I believe Fred's contributed 40,000.

Q. Are you familiar with -- or were you told by your counsel about a provision about releasing liability as to being a tortfeasor, a joint tortfeasor under this settlement agreement?

A. I'm not sure what that term necessarily means. There was some discussion, I recall, about some liability, but I don't know what the legal terms were.

Q. Talking about WILDEVCO's liability, correct?

A. I believe so. I believe all the parties, what the repercussions would be if there was a settlement, you know, those participating in --

Q. So it's your understanding that all the parties, including WILDEVCO and Fred's and Tippins-Polk, were liable for plaintiff's injuries, correct?

MS. LEWIS: Your Honor, I want to object to this line of questioning. Mr. Barber has not had any knowledge of legal -- these are calling for legal conclusions.

MR. McLEOD: The only reason I got into that is he mentioned the liability aspect of it, so I asked him.

THE COURT: Do you understand the language and the meaning of the release other than relying on your attorneys?

THE WITNESS: Just discussing with the attorneys, and their opinion is what I was basing that on.

THE COURT: Are you worried about being protected yourself?

THE WITNESS: Correct.

THE COURT: You're using the company?

THE WITNESS: Correct.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Did the lawyers ever say that they felt WILDEVCO was liable?

A. No, don't think so.

MS. LEWIS: Objection, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. I'm going to hand you what I've been represented is the settlement agreement, and that second paragraph of section 11 --

A. Okay.

Q. Would you just take a moment and read that, the first several sentences.

A. Okay.

Q. Do you know who prepared this document?

A. I do not.

Q. And those sentences I read to you discuss the plaintiff's releasing WILDEVCO as a joint tortfeasor, correct?

A. That's what it says, yes.

Q. One follow-up question on the earlier testimony -- did we not go there? Okay. Thank you.

MR. McLEOD: That's it, Your Honor. Thank you.

MR. LaFAVE: Just one quick question.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. LaFAVE:

Q. Were you aware of any promises or guarantees made to Fred's to secure their $40,000 contribution in the underlying settlement?

A. No.

MR. LaFAVE: Nothing further.

THE COURT: You may step down.

MS. LEWIS: That will be the plaintiff's case, Your Honor, other than the designations that we will submit, and I think that the Court has a copy of the video of the fall and the de bene esse deposition.

THE COURT: I will return the video as an exhibit in the case, and that was stipulated. The de bene esse deposition I have read, but we'll put the transcript into the record. I got all the depositions up here, and your designations, just make sure you give it to the court reporter.

MS. LEWIS: And other than the affidavit, that would be the only other issue.

THE COURT: All right. You want to cross-examine on that today?

MR. McLEOD: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. Ma'am?

REGINA HOLLINS LEWIS,

having been first duly sworn,

was examined and testified as follows:

THE COURT: Stipulation is that Ms. Lewis is a member of the bar. She's been the defense counsel in this case, and she submitted an affidavit dated -- actually, it's undated, but she's given it to me today, and I'll -- it was sworn to on the 16th, 17th of June, so I assume that's the date.

THE WITNESS: That is correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I'm going to give you your affidavit and the Exhibit 7.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. On the second page of the billing statement, Exhibit 7, thank you, Your Honor. There is -- the fifth line down, it's revised draft of settlement agreement.

A. Yes.

Q. And that's -- is that something y'all are seeking from us, according to what you've marked and unmarked?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And so how is this not part of dealing with the underlying claims, since you're releasing -- having the plaintiff release the liability of WILDEVCO?

A. I don't understand the question.

Q. Okay. So are you seeking -- this is not highlighted, and I think you represented earlier that the ones that you're seeking are the ones that are highlighted.

A. No. The ones that we are seeking are the ones that are not highlighted. The ones in yellow are the ones for which we deducted the entire amount, and the ones in blue are the ones we've reduced by 50 percent because in our analysis, they were related to both claims.

Q. Okay. Who prepared the settlement agreement in this case?

A. My office prepared it.

Q. So your office elected to include paragraph 11, correct?

A. Yes.

THE COURT: Mr. McLeod?

MR. McLEOD: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: She is testifying as to the bill. She's not a witness in the case. You put her up because I assume you have question as the $55,000. She is a witness as to answer any questions that you may have concerning $55,000.

MR. McLEOD: And, Your Honor, we have been produced and the Court has admitted Exhibit No. 7, which is a billing statement which includes all of the activities that the attorneys for WILDEVCO and Fred's, un-redacted. We believe they've opened the door. There is no longer attorney client.

THE COURT: Mr. McLeod, I have told you what your limitations to her are. She's not an ordinary witness in this case. She's a witness as to the fees. I will not allow her to be examined on her attorney-client privilege -- or attorney-client relationship with her client. She's here simply to answer any questions you have on cross about the $55,000.

MR. McLEOD: Then I have no more questions as long as that's on the record. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: That is on the record. I don't know how it could not be on the record when I just put it on the record. Please.

You may step down. The plaintiff rests?

MS. LEWIS: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Does Fred's intend to put any testimony on?

MR. LaFAVE: Your Honor, our only testimony was through the deposition designations we gave to you last night, and I worked with counsel to streamline things, stipulate to the affidavit of my paralegal who was here yesterday to testify so she didn't have to come back down, as well as invoice detailed report which indicate the bills submitted to and paid by Fred's for our defense of their case.

THE COURT: Mr. McLeod; is that correct?

MR. McLEOD: That's my understanding, yes, sir.

THE COURT: He said y'all stipulated and consented to --

MR. LaFAVE: To the affidavit of my paralegal as well as the invoice detailed report which was prepared and supplemented to the affidavit.

THE COURT: Is that correct?

MR. McLEOD: We stipulated to that.

THE COURT: And your designations are also -- I think you had those written out, so if you will make those a part of the record at the appropriate time -- this is the appropriate time, but just at the conclusion, so y'all get up here and housekeep everything into the record.

MR. LaFAVE: We will, Your Honor, and I handed ours to your clerk last night. Thank you.

THE COURT: Now, I assume that concludes y'all's presentation on behalf of the plaintiffs for request for indemnification.

MR. LaFAVE: It does, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Any motions by Tippins-Polk Construction?

MR. McLEOD: Yes, Your Honor. We'd like to move for directed verdict.

THE COURT: All right. Give me your reasons.

MR. McLEOD: First of all, we believe there is no special relationship between Tippins-Polk and Fred's in this matter. There was no direct contract.

The first element as to equitable indemnification is they have to prove Tippins-Polk could have been responsible for the damages, but they also have to prove Fred's and WILDEVCO was without fault. I think they failed to meet the first burden -- I mean, the second element --

THE COURT: That they are without fault?

MR. McLEOD: They are without fault. The shopkeeper's liability is founded upon the duty of care the possessor of land owes to an invitee. Generally, a person owes an invitee the duty of the exercise of reasonable and ordinary care for the safety and is liable for any injuries resulting from that.

We heard Mr. Hunt sit up here and say there's a recognized safety standard that owners and occupants of buildings open to the general public have a duty to inspect their property and find tripping hazards.

THE COURT: I agree that's correct. He is correct and that is correct, but I don't think that duty includes looking for latent defects which was not in the ordinary capacity to know about. I mean, that's why they employ engineers and architects.

MR. McLEOD: Your Honor, WILDEVCO testified they conducted no investigations of tripping hazards and they didn't hire anybody to identify tripping hazards. The building was built in 2005. The incident did not occur until 2010. South Carolina recognizes that constructive knowledge can be created over a period of time.

THE COURT: That's correct, when the banana peel turns dark on the floor.

MR. McLEOD: Mr. Barber testified that when you walk up to the front of the Fred's store, you could tell you had a curb painted. You could also tell that you didn't have a painted area right there the at the transition area. They should have been noticed of that issue after four-and-a-half years. They failed to find it. They failed to fix it under the safety hierarchy which Mr. Hunt mentioned, and therefore they have failed to protect their customers, such as Ms. Fountain.

Furthermore, Ms. Fountain specifically sued them for failing to take reasonable precautions to avoid unsafe conditions, failing to warn, failing to inspect, failing to remedy conditions, failing to discover and warrant and make safe existing unreasonable risk.

She never sued the defendants, third-party plaintiffs, for creating the condition. She sued them for failing to find it, and according to Mr. Hunt and Mr. Barber, they didn't conduct any inspections. According to the testimony of the Fred's representatives, their clerks would go around looking for tripping hazards.

The plaintiff said she could not perceive the small elevation change she tripped on. Mr. Hunt testified the design of the site plans includes a ramp, and that ramp had a small elevation. She could not perceive it. The code did not require it to be painted. The architectural plans called for the curb to be painted, but didn't specify about the edge of the handicapped ramp. That condition existed for four-and-a-half years, and under that recognized safety standard that Mr. Hunt mentioned, Fred's and WILDEVCO failed to notice this condition and paint it or put up some other type of warning to protect their own -- I mean, their customers.

WILDEVCO had an opportunity for a final inspection. Mr. Barber said that he may have gone by there a couple times. He failed to hire or pay the architect to go back and inspect the finished product to ensure that the safety plan that is to be implemented under the architectural plans and agreement, to make sure the plan was implemented by the general contractor.

Fred's, in the lease agreement, they have a punch-out period where they go in and inspect the property prior to moving in. I'm not sure that took place or not, but they had an opportunity. They moved in, and under the lease agreement, they accepted the property.

Now, I realize that South Carolina does not follow the acceptance doctrine, but that was a contractual provision. A little bit different here. So they accepted that property, moved in, ran the store for four-and-a-half years, and here comes Ms. Fountain who trips on this condition that is right in the front of the store, where, as Mr. Hunt testified to, is a primary place where people are going to congregate, an ingress, egress at the front of the store.

WILDEVCO has conducted monthly inspections, but, as Mr. Hunt said, he wouldn't have been qualified to look for safety issues. WILDEVCO failed to hire anybody to conduct those safety inspections.

Under South Carolina law, the owner of premises that are open to the general public have a separate duty to their customers. Yes, Tippins-Polk has a duty as well, but there are two distinct duties here: Tippins-Polk may or may not have breached their duty. Of course it's the Court's decision, but there's a separate duty owed by the stores and the property owners to those customers if they know they're open to the general public. We believe they failed to protect the customers like Ms. Fountain.

THE COURT: Protect them from what?

MR. McLEOD: Defective conditions or unsafe walk areas.

THE COURT: Do you have any case law in the State of South Carolina that puts the burden on the landlord or the tenant to go out and make inspections to see if, in fact, their contract complied with the site plans and the law, the architectural plans, and to determine whether or not there is a violation of the building code?

I've been doing this thing a long time, 40 -- too long, 42 years. I've tried many, many slip and falls, and, as a lawyer, worked on many, many slip and falls, and no case requires a landowner or lessee/lessor to go out and to make sure that the contractors complied with all the site plans, architectural plans, and/or building codes.

MR. McLEOD: Your Honor, there's evidence in the record that there were no building code violations here. And --

THE COURT: Duty to require them to make sure that they have constructed the premises in accordance with the site plan and/or architectural plan.

MR. McLEOD: Both WILDEVCO and Fred's had an opportunity to inspect the property prior to moving in, Fred's moving in, and they failed to hire anybody, such as the architect or engineer, to come and review and make sure the life safety plan, which is addressed in the architectural contract, to make sure that was implemented properly.

There is a duty and a recognized safety standard, according to their own expert, for these types of businesses and owners of these buildings to go out and look for a tripping hazard.

THE COURT: I agree with that, go out and look in the parking lot for potholes, go down aisles and see if there is anything sticking out. They've got that duty.

I agree with that, but I don't think you can show me a case that says that a tenant or landlord has to go out and has a duty to inspect to make sure that this contractor, who they hired complies, with the site people they hired, the engineer and/or the architect who they hired, all these workers to ensure that the construction was safe.

MR. McLEOD: And, again --

THE COURT: You show me a case that says that.

MR. McLEOD: Your Honor, I'm not saying they should have gone and checked and made sure the contract did various things.

THE COURT: I understand what you're saying. I just disagree with you.

MR. McLEOD: And their expert says there is a recognized safety standard, and they did not go out and look for tripping hazards, and based on their expert's testimony and the testimony of WILDEVCO -- at least WILDEVCO did not go out and do an investigations and look for tripping hazards. Again, this condition existed for four-and-a-half years.

THE COURT: You've already said that.

Anything else?

MR. McLEOD: The settlement agreement specifically states, Releasing liability as to Fred's and WILDEVCO as joint tortfeasors. That document contemplates the fact that they were, in fact, joint tortfeasors.

Paragraph 11 of the settlement agreement attempts to release their liability as joint tortfeasors. That was prepared by counsel for WILDEVCO, and it was provided to the plaintiff upon, I'm assuming, the approval of Fred's, so that document there contemplates them as joint tortfeasors.

THE COURT: Anything else?

MR. McLEOD: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Ms. Lewis?

MS. LEWIS: Just briefly, Your Honor. There is sufficient evidence upon which this Court can find that WILDEVCO was innocent in this case. There is a duty, obviously, on behalf of a merchant or retailer to take reasonable steps to locate dangers that are reasonably obvious that it knew or should have known of.

There has been no testimony that WILDEVCO breached its duty by failing to hire someone to go behind a contractor, in essence, to determine whether or not the site plans were consistent, and, for that reason, there's been enough evidence presented here to surpass directed verdict.

And, further, I would point out, Your Honor, that there was evidence of a code violation. What Mr. Hunt testified to was that there was a four-inch minimum for a step. Counsel asked him, Well, a curb is not a step, and the response was, Yes. You step up. That means there is a four-inch minimum.

