RE: James R. Rose v. South Carolina
Appellate Case No. : 2017-002052

Dear Clerk:

I have no confidence in appointed counsel Robert M. Dudek, esq. nor do I believe in equal justice in South Carolina's judicial system. I believe that my public defenders at trial and on appeal violated my constitutional rights by conspiring with the trial judge, the South Carolina Court of Appeals and other named and unnamed state officials to secure my conviction on a felony charge brought by the state of South Carolina, in which, lacked subject matter jurisdiction and I should have been granted a directed verdict because the state failed to produce evidence of the offense charged; fatal variance between charge and proof, and I should've dismissed this case long ago. At this time, I asked that you dismiss Appellate Case No. : 2017-002052 as I no longer desire to appeal the Order of Dismissal from my application for post-conviction relief, filed September 15, 2017, 11:11 AM.

Sincerely,

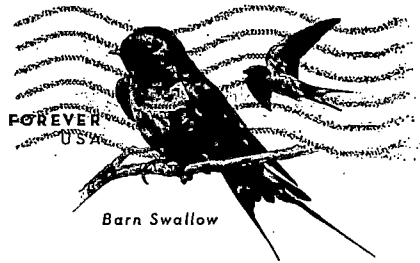

James R. Rose
