Re: Phillips v. State
2013-CP-1400386

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I recently received correspondence from Arthur Aiken Esq, indicating that he will not be going forward as counsel for the appeal by the State. He has also indicated that the Div. of the Appellate Defense will more than likely represent me. But I have one grave concern that I'm forced to present to you in the form of a question - why am I not in Edgefield County Jail? I've seen many - many inmates go to their County Jail be it bond motion or not. When their case gets overturned they normally go back. Why I haven't went? Currently on protective custody is stressing and pressing me mentally. This prison is too dangerous, esp. considering my vacated convictions and sentences. The Clerk nor the Appellate Defense Div. have notified me of representation. I have no one to recommend or request this safer facility for me. I know by law the appeal bond is required, but what about the County. Hope to hear from you soon.