So there was and there has been evidence that is uncontroverted that has been entered into evidence with regard to a violation, and just with regard to the release, if I need to address that, Your Honor, the language of the release contemplated a possible contribution claim that we've already addressed here, and it released the liability of any potential joint tortfeasor, and it also said there is no admission of liability, so that does not get him over the hump with regard to that.

Thank you.

MR. LaFAVE: Thank you, Your Honor. I'll be as brief, if not more brief. I do need to address the issue of special relationship.

We certainly believe that there's been sufficient evidence. Mr. Barber has acknowledged the existence of a lease agreement with Fred's before the contract was even signed with WILDEVCO -- or Tippins-Polk. The contract for Tippins-Polk merely contemplates they were building a building for Fred's, and we've even got testimony to the fact that Tippins-Polk was identified as a general contractor for this build as a result of their past relationship in constructing premises for Fred's.

Again, as to the same arguments, Your Honor, there's sufficient evidence to establish that Fred's did nothing wrong, and, in fact, counsel just even noted it in his argument in favor of directed verdict, that there is evidence on the record that Fred's did conduct inspections for tripping hazards. It's in our deposition designations of Ms. Sanders. It's actually in the deposition designations of Mr. Polk that throughout the construction process, there was a gentleman named Ron Hanson that would come around and would inspect the build as it was being constructed.

So we have met our responsibilities under the law to maintain the premises in a reasonably safe condition, and, therefore, we believe that sufficient evidence exists to deny the motion for summary judgment.

THE COURT: All right. I'm going to deny the motion for directed verdict.

All right. Are you ready to present your case?

MR. McLEOD: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Call your first witness.

MR. McLEOD: I call Brett Polk.

EDWARD WILLIAM POLK,

having been first duly sworn,

was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Can you identify yourself.

A. Edward William Polk.

Q. And what's your employment?

A. I'm the owner of Tippins-Polk Construction.

Q. How long have you been in the construction business?

A. Since 1999.

Q. And tell me a little bit about your educational background with regard to construction.

A. I've got a bachelor of science degree from Georgia Southern University in building construction and contracting and a minor in business.

Q. And who provided the plans to Tippins-Polk for the construction of the Fred's store in Williston?

A. WILDEVCO.

THE COURT: What did those plans consist of,

please?

THE WITNESS: Architectural plans and civil plans, site plans.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. And which ones control the construction of the sidewalk?

A. The elevations are controlled by the site plan, and the sidewalk size is controlled by both architectural and the civil plans, site plans.

Q. And both call for a curb ramp?

A. That is correct.

MR. LaFAVE: Objection.

THE COURT: What's the objection?

MR. LaFAVE: Leading.

THE COURT: Sustained. You can't ask leading questions of your witness. Rephrase your question, please.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Tell me a little bit about how the plans depict the construction of the front of Fred's store at the doors.

A. With the handicapped ramp.

THE COURT: Which plans call for the handicapped ramp?

THE WITNESS: Both plans are very clear for having a handicapped ramp.

BY MR. McLEOD:
Q. And what about the -- and I may need to get elevations, which is Exhibit 3.
THE COURT: On the site plans, 3?
BY MR. McLEOD:
Q. Tell me about the elevation that's depicted in the site plans.
A. Sure.
Q. And I guess we can use this.
A. We can use that board, I guess. All right.
What you have on the front of this building is elevations of asphalt, okay? You have a 108 elevation of the concrete slab. You got a 107.9 at the flat part of the ramp, which is exactly the way it's installed. The four-foot flat is 107.9 that is where these slash lines are indicating. Mr. Hildebrand obviously --
THE COURT: You don't know what he did.
THE WITNESS: Well, this indicates the handicapped ramp. There is a huge detail on this ramp up here indicating handicapped ramp.
THE COURT: Show me what is indicated handicapped ramp.
THE WITNESS: These two black lines, and any time they were talking about a discrepancy in the plans, any time you have a discrepancy, you look back at the architectural plans. Architectural plans call for an architectural handicapped ramp.

The civil plans, the site plans, call for a handicapped ramp. There is a huge detail on the plans with elevations. Now, in this day and age, the click of a mouse will take that detail off the plans. There's no reason -- there's no way they could possibly say that that detail is not supposed to be on this plan.

THE COURT: Sir, you can't pit witnesses against each other. You just tell me what you know.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

THE COURT: They said it didn't cause you one. You said it does.

THE WITNESS: Okay. Great. Yes, sir. Now I want to get back to the elevations.

This is 107.9. This is 107.5. That's four-tenths, okay?

THE COURT: Four-tenths of a foot?

THE WITNESS: Four-tenths of a foot, which is roughly five inches. One tenth is about an inch and a quarter to an inch and three-eights. Right here is six inches, that's right. But here, on the asphalt grade, you got a .19, so you've got four-tenths' difference from here to there.

So in 60 feet this engineer drew these plans with roughly five inches, five and a quarter, maybe. Now, we installed this parking lot per the plans and specification. It's obvious that if you go from here to there, you're going to have a small ramp, a small lip, just like you did there.

We've done nothing wrong in this case. We've installed this ramp exactly per the plans and specifications, and I don't see how the plans and everything on this drawing isn't obvious. I mean, it's very apparent.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. And, again, you've heard some testimony earlier. How wide is the handicapped ramp on the site plan?

A. The flat area is four feet, and the wings on that detail are six feet.

THE COURT: Are six feet wide?

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. It says slope 1:2. Are there any other slopes --

A. Yeah. That 12:1 slope is a maximum. It can be anything less than that. It's still ADA compliant.

Q. And the doors are six feet, so you've got at least an area, a tripping area, or an area in front of the door to the right of the flush area, correct?

A. That is correct.

MS. BAGLEY: Objection to leading, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. McLeod, please don't lead your client.

MR. McLEOD: Yes, sir.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Was the building built per the plans and specifications?

A. Yes, it was.

THE COURT: All right. Now, let me ask you, plans and specifications include -- what does that include?

THE WITNESS: In this case, it just actually includes the plans. There were no specs.

THE COURT: Is that the architectural plans plus the site plans?

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: A combination of the two?

THE WITNESS: Of the two together.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. And was there paint required under any plans for the edge of the curb -- the edge of the ramp?

A. Not the edge of the ramp.

Q. Is it required by code?

A. No, it was not.
Q. Okay. Is there any -- at the time, was there any safety standard that required the edge of the ramp to be painted?
A. No, it did not.
Q. Did a safety standard come up later?
A. Yes, since 2012.
Q. How often would you need to repaint a curb such as the one in front of Fred's?
A. Well, we own some properties, and we repaint ours every two to three years, depending on the traffic, and we get a lot of traffic at our location.
Q. And what properties do you own?
A. Varnville Fred's and several other -- East Georgia Healthcare, doctors' offices throughout the state.
Q. Did WILDEVCO ever ask you to come out and paint the Fred's store after completion of the construction?
A. No, they did not.
Q. You mentioned the store in Varnville. Are there similar instances --
MR. LaFAVE: Objection.
THE COURT: Sustained.
MR. McLEOD: Are there similar --
THE COURT: Sustained. We're not trying the Varnville store. I've already ruled on it several times.

MR. McLEOD: Your Honor, we would like to proffer some evidence of a prior incident at the Fred's store in Varnville.

THE COURT: I let you do that last time. How is it going to be any different?

MR. McLEOD: I've got -- well, I've got a more familiar witness here who is one of the owners of the Varnville store and the ownership was sued, and so he's familiar with the trip and fall that occurred at that point.

THE COURT: I'll let you proffer.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Okay. Was there a prior incident of a trip and fall similar to Mrs. Fountain's fall that occurred at the Varnville store?

A. Yes.

Q. Can you tell me about that.

A. We had the same incidence where we had the store constructed with the handicapped ramp per Fred's plans and plans we were issued, and we were contacted --

THE COURT: First of all, who did the architectural plans at the Varnville store? Same architect?

THE WITNESS: No, no, sir.

THE COURT: Same site plan engineer?

THE WITNESS: No, sir.

THE COURT: How is that similar?

MR. McLEOD: It's a similar condition, Your Honor, in that it has a ramp in the front with an edge, and the person that got injured at the Varnville store tripped in the same manner as did Ms. Fountain, and it occurred prior to --

THE COURT: What are you trying to show?

MR. McLEOD: That they knew, Fred's knew, that this lady fell in the Varnville store in December. It occurred on December 25th -- 24th, 2009. It was reported. He'll testify that Fred's contacted him about it --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. McLEOD: -- shortly thereafter, so Fred's was totally aware of a similar tripping hazard at the Varnville store, and it was before Ms. Fountain's fall, and it's similar circumstances: A lady walking up to the front, catching her toe on the same --

THE COURT: Who built the parking lot in the store in Varnville?

THE WITNESS: We did.

THE COURT: And did you follow the site plans in Varnville?

THE WITNESS: Yes, we did.

THE COURT: Are they the same as the site plans as the one in Williston?

THE WITNESS: No, sir.

THE COURT: Sustained. Move on.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. In any construction project, do you get plans with items on it that don't apply to the job?

A. No, sir. I've never heard of that. That doesn't happen. Like I say, the click of a mouse can take details off of plans with AutoCAD.

THE COURT: So is it correct to say your interpretation of a site plan is different from the engineers that prepared them?

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir. He couldn't even read his own plans.

THE COURT: Well, he could certainly read them as to whether or not it required a handicapped ramp.

THE WITNESS: No, sir. He couldn't even tell what those black lines that he had on the plans.

THE COURT: That's not the handicapped ramp, is it? I'm sorry.

THE WITNESS: Sir, any contractor that would look at that plan --

THE COURT: Sir, you can only testify about what you would do.

THE WITNESS: Those black lines indicate to me a handicapped ramp. They would not be there for any other purpose.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. And as far as an engineer, do engineers, in your experience, typically do a final inspection of the job site?

A. Almost 95 percent of the time, yes. That's the way we get paid our retainage.

THE COURT: How many Fred's have you built?

THE WITNESS: Ten to fifteen.

THE COURT: You knew this was a Fred's store when you built it?

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir, I did.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. I'll hand you Exhibit -- Defense Exhibit No. 3.

THE COURT: Did you build the one in Bamberg?

THE WITNESS: No, sir, did not build that one.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. This is a certificate of occupancy for the Fred's in Williston, correct?

A. That is correct.

Q. And what's the process for getting one of those?

A. When we're completely finished with construction, we call the local building inspector, whether it's the county inspector or whether it's the city inspector, depending on the jurisdiction.

They come out. They do their final inspections, and they have to issue a certificate of occupancy before Fred's, or the owner, can take occupancy of the building. And they review everything dealing with the parking lot, the site plans, the building, everything.

Q. And what about prior -- that's a final inspection, correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. And so are there previous inspections by the county?

A. Yes, there are, throughout the whole project.

Q. What do they do during those inspections?

A. They look at specific items that we call in; below slab, concrete. They look at electrical rough in, electrical, plumbing, mechanical; they look at any of the components of the building.

Q. Now, you heard some testimony earlier about the conditions being the same as they were after the original construction.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Over time, there are changes with concrete and other --

MR. LaFAVE: Objection.

THE COURT: Sustained. Quit leading, please. Ask a question.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Tell me what happens over time at the intersection of the asphalt and concrete.

A. Well, I think, like everybody knows, when you pour asphalt, it's black. When you pour concrete, it's a light gray color. Over time, with foot traffic on this concrete, it's going to start turning black, and with the rainwater run-off and different things and over time, the asphalt turns a gray color as it cures, and over time, those two will tend to blend together.

Q. And so right after construction, where the intersection between -- describe the intersection of the asphalt and the curb.

A. Asphalt and the curb?

Q. Yes.

THE COURT: Is there a curb?

THE WITNESS: There is a curb.

THE COURT: How tall is it?

THE WITNESS: Well, it's going to vary. On that --

THE COURT: How tall is it right there where she fell?

THE WITNESS: Where she fell is probably two-and-a-half to three inches.

THE COURT: What's the highest it is along there?

THE WITNESS: It's going to go from 107.9 to 105, so it's going to vary from there down.

THE COURT: How tall is the curb at its high spot?

THE WITNESS: At the end, down there on the end from finished floor, it's going to be six inches.

THE COURT: Six inches?

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. And so as you moved to the left, what happens?

A. It's going to get thinner and thinner and thinner and thinner, all the way up. That's how the plans are designed.

THE COURT: Tell me how you determine it to be six inches. Tell me the number you're looking at.

THE WITNESS: The 108 on finished floor, here in the middle. That's your finished floor elevation, and this is 107.5. That's a six-inch difference.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. And what's the elevation on the far left side?

A. You're at 107.8, so you're just a little over two inches right here, so you're going to almost be -- you only got one-tenth difference from here to there. It's on the plan, so that's how -- and that's how the contractor would pour the asphalt. That's why they give us these spot elevations, so the asphalt will slope, the rainwater will drain.

Q. And so these tick marks, that's where that 107.9 would apply?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. Are there any tick marks between -- or elevations between the corners and front doors?

A. No. There's not any elevations, which means you're going to have a gradual slope from this elevation to this elevation.

Q. As a general contractor, when you get plans from the owners -- strike that, Your Honor.

This detail, this is from the site plans?

A. That's correct.

Q. And this also has a curb, correct?

THE COURT: That's identified as concrete sidewalk standards. I think we earlier said that was on page three or four?

THE WITNESS: That's correct.

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. And that's part of the site plans?

A. Correct.

Q. So according to these plans, it's not totally flush across the front; is that correct?

A. Absolutely not.

MR. McLEOD: No more questions.

