Good Morning Mr. Hoffman,

I hope you are well today!

I have received your correspondence with regard to the transcript status. Please also find attached, for your records, the Court's letter dated April 14, 2020 that unfortunately did not get delivered to you. It appears you have timely ordered the transcript pursuant to the Supreme Court's order dated March 20, 2020. I will be uploading all exchanged correspondence shortly.

I am copying opposing counsel on this thread so they are aware of our communication.

Respectfully,
LaToyla Burns

LaToyla,

Please see attached letter that was mailed to the Court Reporter, Mona Manley, on April 2, 2020, that I mentioned in my 5/15 email to you.

Bruce

LaToyla, this follows your late Friday 5/15 phone call with my assistant. This 4/2 letter is the only letter we ever got from you about the appeal, and it says nothing about the transcript. We ordered the transcript by letter to the court reporter also on 4/2, copy to Court Administration. To my understanding, under Rule 207 the court reporter normally has 60 days from the date of order to complete the transcript or ask for an extension, that would be July 1, and I thought also all deadlines have been extended for coronavirus beyond the normal 60 days. So what exactly were you asking about the transcript? Please advise. Thank you.

BRUCE HOFFMAN
