IN THE COURT OF APPEALS

APPEAL FROM RICHLAND COUNTY
ROBERT E HOOD, CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE
Case No. 2019-CP-40-02126

B&B Attorneys, LLC,..... Plaintiffs,

vs.

Overture Eroica Walker, Stoney & Walker, LLC., Joy Stoney, and Stoney Law Firm, LLC,..... Defendants

and

Overture Eroica Walker, and Stoney & Walker, LLC,..... Third-Party Plaintiffs,

vs.

Beth Bernstein and Lowell Bernstein Respondents,

Of Whom Overture Eroica Walker, Stoney & Walker, LLC, are the Appellants.

MOTION TO ACCEPT UPDATE ON TRANSCRIPT REQUEST OUT OF TIME

Appellants Overture Eroica Walker and Stoney & Walker, LLC (“Appellants”) filed a notice of appeal on January 24, 2020. A Transcript Request Form was completed on January 27, 2020. Exhibit A. This transcript request was provided to the court reporter via email on January 28, 2020, who responded several days later with notice of her retirement. She indicated that she would forward the request along to Court Administration, and in response, our office was contacted on February 3 with a request for a copy of the original transcript request. The form was provided exactly ten minutes after it was requested that same day. Within another hour, our office was advised that the request was being “sent to a court reporter who will provide you with an estimate cost and delivery date.” Hearing nothing further for an extended time thereafter, our office again inquired about the status of the transcript request by sending an email to transcripts@sccourts.org on April 28, 2020. The email response received the following date indicated “I will check with the court reporter to see where they are with these records.” The referenced communications are all included on the enclosed Exhibit B attached to this motion.

Earlier today, May 8, 2020, we received contact from the Clerk of Court’s office, inquiring as to the failure to respond to an inquiry dated April 24, 2020 regarding the transcript. That call was the first notice we had received regarding the April 24, 2020 correspondence. As reflected in the email exchange enclosed on Exhibit B, had we received notice we would have timely responded to a communication from the clerk’s office.

Upon reliance on indications received, as shown on Exhibit A, that our requests were being noted and that arrangements for a replacement court reporter being assigned to prepare the requisite transcript in the above-captioned matter, our office did not prepare and submit any notice of a failure to receive the transcript per Rule 207(a)(5), SCACR. To the extent that was an obligation missed by Appellants, it was in good faith and we respectfully submit it was a failure for which good cause exists to excuse.

Accordingly, Appellants respectfully move this Court for relief in the form of either:

- (A) recognition of this pleading as sufficient compliance with any requisite notice required of Appellant pursuant to Rule 207(a)(5), SCACR regarding the current failure to have received the requested transcript in this matter; or
- (B) an extension of time of ten days in which to notify the proper recipients pursuant to Rule 207(a)(5), SCACR of Appellant's non-receipt of the requested transcript.

Respectfully submitted,

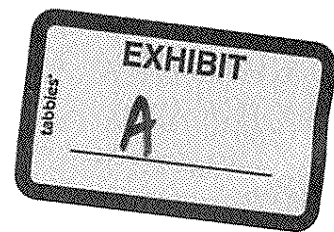

Desa Ballard