THE COURT: All right.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. LaFAVE:

Q. Mr. Polk, you'd agree with me that the contract agreement that was signed to build this particular premises noticed it was for Fred's, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. You were obviously then aware you were building this building -- despite their not having a signature line on this agreement, you were building a building for Fred's, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. All right. You also testified here today that on the standard detail from the site plans it called for a handicapped ramp; is that your testimony?

A. Yes.

Q. Because this diagram was included on the site plans; is that right?

A. That's correct.

Q. And this diagram here calls for a six-foot flare;

is that right?

A. That's correct.

Q. And that's because, if I understood your earlier testimony, you're starting from a six-inch curb; is that right?

A. Not according to his elevations.

Q. Okay. But according to this diagram, which you say you relied on in order to determine you needed a curb ramp, this called for a six-foot flare, correct?

A. Six-foot flare.

Q. And what are the flares at the Williston location?

A. Well, according to your expert, he said they were nearly four feet.

THE COURT: Hold an a second. We're not relying on the expert. You've been out there. How long are the flares?

THE WITNESS: I didn't go out to the store and measure these flares.

THE COURT: Well, you built them. How long are they?

THE WITNESS: They can be four to six feet because they can vary. That 1:12, that 12:1 is a maximum. They're four to six feet. If you notice in this picture, you have a column right here. This will not allow you to go much further.

THE COURT: Maybe that's why he didn't think there was supposed to be a handicapped ramp there.

THE WITNESS: That detail would never have been on the plan. It shouldn't have been on the plan. Are we building -- is he trying to confuse people? I don't get --

THE COURT: Call him, maybe. If y'all were confused. Were you confused? Did you call him?

THE WITNESS: No. It was very plain and obvious the architectural drawings call for handicapped ramp. The civil drawings call for a handicapped ramp, so there was no discrepancy, in our mind, as to whether there was a handicapped ramp.

The discrepancy on the drawings is if you go to the architectural plan and it doesn't show a handicapped ramp and you go to the civil drawing and it shows a handicapped ramp, that is a discrepancy.

THE COURT: If the site plan does not and the architect plan does, does that create also something you need to look into?

THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. Say it one more time?

THE COURT: If the site plan does not have a handicapped ramp and the architectural drawings do --

THE WITNESS: That would be a discrepancy in the drawings, but in this case, the site plans had a handicapped ramp detail. The architectural plans had a handicapped ramp detail, so there was no discrepancy.

THE COURT: According to your interpretation of it.

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: But there is a discrepancy according to Mr. Hildebrand's interpretation.

THE WITNESS: Well, I can't testify to that. I just know from what I'm reading from the plans we put it in per his design.

BY MR. LaFAVE:

Q. How many times have you created architectural plans?

A. I'm not an architect.

Q. How many times have you created site plans?

A. I'm not a civil engineer. I'm a contractor.

Q. Do you even know what software Mr. Hildebrand was working in to create his site plans?

A. When the plans came to us, they were in a DWG file, which is an AutoCAD file, but I don't know what year or model -- I mean, what software.

Q. Have you ever created a set of site plans in that particular software?

A. No, I have not. I'm a contractor.

Q. You testified here earlier that it's a simple click of a mouse to remove this, but now your testimony is you have never actually worked in that particular software; is that accurate?

A. That's safe to say, but I know how it works.

Q. But you never worked in it?

A. No. I'm college educated. I know the software well enough to know that he can take that off the plan.

Q. All right. Let's go to the concrete sidewalk standards. This is also in the site plans, correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. It's a standard detail in the site plans, correct?

A. That's what it says, yes.

Q. And this calls for what's referred to a typical thickened edge at the parking lot?

A. Correct.

Q. Is that referring to the curb?

A. That is referring to the curb.

Q. And this calls for a six-inch curb?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. And your testimony is the only spot where you were able to put in a six-inch curb was at the far right end of the building; is that right?

A. That is correct.

Q. So adjustments have to be made from the standard detail; is that accurate?

A. At times.

Q. Okay. Let's go to the actual site plans. Now, your testimony is that these two lines are consistent with the architect's plans?

A. Those lines are consistent with architectural plans, yes.

Q. Okay. And we've looked at the architect's plans, and I believe they're marked --

THE COURT: They are. They're in evidence.

BY MR. LaFAVE:

Q. I'm going to show you Plaintiff's 6. The architect's plans, on the front, would you agree with me that what's shown on the site plans as just two simple lines on the architect's plans appears different?

A. Slightly, yes.

Q. It appears different?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Okay. It has wings coming off to the side, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And it actually has the word ramp written in there, correct?

A. I agree with that.

Q. And you heard Mr. Hildebrand testify yesterday that he is provided the architect's drawing, and he simply transfers that drawing into his software program to create the site plans.

Do you recall that testimony yesterday?

A. I do.

Q. Okay. And so you'd agree with me that what's depicted in the site plans differs from what's depicted in the architect's plans?

A. He can claim that if he likes, yeah.

Q. I'm not asking what he claimed, I'm asking --

THE COURT: Hold on, hold on, hold on. Ask your question and then you answer. Quit talking over each other, please.

BY MR. LaFAVE:

Q. If you look at the site plans, the depiction of what you indicate calls for a curb ramp on the site plan is different, in at least two ways, to what is a ramp on the architect's plans?

A. The architect plan shows one extra line with a wing, yes.

Q. Okay.

A. But his detail -- all that is, is a picture. You refer to the detail. The detail governs what you do on the plan.

Q. Okay.

A. The detail, the blowup detail, which is on that plan --

Q. Okay.

A. -- that's what governs, not two black lines.

Q. Okay.

Let's take a look at the site plans, then, since you say the detail is what governs. On page three -- let's see. I believe that was Exhibit 1; is that correct? That's page 3 of Exhibit 3.

THE COURT: That's correct.

BY MR. LaFAVE:

Q. Would you agree with me page three indicates several details as to -- attached to the site plan?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. You see right there in the center of it, it calls for a Dumpster pad. Do you see that there?

A. Yes.

Q. Was there a Dumpster pad installed on this property?

A. I don't recall. It's been a long time. We've installed them at every other Fred's.

Q. But sitting here today, you don't have no indication as to whether or not there was a Dumpster pad put on that property?

A. I don't recall whether there was a Dumpster pad.

MR. McLEOD: Objection. Asked and answered. He's asked him, and he's already testified.

THE COURT: Overruled.

BY MR. LaFAVE:

Q. Are there occasions where items listed on a standard detail are not put into a new building, a new construction?

A. I don't ever recall an issue where there were details on the plans that were not used.

Q. If the architect's plans called for paint along the edge of the curb, who would have done that? Who would have done the painting?

A. Our striping contractor.

Q. That would have been somebody that you would have retained?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall if you were the one that retained a striping contractor to paint the front edge of this curb at the Fred's store in Williston?

A. I don't recall that, but I would imagine it should have been done while the striping was done, yes.

Q. Would that have been done during the construction process?

A. When we stripe the parking lot.

Q. Who would have given them guidance as to what to paint versus what not to paint relative to the curb ramp?

A. They can read their own plans. They have a set of civil drawings. They make their own determinations.

Q. Do you, as the construction manager, as the general contractor, go behind and make sure they're complying with the plans?

A. Yes, sir. That's our job.

Q. Would you agree that that flare would be included in the curb?

A. Not per code. It doesn't have to be painted per code. There's nothing on Fred's plans showing that it has to be painted.

Q. Would you agree that this flare, starts up here that you see is painted is yellow, would you agree that the flare all the way down to where it's flush with the parking lot is part of the curb?

A. Not necessarily.

Q. Okay. And why not?

A. I mean, that's not required to be painted.

Q. Why wouldn't you consider it to be part of the curb?

A. It's part of the handicapped ramp, not part of the curb.

THE COURT: Well, if it's not the curb, what is it?

THE WITNESS: It's a handicapped ramp.
BY MR. LaFAVE:
Q. Do you have to step up to get over top of that flare?
A. In areas, yeah.
Q. But in areas where it's not flush with a parking lot, you would have to step up like you would with a curb?
A. Yeah.
Q. How tall did you say that was at the edge?
A. Two-and-a-half to three inches. It varies. That curb varies.
Q. Do you disagree that there's a standard that calls for a minimum of a four-inch step?
A. I don't recall that. I don't recall that code.
Q. Okay. Your testimony is not that there isn't a code that calls for a minimum of a four-inch step, it's simply that you don't recall whether or not there is?
A. That's correct.
Q. Throughout the building process, throughout the construction, did Fred's have occasion to visit the property?
A. Yes, they did.
Q. Okay. And what were they inspecting for?
A. They looked at every aspect of the building.

Q. Okay. All right. Do you recall whether or not you were with Fred's during the punch-out phase?

A. Yes, I believe I was.

Q. So Fred's did have a completed a punch-out?

A. Yes.

Q. Were you with anyone from WILDEVCO throughout the construction process?

A. At times they would come during the inspections to check for completion and verify pay requests.

Q. Is Fred's with you or the city inspector or the county inspector during the issuance of the certificate of occupancy, or that inspection?

A. At times they have been. We do a lot of Fred's buildings, so at times they've been there, yes.

Q. Do you recall if they were for this gentleman?

A. I can't recall.

Q. This incident happened four-and-a-half years after?

A. That's correct.

Q. And you were asked questions about the changes in concrete and the asphalt; do you recall those questions?

A. I do.

Q. You talked about discoloration and things of that sort?

A. Correct.

Q. Were there any physical changes other than discoloration to the curb ramp that you installed during the construction of this building in 2005?

A. You mean deterioration?

Q. Any changes in the condition, other than discoloration?

A. Not that I'm aware of.

Q. There were no cracks?

A. No cracks, yeah.

Q. No chunks taken out of the concrete?

A. Yeah, correct.

Q. The flare hadn't lengthened over time, had it?

A. No.

Q. Okay. So would you agree with me, sitting here today, that that appears to be the same curb ramp that was installed during the construction phase?

A. I think that's safe to say.

Q. You'd agree with me, wouldn't you, Mr. Polk, that it's the responsibility of the contractor to ensure that the building is built in compliance with the code?

A. That's correct.

Q. And in accordance with the plans?

A. In accordance with the plans and the codes.

Q. And you'd agree with me it's incumbent upon a contractor to confirm to rule out or eliminate discrepancies between architectural plans and site plans?

A. Correct. If there is a discrepancy, we do our best to pick up on the discrepancies, yes.

Q. And would you also agree with me that it's the contractor's responsibility to eliminate hazards in the construction process?

A. Our job is to build the building per the plans and specifications. We're not the design professionals. Design professionals should design a building that's safe from hazards.

Q. Do you as a general contractor take any continuing education classes?

A. We're not required to by state law.

Q. Okay. Do you just out of an abundance of caution?

A. We do have some, as far as storm water and things, but it's not required by law.

Q. Okay. Do you do anything with regards to staying up-to-date on trip hazards and anything like that, as far as safety and construction?

A. We have frequent conversations with building officials in different areas about new codes that are coming out.

Q. Okay. Are you aware of any other incidents in Williston between 2005 when you constructed this building and Martha Fountain's fall?

A. I'm not aware of any.
Q. In 2010?
A. I wasn't made aware of any.
Q. So no reports were made to you about any other incidents at this store involving this curb ramp?
A. That is correct.
MR. LaFAVE: Okay. No further questions, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Ms. Bagley?
MS. BAGLEY: Thank you, Your Honor. Just briefly.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS. BAGLEY:
Q. Mr. Polk, you would agree with me that regardless of whether the plans called for a ramp or the asphalt to be flush with the sidewalk that it was the duty of Tippins-Polk to construct both of those things in accordance with all codes and in accordance with regulations, wouldn't you?
A. We build the building per the plans and specification that were issued.
Q. Do you as the contractor have the duty to build them to code as well?
A. Yes.
Q. And, in fact, your contract with WILDEVCO requires that, doesn't it?

A. Not the contract -- nothing in the contract documents state that, but that's just an understood rule.

Q. It does state that in the architectural plans and site plans, though, doesn't it?

A. There's usually notes on there, yeah.

Q. And, Mr. Polk, at the time that that Tippins-Polk constructed the -- excuse me. Strike that.

Mr. Polk, you testified that you know over time concrete changes its color and asphalt may as well; is that right?

A. That's right.

Q. And you knew that at the time you constructed that handicapped ramp?

A. Yeah. I mean, I'm aware that asphalt changes color as it ages, and concrete.

Q. And just a point of clarification on the proffer with regard to the Varnville store, WILDEVCO does not have any interest in the Varnville store?

A. That's correct.

MS. BAGLEY: Thank you.

THE COURT: Redirect? Is that it?

MS. BAGLEY:

Q. Mr. Polk, do you have Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 6, the architectural drawings?

A. I do.
Q. Can you turn to 85.0, please.
A. Okay.
Q. At the top left-hand corner, there are some details, some typical handrail ramps?
A. Uh-huh.
Q. Were those installed at the Williston Fred's store?
A. Not that I'm aware of.
Q. So this would be an indication that there are details in the plans that aren't always installed at a location, correct?
A. For this particular set, yes.
Q. Mr. Polk, would you agree with me that if one of the -- looking at the demonstrative of Plaintiff's Exhibit 2, I believe, the flare that's at issue on this handicapped curb ramp that's in this box right here, if this flare protrudes into the walking area, what it should be, this flush, four-foot area depicted on the handicapped ramp detail that's on page one of the site plans, that that would not comply with the site plans; is that correct?
A. Ask that one more time.
Q. This right-hand flare --
A. Uh-huh.

Q. -- that's shown in the handicapped ramp detail --
A. Right.
Q. -- none of this flare should protrude into the flat walking area; is that correct?
A. There should be a four foot wide flat walking area in front of the doors, that's correct.
Q. And so the slope of this flare going out and up to the right should not protrude into this four-foot area; is that right?
A. Right.
Q. And that would be a violation of the site plans, wouldn't it?
A. Possibly.
Q. That would --
A. I'm not sure where you're going with this question, but we'll see.
THE COURT: You don't have to be sure. Just answer her question. Does that comply with the site plan, if the flare goes into the four-foot area?
THE WITNESS: That's correct.
THE COURT: Let me ask you this: If Mr. Hildebrand is correct and if the site plans call for it to be flush, did you build it in accordance with the site plan, if, hypothetically, he is correct?
THE WITNESS: Hypothetically, if he's correct -- are you talking about if it's supposed to be flush all the way across the front?

THE COURT: Just like he testified.

THE WITNESS: We did not build it flush all the way across the store.

BY MS. BAGLEY:

Q. Do you agree it's the duty of the general contractor or the duty of Tippins-Polk in this case to construct the premises free of latent defects?

A. To the best of our knowledge, yes, we would do the best we can.

MS. BAGLEY: Thank you.

THE COURT: Redirect?

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. McLEOD:

Q. Who provided the plans to you?

A. WILDEVCO.

Q. Okay. And then this type of design, or any kind of handicapped design, can you describe the transition area from the curb down to the flat area?

A. It's going to be whatever the top of the curb elevation is down to the end of that four-foot elevation. That's going to determine the width of the thickness of that transition, that step, and you're going to have a step at some point.

Q. Okay. And so what you're saying, if it's constructed to this, you're going to have a transition area similar to the area that the plaintiff tripped on?

A. That's correct.

MR. McLEOD: No more questions, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. You may step down. Next witness?

MR. McLEOD: Your Honor, we rest.

THE COURT: Anything in reply?

MS. LEWIS: Nothing in reply, Your Honor.

MR. LaFAVE: Nothing, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Any motions? Renew your motion for directed verdict?

MR. McLEOD: Renew our motion for directed verdict. WILDEVCO provided plans to the general contractor, and the general contractor is entitled to rely on those plans. We heard testimony from Mr. Hildebrand that he was confused and admitted that there the architectural plans and the site plans did not comply with one another. He testified that he did not receive the last, or the most updated, architectural plans when he was producing his site plans, and I think that, Your Honor, evidence is clear that that clearly resulted in what he thought was the confusion, but resulted in the end result which could be interpreted as being clear, but he says they're not clear, and yet we believe there's a duty for the owner to provide plans that don't have effects to the builder, and the builder is entitled to rely on those.

We'd also like to renew the motion for directed verdict as to the storekeeper's duty to maintain safe walkways for their --

THE COURT: I'm allowing you to include everything you argued on beforehand to be included now. All right. Same ruling.

All right. What else do we need to do to finish up? Make sure you put your designations in the record.

MR. LaFAVE: Fred's at this point would move for directed verdict as well, Your Honor. We believe that there's sufficient evidence, number one, to establish by admission of Mr. Polk that they were involved in inspection during the construction process. Counsel has argued that the evidence is clear that Fred's did routine inspections on their premises.

There is just absolutely no evidence that there was any liability on the part of Fred's with the underlying lawsuit, and therefore we believe a directed verdict is reasonable in light of the evidence that's been presented for Fred's.

THE COURT: Ms. Lewis?

MS. LEWIS: Yes, Your Honor. I would join in the same motion to the same extent that directed verdict --

THE COURT: Well, it's nonjury. I'm not going to direct a verdict. I'm going to go back and review everything with the exhibits and make a determination as to my findings. I'll take it under advisement.

Just to protect the record, please get with the court reporter. Y'all put in all your designations. I've got depositions up here. Take care of that, and we will stand adjourned.

Thank you very much.

December of 2012, so -- and I actually say that because I had to study. I couldn't figure out how she had five surgeries and only four hospitalizations, but she clarified that in one of her depositions.

Q. What, if any, evidence did you consider regarding Mr. Fountain's loss of consortium claim?

A. One of the things he talked about was he wanted to come in and he was looking to retirement, but she had a period of time where she was unemployed. He said that at that point he couldn't retire. He also -- I think she had a reduction of income when she did return to work.

So as a result those were things -- those were factors that I considered. There are -- you know, there are other factors in every -- in every consortium claim that sometimes I give a little bit more weight to than others, but those were things that stuck out with me, that he had planned to retire, said he couldn't. And that she was now making a little bit less than she was by about $2 an hour, I think.

Q. Mr. Griffith, in -- in listing your factors that you take into account when evaluating a case you mentioned a liability assessment. What, if any, risk did you assess to Fred's and Wildevco in proceeding to trial on the Plaintiff's claim?

A. Well, I think that in any case that you've got a lawsuit pending that you have what I would call a risk assessment. And what is the risk of going to trial and getting a verdict against you.

In this case I think it was reasonable to try and protect their interest at least from Wildevco's and Fred's perspective in order to protect their interest from getting an adverse verdict against them.

Obviously, the law on premisis liability in South Carolina is you can prove liability by either showing that there was a defect or there was -- in the premises that was either known or should have been known either actual constructive knowledge on behalf of the Defendant or that they created the defect.

And in this case everything I read appeared that the defect was created by the construction company in the -- I would have called it a handicap ramp, but the entrance to the store. Based on the video it looked like that Ms. Fountain tripped right at the -- where the asphalt came to the pavement and there was some -- some problems there.

Then Mr. Durig and Mr. Hunt talked about the issues with regard to how that was constructed and how it should have been constructed, what the plan said versus what was actually built in the field. And everything seemed to appear that this was a construction defect that was done in I think about 2005 when the building was built.

As a matter of fact, I think that Mr. -- I actually flagged it. Mr. During said something about that appeared to be the proximate cause of -- the defects, which he was talking about, appeared to be the proximate cause. There were some issues about painting also or lack of, as Mr. Durig talked about.

Q. Did you review any evidence that impacted your opinion as far as any alleged permanent damage Ms. Fountain suffered?

A. I think that is -- maybe I should -- if I didn't point that out earlier, that is obviously something you want to -- want to look at if somebody has a permanent injury. Then you are going to get a charge on the -- I think it's still called the mortuary table, if I'm not mistaken.

And so you are going to have at least an case of punitive damages, if I was evaluating it I wouldn't have put it on there, but I guess it's always a factor when you've got a defendant who is, I guess, would be what we would call a target or a corporate defendant is something that you could because I think the Plaintiff pled it.

So that is always in the back of your mind, but, again, I didn't see this as being a punitive case, but a jury might look at it differently based on the factors to award punitive damages.

Q. Based on your experience does a settlement equate to an admission of liability?

A. No. I have several cases all the time that I don't think there is liability involved.

Q. Based on all of the factors that you testified to today is it still your opinion that the settlement of the Plaintiff's claims by Wildevco and Fred's was reasonable?

A. I think the settlement was reasonable. The settlement value, the amount paid, was a reasonable settlement. And it was reasonable for them to do.

Q. Are your opinions as stated today to a reasonable degree of professional certainty more

LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT (the "Lease"), made and entered into this the ___day of_____, 2005 by and between WILDEVCO, LLC, whose mailing address is 235 Pendleton Street N.W., Aiken, SC 29801, hereinafter referred to as "Lessor", and FRED'S STORES OF TENNESSEE, INC., a Tennessee Corporation qualified to do business in the state of South Carolina hereinafter referred to as "Lessee".

WITNESSETH:

The parties hereto agree that this Lease sets forth all agreements, covenants and conditions, express or implied, between the parties, and supersedes any prior oral or written agreements between the parties with respect to the premises hereinafter described. The following Exhibits and Riders are attached to this Lease and made a part hereof.

Exhibit "A" – Legal Description
Exhibit "B" – Plot Plan
Exhibit "C" – Project Criteria
Rider 1 – Extension or Renewals
Rider 2 – Common Area Maintenance Rider 3 – Insurance
Rider 4 – Taxes

1. DEMISED PREMISES: Lessor, for and in consideration of the rents to be paid as hereinafter set out and the performance of the mutual covenants and agreements hereinafter set forth, does hereby demise and lease unto the Lessee that certain property situated in the City of Williston, County of Barnwell, and State of South Carolina, containing approximately 16,000 square feet of usable floor space located within the property described in Exhibit "A" and hereinafter referred to as the "Demised Premises" together with the parking areas and the rights of entrance and exit over all streets, alleyways, and parking lots for the purpose of ingress and egress, on foot and by motor vehicles, for parking motor vehicles and for loading and unloading merchandise including all improvements and appurtenances now and hereafter located within the property described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto except as herein provided, no additional structure and/or modification or change of any kind shall be erected or made upon the property depicted in Exhibit "B" – Plot Plan without the prior written consent of Lessee.

2. NEW CONSTRUCTION: The Lessor agrees to cause construction of said Demised Premises and other improvements in accordance with the Plot Plan, Exhibit "B" attached, and the Project Criteria, Exhibit "C", attached hereto and incorporated herein. This lease shall not be effective until such Project Criteria, Exhibit "C", and the Plot Plan, Exhibit "B", have been so attached and have been initialed and approved by both parties. Lessor further agrees prior to commencing construction of the Demised Premises, to provide the Lessee with construction plans from, or provided by Lessor's builder. Said construction plans must be approved, dated and initialed by Lessee and or Lessee's designated representative. Lessor's construction plans must be in strict accord with the Project Criteria provided by Lessee and no deviations from the Plot Plan or the Project Criteria will be accepted without Lessee's prior written approval. Upon acceptance of the construction plans by Lessee, the Lease will be amended to add a copy of the approved construction plans as Exhibit "D". Lessor shall provide water, sewer, gas, and electrical and other utilities.

All of said construction shall be done by Lessor at its own cost and expense, in a good and workmanlike manner, using first quality materials in full compliance with all laws, rules and regulations of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction thereof. The Lessor agrees that, at the option of the Lessee, this Lease shall become null and void if construction of the Demised Premises is not commenced on or before ~~March~~ April 1st, 2005 and completed and ready for occupancy on or before September 1st, 2005. If Lessor shall be delayed or prevented from the performance of its construction obligations herein by any reason of acts of God, riots, civil commotion, strikes, lockouts, inability to obtain materials or labor, unseasonably severe weather, governmental regulations, without fault, and beyond Lessor's control, such construction obligations shall be excused for the period of delay and the period of the performance of such acts shall be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay, provided written notice is given to Lessee within ten (10) days of such delay; provided further that during the period of such force majeure Lessor shall give Lessee notice each week including a detailed report on the status of the project and Lessor's efforts to resume its obligations under this Lease. If the Demised Premises are not ready for occupancy on or before September 1st, 2005, irrespective of cause, and irrespective of whether such cause is beyond the control of Lessor, Lessee, in its sole discretion, is hereby granted the option to cancel and terminate this Lease or accept the Demised Premises when completed with one (1) month of rent forgiven for every one (1) week of delay beyond October 1st, 2005.

Lessor covenants and agrees with the Lessee to provide the Lessee with forty-five (45) days advance written notice of the date Lessor will deliver the premises to the Lessee. Further, if the Lessee has received the forty-five (45) day advance written notice and if the Lessee accepts delivery of the Demised Premises early, the Lessee agrees that the delivery shall become the Lease Commencement Date.

Construction of the Demised Premises shall not be considered complete until a certificate of occupancy has been issued by the appropriate authority and the Demised Premises is complete except for those items listed on the punch list, as hereinafter defined, which can be and will be corrected and completed within thirty (30) days by Lessor in accordance with the specifications, in Exhibit "C" hereof, none of which items would materially interfere with or impair the Lessee's use of the Demised Premises (hereinafter "Substantially Completed in Every Respect").

Lessee agrees to accept the Demised Premises in the condition existing on the date of the commencement of the term, subject to Lessee's list of defective items (hereinafter called "punch list") being completed. In the event of Lessor's failure to complete said punch list items within ten (10) days after receipt of Lessee's notification to Lessor, then at Lessee's sole option Lessee may either complete such punch list items and deduct the cost thereof from rent, the costs of which are hereby agreed to in advance by the parties hereto to be reasonable and proper deductions, or require Lessor's specific performances of the same, or seek any other legal remedies available to Lessee. Lessor covenants that the Demised Premises to be constructed shall, at the commencement of the term hereof and subject to Lessee's punch list being completed, be structurally sound and in good tenantable condition, and that there shall be no latent defects therein. "Latent defect" as used herein is a defect, which is a departure from, plans and specifications not apparent upon an ordinary and reasonable inspection by a professional engineer qualified to make such inspection, normal wear and tear excepted. Lessor further covenants that if any latent defects in the Demised Premises become apparent at any time during this Lease, and it shall appear that such latent defects existed at the beginning of the term hereof, or resulted from faulty design, workmanship or materials, the Lessor shall cause the same, after receiving written notice from Lessee, to be repaired and corrected with all reasonable speed. Lessee shall have the benefit of all warranties accruing to the Lessor by reason of construction of the Demised Premises and any installation of equipment thereon.

3. TERM: To have and to hold the same, together with all improvements thereto belonging, unto the Lessee, for a term of Ten (10) years (the "Primary Term"), commencing on the Commencement Date, subject to the provisions of Paragraph 2. NEW CONTRUCTION with the written acceptance of the "Substantially Completed" Demised Premises by Lessee establishing the Commencement Date. Upon acceptance of the "Substantially Completed" Demised Premises the parties will execute a memorandum setting forth the actual Commencement Date of the Lease, the Rent Commencement Date and the corresponding Termination Dates of the Primary Term and/or Extension or Renewal Terms as provided in Rider #1. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if construction of the Demised Premises is completed between October 1 and December 31, Lessee may, but shall not be required to, accept the Demised Premises until the following February 1; and in such instance the Primary Term of the Lease, irrespective of the Lessee's acceptance or not prior to February 1, shall not commence prior to February 1.

4. RENTAL: Lessee shall pay to Lessor as monthly rent during the Primary Term the sum of Seven Thousand and 00/100 ($7,000.00) Dollars to be made payable on the first day of the month in advance, as per the Rent Commencement Date as provided for in Paragraph 3. TERM. However, if the rent commences on a date other than the first day of the month, the rent for said pro rata month shall be paid by the Lessee to the Lessor on a per diem basis. Rent shall commence Thirty days after Lessee accepts possession of the Demised Premises.

5. USE OF PREMISES: Lessor agrees that the Demised Premises may be used for the operation of a Fred's store, which may or may not include a pharmacy department selling prescription drugs and over-the-counter merchandise within the Demised Premises or for any other lawful purpose.

Lessor, during the Primary Term and any renewal term hereinafter exercised, shall not lease, use, or permit any other person, firm, corporation, partnership or other type of entity, other than Lessee, its assigns or sublessee, to use any property owned or controlled by Lessor and located within five (5) miles from any point on the outside perimeter boundary of the Demised Premises for the conduct or operation thereon of a variety discount store, retail chain drug store, drug store, prescription pharmacy, or prescription pharmacy department within a store.

Lessor agrees that the Demised Premises may be used for any lawful purpose. It is expressly agreed that nothing contained in the Lease Agreement shall be construed to contain a covenant, either express or implied, to either commence the operation of a business or thereafter continuously operate a business in the Demised Premises. Lessor recognizes and agrees that Lessee may, at Lessee's sole discretion and at any time during the term of this Lease, cease the operation of its business in the Demised Premises.

6. MAINTENANCE OF PREMISES: During the Primary Term of this Lease and any renewal term hereinafter exercised, the Lessor will keep and repair the exterior of the Demised Premises, including the parking lot, parking lot lights, entrance and exits, sidewalks, ramps, curbs, roof, including gutters and downspouts, awnings and canopies, walls, foundation, foundation floors and/or sub-floors, exterior freight doors, exterior plumbing (underground pipes) and including sprinkler systems, pipes, existing electrical distribution panels, wiring, and conduits and interior plumbing pipes within the floors, walls and above the ceiling and all structural portions of the Demised Premises; and the Lessor covenants and agrees that in the event of his failure to comply with this provision and/or any other provision and/or covenant of this Lease, the Lessee may perform such obligations and/or responsibilities of the Lessor for the account of the Lessor and may charge, deduct, withhold and/or offset all expenses incurred therefor against any and all rent (past, current, and/or future) and/or any other payments to Lessor by Lessee pursuant to the terms, provisions, and/or conditions of this Lease Agreement. If there is a sprinkler system, it is the Lessor's responsibility to cause and pay for an annual certification by a licensed certifying agency and provide Lessee with a copy of said certification. The Lessee will keep and repair the interior of the Demised Premises excepting the responsibilities of the Lessor. Following the expiration of the first ninety (90) days of the Primary Term hereof, Lessee will repair all heating and air conditioning units ("HVAC") located on or used on the Demised Premises after first accepting same in good working order. However, the Lessor will warrant the operation of the HVAC system for the first ninety (90) days of the first summer season and the first ninety (90) days of the first winter season following the Commencement Date hereof. The replacement of any heating and air conditioning equipment shall be the responsibility of the Lessor. The Lessee shall maintain all plate glass windows and aluminum doors. The Lessee shall also maintain the bathroom fixtures, all fluorescent light fixtures including fluorescent light tubes and ballast within the Demised Premises after first accepting all in good working order. Lessee or any of its assignees or subtenants shall have the right to make any non-structural alterations and/or improvements to the Demised Premises for the purpose of its business or the business of its assignees or subtenants; provided, that such alterations and/or improvements shall be made in accordance with the requirements of local ordinances and public authorities having jurisdiction thereover, and further provided that the value of the Demised Premises shall not be diminished thereby. In making such alterations and/or improvements Lessee may salvage any material or equipment, which shall be removed or replaced. Lessor agrees to sign promptly applications, permits or consents that may be required by public authorities in connection with such alterations, improvements or stockroom additions to the Demised Premises and requested by Lessee, its assignees or subtenants. At the expiration of this Lease or any renewal thereof, Lessor agrees to accept the Demised Premises with all such alterations and/or improvements made by Lessee in accordance with the terms hereof. Excepting the foregoing, Lessee agrees to surrender the Demised Premises to Lessor in the same condition as when received, ordinary wear and tear and destruction by fire or other casualties excepted. Notwithstanding anything above stated in the event of an emergency and the Lessee is unable to notify Lessor, the Lessee may take whatever action it deems reasonable to protect persons, the Demised Premises, furniture, fixtures, equipment, and/or merchandise. Lessor shall reimburse the Lessee the cost of said emergency repairs within thirty (30) days of receipt of copies of the bills and/or invoices involved or the Lessee may withhold and/or offset said amount against any rent.

7. CARE OF PREMISES: Lessee agrees to keep Demised Premises in a neat and clean condition, and shall refrain from permitting any nuisance or fire hazard thereon, and shall permit no unlawful or immoral practice to be carried on within the Demised Premises with Lessee's knowledge or consent. Lessee will at all times comply in its occupancy and use of said Demised Premises with all ordinances of the City of Williston, County of Barnwell, State of South Carolina and with all state and federal laws and regulations relating thereto.

8. SIGNS: Lessee shall have the right to erect, install, maintain and operate on the Demised Premises such equipment, fixtures and signs, as Lessee may deem advisable, subject to local ordinances. Lessee may install its freestanding pylon sign at the location shown on Exhibit "C". Lessor agrees to include Lessee's freestanding pylon sign as a part of any submissions or applications made on behalf of the Shopping Center and use its best efforts to have such signage included in any permits or consents obtained by applicable governmental authorities. All maintenance of Lessee's sign(s) is the responsibility of the Lessee. It is understood that any work of any kind made by Lessee and done under this paragraph shall be made and done at Lessee's sole cost, and Lessee agrees to indemnify and hold Lessor harmless from any and all mechanics' liens that may be filed by reason thereof. In the event of the ultimate removal of any personal property, equipment or fixtures, including signs, Lessee agrees to repair any damage resulting therefrom.

9. DESTRUCTION OF PREMISES: The Lessor and the Lessee covenant and agree, each with the other, that in the event by reason of the elements, fire or other casualty, the Demised Premises are destroyed or so damaged that they cannot reasonably be repaired within ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY (180) DAYS from the occurrence of such casualty, then either party shall have the right to terminate this Lease effective as of the date of the occurrence of such casualty by providing written notice to the other party within thirty (30) days of the date of such damage or destruction, and the rent reserved hereunder shall be prorated and paid or refunded, as the case may be, as of such date. If the Demised Premises can reasonably be reconstructed to its former condition within ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY (180) DAYS from the date of such occurrence, then the Lessor shall repair and restore the Demised Premises to its former or a better condition with all reasonable dispatch, and in all events, within the said ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY (180) DAY period. If during the period of such repair or reconstruction the Lessee is deprived of the occupancy of all or part of the Demised Premises to the extent that the Lessee is unable to conduct its regular business therein, the Lessor and the Lessee covenant and agree that all rental payments shall be suspended and abated until such time as the Lessee can resume and conduct its regular business therein.

10. FREE AND QUIET ENJOYMENT: The Lessor covenants and warrants to the Lessee that the Lessor has a good and sufficient title to the Demised Premises, and that he will protect and defend the Lessee in the use and quiet enjoyment of said Demised Premises during the term of this Lease or any extension(s) thereof.

11. INDEMNIFICATION: The Lessee during the Primary Term and any Renewal Term shall add the Lessor as an additional insured under its liability policy for any and all claims and demands, whether for injury to persons or loss of life or damage to property occurring within the Demised Premises arising out of the use and occupancy of the Demised Premises by the Lessee. However, Lessee will not be liable for any injury to persons, loss of life to persons or damages to property resulting from or arising out of any act or omission of acts on the part of Lessor or Lessor's agents or employees, and the Lessor shall indemnify and save harmless the Lessee from any and all claims and demands from said act(s) or omissions of act(s).

12. ACCESS BY LESSOR: Lessor, and the authorized representative of the Lessor, shall have the right to enter the Demised Premises at all reasonable times to examine the condition thereof, but such rights shall be exercised in a manner so as not to interfere with the business of Lessee. At any time within sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the Primary Term or any Renewal Term, Lessor may show the Demised Premises to prospective purchasers or tenant, and within such period may attach to the building or erect on the Demised Premises a reasonable notice advertising said property for sale or letting.

13. UTILITIES AND WASTE DISPOSAL: Lessor, at Lessor's cost, shall furnish, install and maintain, or cause to be maintained, adequate utility lines and services to serve the Demised Premises, including separate meters to measure same. Lessee agrees to pay for all utilities used upon the Demised Premises by Lessee including, but not limited to, electricity, gas, water, and sewer charges. Lessee shall provide for the removal of its trash, rubbish and garbage from the Demised Premises.

14. DEFAULT BY LESSEE: This Lease is made upon the express condition that if the Lessee shall neglect to make any payment of rent when due, or neglect to keep and fulfill any of the covenants and agreements herein provided on its part to be kept and fulfilled, and shall remain in default thereof for a period of fifteen (15) days after receipt of written notice from the Lessor of any such default, the Lessor, its successors or assigns may thereupon enter upon the Demised Premises and expel the Lessee therefrom, without prejudice to any other remedy which the Lessor, its successors or assigns, may have on account of such default, provided however, if said Lessee after receipt of written notification from the Lessor of the default or the alleged default has diligently commenced proceedings to cure said alleged default and/or default and diligently continues said proceedings to cure, then the Lessor shall not be entitled to enter upon the Demised Premises and expel Lessee therefrom, nor exercise any other remedy which the Lessor might have on account of any such default.

15. DEFAULT BY LESSOR: This Lease is made upon the express condition that if the Lessor shall neglect to keep and fulfill any of the covenants and agreements herein provided on its part to be kept and fulfilled, and shall remain in default thereof for a period of fifteen (15) days after receipt of written notice from the Lessee of any such default, the Lessee, its successors or assigns, may thereupon cancel the Lease on the Demised Premises, and/or exercise any other remedy which the Lessee, its successors or assigns, may have on account of such default, provided however, if said Lessor after receipt of written notification from the Lessee of the default or the alleged default has diligently commenced proceedings to cure said alleged default and/or default and diligently continues said proceedings to cure, then the Lessee shall not be entitled to cancel the Lease on the Demised Premises or exercise any other remedy which the Lessee might have on account of default.

16. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING: Lessee shall have the right and privilege to assign this Lease of sublet the Demised Premises, in whole or in part, with the prior written consent of Lessor; provided, however, said consent by Lessor shall not be unreasonably withheld, "delayed or conditioned. Notwithstanding the above, Lessee may assign this Lease or sublet the Demised Premises to a parent, affiliate or subsidiary of Lessee without obtaining Lessor's consent."

17. EXTENSION OR RENEWALS: See Rider 1 – Extension or Renewals.

18. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS: Lessor shall make and shall pay for improvements and alterations to comply with all laws, ordinances, rules or regulations of any governmental authority. Should the Fire Official or Building Official require a Fire Alarm system or upgrading existing system it shall be the responsibility of the Lessor as this shall be permanent fixture to the building. Lessor shall be responsible for the disposal and removal from the Demised Premises of any existing Hazardous Materials including but not limited to asbestos and for any and all residual asbestos and/or Hazardous Materials claims that arise in the future, if any. Lessee shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Material to be brought upon, kept, or used in or about the Demised Premises by Lessee, its agents and employees, except for such hazardous materials as is necessary to Lessee's business and shall be fully liable for all costs and expenses related to the use, storage, and disposal thereof.

19. LESSEE'S FIXTURES, EQUIPMENT AND GOODS: Lessee shall have the right to erect, install, maintain and operate on the Demised Premises such equipment, fixtures and signs as Lessee may deem advisable, subject to local ordinances. Any and all fixtures, equipment and goods installed by Lessee shall be and remain the property of Lessee, and Lessee may, at any time, remove any and all fixtures, equipment and goods installed by it in, on or about the Demised Premises; provided, that Lessee shall promptly repair any damage or injury to the Demised Premises caused by such removal. Any fixtures and equipment furnished by Lessor shall remain the property of Lessor and shall not be removed by Lessee unless Lessee purchases said equipment and fixtures from Lessor.

20. SUBORDINATION AND NON-DISTURBANCE: If any Mortgagee (as hereinafter defined) so requests, this Lease shall be subject and subordinate to a first mortgage or first deed of trust covering the Demised Premises and to all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof, provided such Mortgagee complies with the following provisions:

(a) The Mortgagee or holder of such first deed of trust ("Mortgagee") shall be a recognized financial institution such as a bank, savings and loan association, college or university, pension, retirement or trust fund, or insurance company; and

(b) The Mortgagee acknowledges the Lease between Lessor and Lessee and consents and agrees to the terms, provisions and conditions of said Lease. This Lease Agreement may not be assigned by Lessor without Lessee's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld;

(c) The Mortgagee shall agree to non-disturbance provisions in favor of Lessee substantially as follows: "So long as Lessee continues to pay the rent reserved in the Lease Agreement and otherwise complies with the terms and provisions thereof, Mortgagee shall not disturb the rights of possession of Lessee in Demised Premises as set forth in the Lease, notwithstanding any foreclosure or proceedings in lieu thereof affecting Demised Premises whether or not Lessee is made a party thereto. Upon passing of title to Demised Premises to the Mortgagee or to any other party in any foreclosure or proceedings in lieu thereof, the party acquiring such title shall thereupon, by virtue of such acquisition of title and without the execution of any further instruments or documents, be deemed to be the Lessor for all purposes of Lease and the Lease shall continue in full force and effect."

21. INSURANCE: The Lessor covenants and agrees with the Lessee that Lessor shall have and maintain a fire and extended casualty insurance policy insuring against all risks on the Demised Premises with coverage in an amount of at least eighty percent (80%) of replacement value of said Demised Premises and shall provide the Lessee with a Certificate of Insurance for each policy period evidencing the above stated coverage and containing a provision that said policy will not be canceled without thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Lessee. The Lessee covenants and agrees with the Lessor that it is the Lessee's responsibility to provide insurance coverage on Lessee's merchandise, fixtures and equipment.

22. PUBLIC LIABILTY INSURANCE: (A) Throughout the Primary Term and any Renewal Term thereof, Lessee shall maintain insurance against public liability for injury to person (including death) or damage to property occurring within the Demised Premises arising out of the use and occupancy thereof by Lessee. Such insurance shall be with minimum aggregate limit of two million ($2,000,000.00) dollars for personal injury, death or property damage and Lessor shall be named as additional insured under the policy. Lessee shall deliver to Lessor a certificate of insurance naming Lessor as an additional insured and an agreement by the insurer that said policy will not be canceled without thirty (30) days prior written notice delivered to Lessor.

(B) Throughout the Primary Term and any Renewal Term thereof, Lessor shall maintain insurance against public liability for injury to person (including death) or damage to property arising out of the acts or omissions of Lessor or rising out of the use of the parking areas and other improvements and appurtenances as located within Exhibit "A", including, but not limited to the ingress and egress as defined in this Lease by Lessee or its licensees, employees, invites or customers. Such insurance shall be with minimum aggregate limit of two million ($2,000,000.00) dollars for personal injury, death or property damage and Lessee shall be named as additional insured under the policy. Lessor shall deliver to Lessee a certificate of insurance naming Lessee as an additional insured and an agreement by the insurer that said policy will not be canceled without thirty (30) days prior written notice delivered to Lessee.

23. MUTUAL WAIVER OF SUBROGATION: Lessor and Lessee each hereby agree to a mutual waiver of subrogation and do hereby release the other and its respective employees, agents and every person claiming by, through or under either of them from any and all liability or responsibility (to them or anyone claiming by, through or under them by way of subrogation or otherwise) from any loss or damage to any property (real or personal) caused by fire or any other insured peril covered by any insurance policies for the benefit of either party, even if such loss or damage shall have been caused by fault or negligence of the other party, its employees or agent thereof.

24. EMINENT DOMAIN: If at any time any of the Demised Premises shall be taken for any public or quasi-public use under any statute or by right of eminent domain or private purchase in lieu thereof, the Lessee shall be entitled to terminate this Lease effective as of the date of the taking, at its option, by giving written notice to Lessor within sixty (60) days, and any unearned rent or other charges paid in advance shall be refunded to Lessee. In the event that Lessee does not elect to terminate this Lease as aforesaid, the Lessor shall immediately commence and diligently prosecute to completion the repair and restoration of the remaining portion of the Demised Premises to a condition comparable to their condition at the time of taking and the Lease shall continue; but Lessee shall be entitled to such proceeds as it is entitled to recover from the condemning authority.

In the event that any portion of the parking area and access thereto designated as such on Exhibit "B" be taken for any public or quasi-public use, under any statute or by right of eminent domain or private purchase in lieu thereof so as to materially or substantially interfere with the conduct of Lessee's business in the Demised Premises or so as to reduce the required parking area by an amount of twenty percent (20%) or more or reduce the number of cars which may be conveniently parked by an amount of twenty percent (20%) or more or reduce the number of cars which may be conveniently parked in front of the Demised Premises by an amount of twenty percent (20%) or more, the Lessee may at its option terminate this Lease by giving sixty (60) days written notice to Lessor and shall be liable for rent only up to the time of such taking.

The continuance or termination of this Lease as above provided shall not operate to deprive Lessee of the right to make claim against the condemning authority for any damages suffered by Lessee, but Lessee shall have no right to make any claim against Lessor because of such termination. If this Lease is not terminated as above provided, Lessee and Lessor shall agree upon a proration of rental proportionate to the reduction of usable floor space and/or common areas, parking areas and access.

25. RECORDATION OF SHORT FORM LEASE: Lessor agrees with Lessee that Lessee may record this Lease in short form.

26. GENERAL PROVISIONS:

(a) These enclosed Lease Documents are time sensitive, if these documents are not completely executed and returned to Fred's within a fifteen (15) day period, then Fred's reserves the right to withdraw this offer to lease the property described in the enclosed Lease Agreements.

(b) Lessor shall pay all fees and commissions for bringing about the execution and delivery of this Lease and shall indemnify and hold Lessee harmless from any and all claims for such fees and commissions by any broker or agent with whom Lessor has dealt.

(c) The captions of this Lease are inserted for convenience only and are not a part of this Lease and do not in any way limit or amplify the terms and provisions of this Lease.

(d) If more than one person, corporation, or entity is named as Lessor in this Lease and executes same as Lessor, then the word "lessor" whenever used in this Lease shall refer to all such person, corporations, or entities, and the liability of such persons, corporations or entities, for compliance with or for the performance of all the terms, covenants and provisions of this Lease shall be joint and several.

(e) All provisions of this Lease shall be construed as covenants and agreements as though the words importing such covenants and agreements were used in separate sections hereof, and all the provisions hereof shall bind and inure to the benefit of all the parties hereto, their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns.

(f) No amendment or modification of this Lease shall be effective unless in writing and executed by Lessor and Lessee.

(g) The sections of this Lease are intended to be severable. If any section or provision of this Lease shall be held to be unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, this Lease shall be construed as though such section had not been included in it. If any section or provision of this Lease shall be subject to two constructions, one of which would render such section or provision invalid, then such section or provision shall be given that construction which would render it valid.

(h) This Lease shall be construed under and in accordance with the laws of the State of South Carolina.

(i) Any riders attached to this Lease are made a part hereof as fully as if copied verbatim herein.

(j) If Lessor or Lessee initiates and/or files any action against the other, which is in any way connected with this Lease, the unsuccessful party shall reimburse the prevailing party all reasonable attorney's fees, costs and expenses in connection therewith.

27. NOTICES: All notices given with respect to this Lease shall be given in writing to be delivered in person, sent by express overnight delivery, or mailed by certified or registered U.S. Mail, postage prepaid, with return receipt requested, to the parties at the following addresses, or to such other addresses as they may hereafter specify by notice as provided herein to the other party.

RIDERS

RIDER 1

EXTENSION OR RENEWALS: It is understood and agreed that the Lessee shall have the right to extend the term of this Lease for an additional period of five (5) years, beginning on the 1st day of September, 2015, provided the Lessee notifies, in writing, the Lessor of its intention to extend same, said notice to be given at least thirty (30) days prior to the 31st day of August, 2015, and provided further, that the amount of rent payable during each year of the extension period is to be Seven Thousand Three Hundred Thirty Three and 34/100 ($7,333.34) Dollars per month. The Lessee shall have the right to extend the term of this Lease for a second additional period of five (5) years, beginning on the 1st day of September, 2020, provided the Lessee notifies, in writing, the Lessor of its intention to extend same, said notice to be given at least thirty (30) days prior to the 31st day of August, 2020 and provided further, that the amount of rent payable during each year of this extension period is to be Seven Thousand Six Hundred Sixty Six and 67/100 ($7,666.67) Dollars per month. The Lessee shall have the right to extend the term of this Lease for a third additional period of five (5) years, beginning on the 1st day of September, 2025 provided the Lessee notifies, in writing, the Lessor of its intention to extend same, said notice to be given at least thirty (30) days prior to the 31st day of August, 2025 and provided further, that the amount of rent payable during each year of this extension period is to be Eight Thousand and 00/100 ($8,000.00) Dollars per month.

COMMON AREA MAINTENANCE: Common area maintenance cost (CAM) shall be the total cost of operating and maintaining the Common Areas of the Shopping Center including, but not limited to, the following: gardening and landscaping, lighting, cleaning, painting, striping, policing, removing garbage and other refuse and trash, removing snow, repairing and maintaining equipment of the Shopping Center, paving and maintaining the parking area and walkways, cutting and caring for the lawns and garden areas and cleaning ditches. It is understood that all of the costs and expenses of operating and maintaining the Common Areas and facilities of the Shopping Center shall be considered in determining Lessee's pro rata share of such total cost, regardless of whether Lessee is directly benefited by any such cost or expense. Management and administrative fees, roof repair and/or replacement and any costs of any capitalizable improvements or additions to the Common Areas shall not be considered a common area maintenance cost or expense.

Lessee shall pay Lessor a CAM charge which shall be Lessee's pro rata share of the total cost of operating and maintaining the common areas of the Shopping Center, subject to a maximum charge of Three Thousand Two Hundred and 00/100 ($3,200.00) Dollars per year, or Two Hundred Sixty Six and 67/100 ($266.67) Dollars per month. During the first extension period, if exercised, Lessee shall pay Lessor a CAM charge subject to a maximum charge of Four Thousand and 00/100 ($4,000.00) Dollars per year, or Three Hundred Thirty Three and 34/100 ($333.34) Dollars per month. During the second extension period, if exercised, Lessee shall pay Lessor a CAM charge subject to a maximum charge of Four Thousand Eight Hundred and 00/100 ($4,800.00) Dollars per year, or Four Hundred and 00/100 ($400.00) Dollars per month. During the third extension period, if exercised, Lessee shall pay Lessor a CAM charge subject to a maximum charge of Five Thousand Six Hundred and 00/100 ($5,600.00) Dollars per year, or Four Hundred Sixty Six and 67/100 ($466.67) Dollars per month. Lessee shall pay the CAM charge to Lessor in equal monthly installments, which shall be paid in advance on or before the first day of each month beginning with the primary Lease Term. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar year of the Primary Term following the first full calendar year of the Primary Term or any extension(s) of this Lease, Lessor agrees to furnish to Lessee copies of invoices for all CAM expenses and a statement, itemized in detail reasonably satisfactory to Lessee, setting forth the total expenses for CAM charges for such calendar year. In the event the estimated CAM charges paid by Lessee during any Lease Year are greater than Lessee's actual share (subject to the maximum amount referenced above), Lessor shall reimburse Lessee for such overpayment at the time the statement is furnished to Lessee. Lessee's pro rata share shall be the product obtained by multiplying said CAM charge for such calendar year by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the square foot area of the Demised Premises and the denominator of which shall be the square foot area of the Shopping Center, as depicted on Exhibit "B" hereof. CAM expenses exceeding the maximum amounts established above shall be the sole responsibility of the Lessor.

Maximum CAM charges for periods less than calendar year (twelve months) shall be the product of the number of months in that period times the maximum monthly charge as described above.

If the term of the Lease shall begin at a time other than the beginning of a calendar year, CAM charges for that year will be paid only for those months of that year, number of months, that coincide with rent payments.

If the term of this Lease shall terminate at a time other than the ending of a calendar year, Lessor shall furnish to Lessee a statement, itemized in detail reasonably satisfactory to Lessee, setting forth the total expenses for any CAM charge for such year and a proper proration and apportionment of said CAM charge for the period of occupancy by Lessee.

RIDER 3

INSURANCE: Lessee shall pay its pro rata share of all increases (caused by insurance company rate increases) in fire and extended casualty insurance premiums after the base year on the Demised Premises. The base year shall be the first full calendar year following the Commencement Date hereof. Upon Lessor submitting a copy of any subsequent calendar year's paid fire and extended casualty insurance premiums on the Demised Premises to Lessee along with computations evidencing Lessee's of any increase over the base year, Lessee shall promptly reimburse Lessor its share of payment of such increases. In no event will Lessee be obligated to pay increases in insurance premiums caused by Lessor's decision to increase its coverage to more than 80% of replacement value of said Demised Premises.

If the term of this Lease shall terminate at a time other than the beginning (or ending, as the case may be) of a calendar year, a proper apportionment of said fire and extended casualty insurance premiums for the year shall be made to cover the fraction of a year included within.

RIDER 4

TAXES: Lessee shall pay its share of all increases in real property taxes which may be levied or assessed after the base year by any lawful authority against the land and improvements of the Shopping Center. The base year shall be the first full real property tax year following the Commencement Date hereof.

Lessee shall promptly pay its share to Lessor upon Lessor submitting a copy of any subsequent tax year's paid tax invoice receipt to Lessee along with computations evidencing Lessee's share of any increases over the base year. Any requests received by Lessee from Lessor that are more than two hundred forty (240) days past payment date will not be considered Lessee's responsibility. If said taxes shall be disputed by Lessor, Lessor shall provide Lessee with documentation of said protest, and shall notify Lessee of the outcome of said dispute within sixty (60) days of resolution.

If the term of this Lease shall begin on and/or terminate at a time other than the beginning (or ending, as the case may be) of a tax year, a proper apportionment of said real estate taxes for the year shall be made to cover the fraction of a year included within.

LEASE AMENDMENT

THIS AMENDMENT OF LEASE AGREEMENT made this 12th day of May, 2005 (the "Agreement"), by and between WILDEVCO, LLC, as "Lessor," and FRED'S STORES OF TENNESSEE, INC., a Tennessee Corporation as "Lessee."

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, by that certain Lease Agreement dated February 7, 2005, hereinafter referred to as the "Lease," Lessor leased to Lessee certain premises located in the City of Williston, County of Barnwell, State of South Carolina, and more particularly described in the Lease, a copy of which Lease is attached and made a part hereof as Exhibit "A" hereto; and

WHEREAS, Lessor and Lessee desire to modify the Lease to the extent provided herein and no further;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Rider 4. TAXES is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Lessee shall pay its share of all increases in real property taxes which may be levied or assessed after the base year by any lawful authority against the land and improvements of the Shopping Center. The base year shall be 2005. Provided that Landlord delivers the Demised Premises to Fred's on or before September 1, 2005. If building is not complete and delivered on or before ~~September~~ October 1, 2005, the Base Year shall be 2006.

Lessee shall promptly pay its share to Lessor upon Lessor submitting a copy of any subsequent tax year's paid tax invoice receipt to Lessee along with computations evidencing Lessee's share of any increases over the base year. Any requests received by Lessee from Lessor that are more than two hundred forty (240) days past payment date will not be considered Lessee's responsibility. If said taxes shall be disputed by Lessor, Lessor shall provide Lessee with documentation of said protest, and shall notify Lessee of the outcome of said dispute within sixty (60) days of resolution.

If the term of this Lease shall begin on and/or terminate at a time other than the beginning (or ending, as the case may be) of a tax year, a proper apportionment of said real estate taxes for the year shall be made to cover the fraction of a year included within.

All other terms and conditions of the Lease remain unchanged and are hereby ratified and reaffirmed.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties herein have executed this Agreement the day and year first above written.

WILLISTON SC (Amend)

AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT is made as of March 4, 2009 (the "Amendment"), by and between WILDEVCO, LLC ("Lessor") and FRED'S STORES OF TENNESSEE, INC., a Tennessee corporation ("Lessee").

WHEREAS, by that certain Lease Agreement dated February 7, 2005, together with any and all amendments thereto, (collectively, the "Lease"), Lessor leased to Lessee certain premises located in Williston, SC, as said premises are more particularly described in the Lease; and

WHEREAS, Lessor and Lessee desire to modify the Lease to the extent provided herein.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. The parties acknowledge that the current term of the Lease currently expires on August 31, 2015 and that the current Rental for such current term period is Seven Thousand Dollars ($7,000.00) per month. Beginning on April 1, 2009, the parties agree that the Rental for a two (2) year period shall be amended to Six Thousand, Three Hundred Dollars ($6,300.00) per month.

2. Lessor represents, warrants and covenants to Lessee that (i) Lessor has the sole right and power to enter into this Amendment, (ii) the Amendment has been duly authorized by all necessary actions, and will not violate any provision of agreement involving Lessor, (iii) the execution, delivery and performance hereof will not result in the breach of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation of any lien, charge or encumbrance upon the premises, and (iv) no authorization, consent or approval, is or will be necessary to the valid execution, delivery and performance by Lessor of this Amendment.

3. All capitalized terms which are used but not defined herein shall have the same meaning ascribed to them in the Lease. Except as amended by this Amendment, all other terms and conditions of the Lease remain unchanged and are hereby ratified and reaffirmed. In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Amendment and this Lease, then the terms of this Amendment shall govern and control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties herein have executed this Agreement as of the date set forth above.

Standard Form of Agreement Between Owner and Architect for a Small Project

1991 SMALL PROJECTS EDITION

Because this document has important legal consequences, we encourage you to consult with an attorney before signing it. Some states mandate a cancellation period or require other specific disclosures, including warnings for home improvement contracts, when a document such as this will be used for work on the Owner's personal residence. Your attorney should also determine if language required by state or local law is included in this Agreement. Such requirements may be inserted in the space provided below, or if required by law, above the signatures of the parties.

This AGREEMENT is made

(Date) February 01, 2005

BETWEEN the Owner:

Ted Barber
Wildevco, LLC
235 Pendleton Street NW
Aiken, South Carolina 29801

and the Architect:

Christopher Booker, Architect, AIA, LLC
3319 Perkins Road
Augusta, Georgia 30906

for the following Project:

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA)) COUNTY OF BARNWELL)	IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS FOR THE SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT Civil Action Number: 2010-CP-06-101
MARTHA M. FOUNTAIN and CURTIS FOUNTAIN, Plaintiffs, vs. FRED'S INC., and TAD BARBER, Individually and d/b/a WILDEVCO, LLC, Defendants.	AFFIDAVIT OF DENISE M. BROCKWELL
FRED'S INC. and TAD BARBER, Individually and d/b/a WILDEVCO, LLC, Third-Party Plaintiffs, vs. TIPPINS-POLK CONSTRUCTION, INC., Third-Party Defendants.

Personally appeared before me, Denise M. Brockwell, who after being duly sworn deposes and states as follows:

1) I am over 18 years of age and competent to testify as to my personal knowledge of the facts contained herein;
2) I am the paralegal for Matthew C. LaFave, counsel of record for Fred's Stores of Tennessee, Inc. incorrectly identified as Fred's Inc.;
3) I have, at all times, been the paralegal assigned to assist in the above-entitled action;
4) Among my roles as paralegal in the above-entitled action I am responsible for the following:

a. Generating pre-bills for this matter to be reviewed by counsel;

b. Submitting finalized invoices to Sedgwick Claims Management Services as the third-party administrator for claims involving Fred's Stores of Tennessee, Inc.;

c. Receipt of payments for invoices;

d. Reconciling payments in the firm's billing software against outstanding invoices; and

e. Generating reports, as needed, to identify invoices paid versus those outstanding.

5) In my capacity I produced the Invoice Details Report as of 06/02/2016, as produced to the Parties in Defendant/Third-Party Plaintiff's Second Supplemental Responses to Requests for Production on June 2, 2016.

6) The Invoice Details Report produced is a true and accurate calculation for invoices billed and paid in direct connection with the above-entitled action.

7) The Invoice Details Report indicates Thirty Six Thousand Seven Hundred Sixteen and 82/100 ($36,716.82) Dollars has been billed in litigation fees, costs and expenses in the handling of the above entitled action.

8) The Invoice Details Report indicates Thirty Six Thousand Six Hundred Ninety-One and 82/100 ($36,691.82) Dollars has been paid in litigation fees, costs and expenses in the handling of the above entitled action.

9) The bills produced to and paid by Fred's were not broken down so as to distinguish between actions undertaken in the defense of the suit brought by Martha M. Fountain and Curtis Fountain and those to advance the Third-Party Complaint against Tippins-Polk Construction, Inc.

Further, the Affiant sayeth naught.

SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

Civil Action No. 2010-CP-06-101

AFFIDAVIT OF REGINA HOLLINS LEWIS

PERSONALLY appeared before me, Regina Hollins Lewis, who, being duly sworn, deposes and states that she was retained counsel for Wildevco, LLC and Thaddeus Barber in the above-referenced matter and that she has been a practicing attorney since 1987 and is a member in good standing with the South Carolina Bar. She further states that approximately ninety percent (90%) of her practice is devoted to tort defense litigation. She further states that her hourly rate on this matter is One Hundred Seventy-Five and 00/100 ($175.00) dollars. She further states that her partner, Lee Ellen Bagley, acted as co-counsel in this matter and that her hourly rate is One Hundred Fifty-Five and 00/100 Dollars ($155.00) and that associates Randi Lynn Roberts and Robert Blain also worked on this matter at the hourly rate of One Hundred Forty-Five and 00/100 Dollars ($145.00). The paralegal's hourly rate in this matter is Eighty-Five and 00/100 Dollars ($85.00).

The charges incurred and time spent in this matter in defending the claims of Martha and Curtis Fountain against Thaddeus Barber and Wildevco are as set forth in the amounts listed below and in copies of the invoices attached hereto. The undersigned has reviewed the invoices and has omitted from this calculation all fees and expenses related to Wildevco's pursuit of its third-party claim against Tippins-Polk. Further, where legal tasks performed were undertaken both in the defense of the claim by Martha and Curtis Fountain and in pursuit of Wildevco's third-party claims against Tippins-Polk, or a portion of the tasks related to the third-party claims against Tippins-Polk the amount has been reduced by 50%.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA COUNTY OF BARNWELL Martha M. Fountain and Curtis Fountain, Plaintiffs, vs. Fred's, Inc. and Wildevco, LLC, Defendants, Third-Party Plaintiffs vs. Tippins-Polk Construction, Inc., Third-Party Defendant.	IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT Civil Action No. 2010-CP-06-101 FULL AND FINAL CONFIDENTIAL SETTLEMENT, RELEASE OF ALL CLAIMS, AND INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

This FULL AND FINAL CONFIDENTIAL SETTLEMENT, RELEASE OF ALL CLAIMS, AND INDEMNITY AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is made, entered into and delivered by Plaintiffs Martha Fountain and Curtis Fountain to and in favor of Wildevco, LLC, ("Wildevco"), Fred's, Incorporated ("Fred's), and Tad Barber[1] this 21 day of April, 2016.

Definitions and Statement of Purpose

As used in this Agreement, the following terms have the meaning set forth below:

"Plaintiffs" mean Martha M. Fountain and Curtis Fountain.

"Effective Date" means the date Plaintiffs sign this Agreement.

"Incident" means the alleged incident occurring on March 10, 2010 at the Fred's store located Williston, Barnwell County, South Carolina, which Plaintiffs allege resulted in injury or damage to Plaintiffs.

"Releasors" means Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs' past, present and future agents, representatives, attorneys, insurers, assigns and lien holders, Plaintiffs' successors, heirs and executors and all others acting by, through or in concert with any of the foregoing.

"Suit" means the lawsuit filed by or on behalf of Plaintiffs in the Barnwell County Court of Common Pleas and styled, Martha M. Fountain and Curtis Fountain v. Fred's, Inc. and [1] Tad Barber was originally named as a defendant in this case and was dismissed by order of the court. Nonetheless, the parties agree that any liability of Tad Barber shall be released pursuant to this settlement agreement.

Wildevco, LLC vs. Tippins-Polk Construction, Inc., Case No. 2010-CP-06-101, in which Plaintiffs allege injury and damage caused or contributed to by Wildevco and Fred's, and seek damages or other relief against Wildevco and Fred's arising out of the Incident.

Through this Agreement, and in consideration of the payment made to Plaintiffs by or on behalf of Wildevco and Fred's as set forth in this Agreement, Plaintiffs, for themselves and Releasors, intend to and do fully and finally resolve and release any and all actual and potential claims against Wildevco and Fred's arising from or associated with the Incident and the Suit.

1. CONSIDERATION. For and in consideration of the covenants, promises, and releases set forth in this Agreement, and for and in consideration of the total payment of Two Hundred Ninety Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($290,000.00) by or on behalf of Wildevco and Fred's to Plaintiffs Martha Fountain and Curtis Fountain and their attorneys, Peters, Murdaugh, Parker, Eltzroth & Detrick, PA, the receipt and sufficiency of which Plaintiffs hereby acknowledge, Plaintiffs agree as follows:

2. RELEASE.

   a. Plaintiffs, for themselves and for Releasors, hereby release, acquit and forever discharge Wildevco and Fred's of and from any and all liability, rights, claims, demands, including but not limited to damages, costs, medical costs, expenses, actions, causes of action, suits of liability, wrongful death, survival actions, and controversies of any and every kind and description whatsoever, whether at law or equity, under statute, in contract, or in tort, suspected or unsuspected, known or unknown, without exception or reservation, now existing or which may accrue later, including any and all claims asserted or which could have been asserted in the Suit, on account of and in any manner arising out of or related to the Incident.

   b. Plaintiffs understand and agree that, by execution of this Agreement, Plaintiffs intend to release, and do release, any and all claims whatsoever that the Plaintiffs now have or that may accrue in the future on account of or in any way growing out of any and all known and unknown, foreseen and unforeseen injuries and damages, including but not limited to injuries and damage and the consequences thereof arising out of or related to the Incident, regardless of whether such injuries or damages have actually been suffered, experienced, or incurred by Plaintiffs or whether such injuries or damages may be suffered, experienced or incurred in the future, and with the knowledge that such injuries or damages may be progressive and may worsen or become manifest in the future.

3. DECLARATION OF MEDICARE NON-ELIGIBILITY; PAYMENT OF HEALTH CARE OR OTHER BENEFITS; PAYMENT AND SATISFACTION OF ALL LIENS.

   a. In order to induce Wildevco and Fred's to enter into this Agreement and make the payment to Plaintiffs as set forth in Section 1, Plaintiffs hereby declare, represent and warrant to Wildevco and Fred's that both Plaintiffs are not eligible for Medicare benefits, that they will not become eligible for Medicare benefits within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date, and that none of the health care treatments Plaintiffs received for any claimed injuries, actual or potential, arising out of or related to the Incident were submitted to or paid by Medicare or will be submitted to Medicare for payment. Plaintiffs understand and agree that Wildevco and Fred's are relying on the veracity and accuracy of Plaintiffs' declaration and representation in this Section 3(a) in entering into this Agreement, and that the declaration and representation is a material and non-waivable term of this Agreement.

b. Plaintiffs represent and warrant that Plaintiffs have provided and disclosed to Wildevco and Fred's any and all lien, claims or demands received or known to Plaintiffs or Plaintiffs' attorney asserted or which could be asserted by any person or entity (including, without limitation, Medicaid, any insurer, any hospital or heath care provider, any health plan, any governmental agency or authority or any other person or entity) that (i) relate to or arise out of any health care treatment and any other benefits received or that may be received by Plaintiffs with respect to claimed injuries, actual or potential, arising out of or related to the Incident; and (ii) otherwise relate to or arise out of the Incident. Plaintiffs understand and agree that Wildevco and Fred's are relying on the veracity and accuracy of Plaintiffs' declaration and representation in this Section 3(b) in entering into this Agreement, and that the declaration and representation is a material and non-waivable term of this Agreement.

c. In order to induce Wildevco and Fred's to enter into this Agreement and make the payment to Plaintiffs as set forth in Section 1, Plaintiffs agree that payment under this Agreement is intended to satisfy any and all existing and potential obligations to pay for, or to reimburse the payer (including, without limitation, Medicaid, any insurer, any hospital or health care provider, any health plan, any governmental agency or authority or any other person or entity) of any health care treatment and any other benefits received or that may be received by Plaintiffs with respect to claimed injuries, actual or potential, arising out of or related to the Incident. Plaintiffs understand and acknowledge their obligation to use payment under this Agreement for that purpose.

d. In order to induce Wildevco and Fred's to enter into this Agreement and make the payment to Plaintiffs as set forth in Section 1, Plaintiffs agree they will resolve, pay and satisfy in accordance with applicable laws, and will direct Plaintiffs' attorney to resolve, pay and satisfy in accordance with applicable laws, from the payment under this Agreement any and all liens, claims or demands (i) relating to or arising out of any health care treatment and any other benefits received or that may be received by Plaintiffs with respect to claimed injuries, actual or potential, arising out of or related to the Incident; and (ii) otherwise relating to or arising out of the Incident. In addition to Plaintiffs' obligations under Section 6 of this Agreement, Plaintiffs upon Wildevco and Fred's' request will provide Wildevco and Fred's with proof of Plaintiffs' compliance with Plaintiffs' obligations under this Section 3 and proof of the payment and discharge of any and all liens relating to or arising out of the Incident.

4. INDEMNIFICATION. Plaintiffs shall defend, through counsel selected by Wildevco and Fred's, and shall indemnify Wildevco and Fred's from any and all liens, claims, lawsuits, demands, proceedings or actions with respect to health care treatment, and any other benefits received or that may be received by Plaintiffs as to any claimed injuries, actual or potential, arising out of or related to the incident. This agreement by Plaintiffs to defend and indemnify Wildevco and Fred's includes, but is not limited to, any and all claims, lawsuits, demands, proceedings or actions against Wildevco and Fred's with respect to any Medicare, Medicaid, workers' compensation, hospital or health care, child support or other domestic relation liens, public assistance, attorneys' liens or any other lien or interest, as well as any and all claims, suits, demands, proceedings or actions seeking any fine, penalty or other relief against Wildevco and Fred's arising from, in whole or in part, Plaintiffs' provision or reporting of false or incorrect information to Wildevco and Fred's or Plaintiffs' breach of the declarations and covenants of section 3 of this agreement. This agreement by Plaintiffs to defend and indemnify Wildevco and Fred's further includes, but is not limited to, reimbursing all attorney fees, litigation expenses, and court costs incurred by Wildevco and Fred's or any of them.

5. COOPERATION AND ASSISTANCE. In order to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement, should any person or entity challenge the validity of this Agreement or any term thereof, Plaintiffs hereby agree to and shall execute and deliver to Wildevco and Fred's all documents or agreements and do such further acts and things as Wildevco and Fred's may reasonably request in the present or in the future including, but not limited to, provide to Wildevco and Fred's upon request any correspondence or other documents Plaintiffs sent or submitted to or received from any other holder of an actual or alleged lien or interest, with respect to health care treatment and any other benefits received or that may be received by Plaintiffs as to any claimed injuries, actual or potential, arising out of or related to the Incident, and including documents related to the reduction in any lien or interest arising from such health care treatment or benefits.

6. DISMISSAL OF SUIT/COVENANT NOT TO SUE. Prior to or contemporaneously with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Plaintiffs shall deliver or cause to be delivered to Wildevco and Fred's and filed with the Court in the Suit an agreed upon stipulation and order dismissing the Suit with prejudice, and shall further deliver or cause to be delivered to Wildevco and Fred's such other pleadings or documents, if any, reasonably requested by Wildevco and Fred's and necessary to effectuate the dismissal with prejudice of the Suit. Plaintiffs acknowledge and agree that Plaintiffs' full and complete satisfaction of Plaintiffs' obligations under this Section 6 is a condition precedent to Wildevco and Fred's' obligation to make the payment referenced in Section 1 of this Agreement. If a lawsuit has not been filed, Plaintiffs hereby agree that Plaintiffs will never, directly or indirectly, institute or file, or cause to be instituted or filed, any legal, equitable, administrative or other action, complaint or proceeding against any Released Party relating to or arising out of the Incident.

7. COSTS. Plaintiffs agree that Plaintiffs will bear and be responsible for their own attorney's fees, costs and expenses arising from or related in any way to the Incident, the Suit or this Agreement.

8. NO ADMISSION OF LIABILITY. Plaintiffs understand and hereby agree that this Agreement is a compromise of a disputed claim, and that entry into this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement, any documents executed and delivered incident to this Agreement, and any actions taken in furtherance of this Agreement do not constitute and will not be deemed or construed as an admission of liability or wrongdoing, or of any position whatsoever, in any respect, by Wildevco and Fred's, and that liability or wrongdoing is expressly denied by Wildevco and Fred's.

9. CONFIDENTIALITY.

a. For the separate consideration of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), to be allocated from the settlement payment set forth in Section 1 above, Plaintiffs hereby agree, represent, and warrant that they will not disclose to any person or entity in any manner whatsoever that offers of settlement were made, the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or the amount of any payment under this Agreement, except: (i) to the extent necessary and required by law to appropriate state or federal governmental tax authorities; (ii) to Plaintiffs' tax or financial advisors but only to the extent necessary for financial planning or tax reporting purposes and only if such tax or financial advisors agree to maintain the confidentiality of the settlement between Plaintiffs and Wildevco and Fred's, the amount of the payment under this Agreement and the terms and conditions of this Agreement; (iii) to the extent necessary and required to comply with Plaintiffs' obligations under Sections 3(c) or 3(d) of this Agreement, provided that Plaintiffs notify any recipient that the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the amount of the payment to Plaintiffs under this Agreement are confidential; and (iv) subject to Plaintiffs' satisfaction of the requirements set forth in Section 9(c) of this Agreement, to the extent required to do so by this Agreement, including in conjunction with the ongoing action referenced in Paragraph 12 herein, by valid order of a court of competent jurisdiction or in connection with a judicial proceeding in which Plaintiffs are compelled to testify.

b. Plaintiffs agree to direct, and do hereby direct, their attorney and all members, partners, and employees of such attorneys' law office or law firm, to comply with the confidentiality provisions in this Agreement.

c. Plaintiffs agree to provide as much advance written notice as is reasonably possible to Wildevco and Fred's of any court action or other process that could require disclosure of materials or information encompassed by the confidentiality provisions in this Agreement, other than the ongoing action referenced in Paragraph 12 herein.

d. Plaintiff further agrees that if they, or their attorney, or any members, partners, or employees of such attorney's law office or firm, violate(s) the confidentiality provisions of this Agreement, then Wildevco and Fred's, in addition to and not in lieu of any other rights or remedies that Wildevco and Fred's may have under applicable law, have the right and standing to enjoin any person or entity who has announced an intention to violate the confidentiality provisions of this Agreement or who has violated the confidentiality provisions of this Agreement from any future violation thereof. Plaintiffs acknowledge that confidentiality is an essential term of this Agreement and that no amount of money can compensate Wildevco and Fred's for its violation. Plaintiffs further acknowledge that Wildevco and Fred's, in addition to and not in lieu of any other rights or remedies that Wildevco and Fred's may have under applicable law, may specifically enforce the confidentiality provisions of this Agreement through a court of competent jurisdiction and seek the costs and fees thereof, including attorneys' fees for enforcing these rights.

10. USE OF AGREEMENT. Plaintiffs understand and agree that nothing in Section 9 shall be construed to prohibit Plaintiffs from cooperating with Wildevco and Fred's, including providing testimony as may be requested or required in the pending action, Fred's, Inc. and Wildevco, LLC v. Tippins-Polk Construction, Inc., Case No. 2010-CP-06-101. Plaintiffs understand that this Agreement may be used as evidence, or in any other manner, in any court or dispute resolution proceeding regarding any claims between Fred's or Wildevco and Tippins-Polk Construction, Inc.

11. PLAINTIFFS' ADDITIONAL REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS AND INDEMNITY. Plaintiffs represent, warrant and covenant to Wildevco and Fred's that (i) Plaintiffs have the right and authority to execute this Agreement and to receive the consideration specified in it; (ii) no other person or entity has any right, title or interest in or to any rights, claims, demands, damages, costs, expenses, actions, causes of action, suits of liability, or controversies arising from or related to the Incident or the Suit; and (iii) Plaintiffs have not assigned or transferred, or purported to assign or transfer, in whole or in part, to any person or entity any rights, claims, demands, damages, costs, expenses, actions, causes of action, suits of liability arising from or related to the Incident or the Suit.

Plaintiffs agree that it is the intent of this Agreement to relieve Wildevco and Fred's of any liability for contribution or indemnity to any person or entity that is or may be responsible or liable to Plaintiffs as joint tortfeasors, joint obligors or indemnitors ("Joint Tortfeasors") for any damages or injury arising out of or relating to the Incident. Additionally, this Agreement and the payment made by or on behalf of Wildevco and Fred's pursuant to Section 1 of this Agreement operate as a satisfaction of any claim by Plaintiffs against any and all such Joint Tortfeasors, including Tippins-Polk Construction, Inc., and will reduce any damages recoverable against any and all such Joint Tortfeasors, to the full extent of the relative pro-rata share, if any, of the common liability of Wildevco and Fred's. As such, this Agreement discharges any common liability of Wildevco and Fred's and any Joint Tortfeasors, including Tippins-Polk Construction, Inc., to Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs shall defend and indemnify Wildevco and Fred's from and against any and all liens, claims, lawsuits, demands, proceedings, actions, damages, liabilities, costs, or expenses (including attorneys' fees) arising from or relating to any breach by Plaintiffs of the representations, warranties and covenants contained in this Section including, without limitation, any claims, lawsuits, demands, proceedings or actions for contribution or indemnity by Joint Tortfeasors or any person claiming through a Joint Tortfeasor.

12. AGREEMENT TO COOPERATE. Plaintiffs agree that they will cooperate fully with Wildevco and Fred's as requested in the ongoing case of Fred's, Inc. and Wildevco, LLC v. Tippins-Polk Construction, Inc., Case No. 2010-CP-06-101, including, if necessary, the provision of information, documents, and testimony regarding the events involved and damages alleged in the settled lawsuit, Martha M. Fountain and Curtis Fountain v. Fred's, Inc. and Wildevco, LLC vs. Tippins-Polk Construction, Inc., Case No. 2010-CP-06-101.

13. EXPRESS DISCLAIMER OF RELIANCE. Plaintiffs expressly disclaim any reliance of any kind or nature, whether in discovery or otherwise, on statements, actions or omissions of any kind made or allegedly made by Wildevco and Fred's or their attorneys and agents, regarding the facts of the Incident, any other facts pertinent to this Agreement or the subjects therein, or the contents and legal consequences of this Agreement.

14. REVIEW AND UNDERSTANDING OF AGREEMENT. Plaintiffs represent and warrant that they have had the opportunity to obtain and receive independent legal advice from attorneys of their choosing with respect to the legal effect of this Agreement, and further represent and warrant that they have carefully reviewed this entire Agreement and that each and every term hereof is understood.

15. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF NO FRAUD. Where required by State law, Plaintiffs understand and acknowledge that any person who knowingly and willfully presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or who knowingly and willfully presents false information in an application for insurance is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison.

16. COMPLETE AGREEMENT. Plaintiffs understand and agree that this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement concerning the subject matter herein, that no promise, agreement or inducement not herein expressed has been made to Plaintiffs, and that this Agreement supersedes and replaces all prior and contemporaneous agreements, negotiations, representations, warranties and understandings of Plaintiffs as to the subject matter of this Agreement. All terms and provisions of this Agreement, including the Definitions and Statement of Purpose, are contractual and not a mere recital.

17. SEVERABILITY. Plaintiffs understand and agree that, if any provision of this Agreement is declared to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision or portion of this Agreement will be deemed to be severed and deleted from this Agreement, but this Agreement in all other respects will remain unmodified and continue in full force and effect; provided, however, that this provision does not preclude a court of competent jurisdiction from refusing to sever any provision if severance would be inequitable.

18. INTERPRETATION AND CONSTRUCTION. Plaintiffs represent and agree they have had the opportunity to fully and equally participate in the preparation, negotiation, review and approval of this Agreement. Hence, Plaintiffs agree the terms of this Agreement will not be interpreted against or in favor of Plaintiffs.

19. WAIVER AS TO GENERAL RELEASE. Plaintiffs understand and agree that this Agreement contains a general release by Plaintiffs, and that Plaintiffs expressly waive any and all rights under the law of any state or territory of the United States providing that a general release does not or may not extend to claims Plaintiffs do not know of or suspect to exist at the time of executing such general release where such claims must or would have materially affected Plaintiffs' decision to enter this Agreement.

20. CHOICE OF LAW. Plaintiffs agree that the laws of the State of South Carolina, without regard to the internal law of South Carolina concerning conflicts of law, govern, control and apply to this Agreement and all matters or claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement.

21. EXECUTION IN COUNTERPARTS AND ELECTRONICALLY. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts and transmitted electronically, all of which together will constitute one instrument and all of which will be considered duplicate originals.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Plaintiffs have executed this Agreement on the date indicated.
