Subject: RE: 2017-002517 Fine Housing, Inc. v. William H. Sloan, Jr.

Dear Counsel,

Thank you for your responses to my email. In light of Ms. Burton's conflict, we will schedule this appeal for oral argument on June 16, 2020, at 10:40 am. The time limits for argument remain the same.

We can be a little more flexible for the test of Webex. Would counsel prefer to test at 2:00 pm on May 27 or 10:00 am on May 28? Our goal is to test early so that we have time to schedule a second test if needed.

Regarding the attorneys who are no longer associated with this matter, a motion will have to be made. By operation of Rule 264, SCACR, an attorney remains counsel of record until relieved by court order. Court correspondence is sent via email to all counsel of record to the primary and alternate addresses those attorneys have provided to the Attorney Information System. Attorneys have a continuing duty to update AIS with a mailing address, email address, and phone number.

Please reply to this email to confirm availability for oral argument and testing.

Warmly,

Jenny

Dear Counsel:

In response to the Covid-19 pandemic, the Court of Appeals is pursuing remote oral arguments via Cisco Webex. If counsel are available, we would like to schedule this appeal for June 9, 2020, at 11:20 am. The time limits for argument are as follows:

Appellant: 10 minutes

Respondent: 10 minutes

Appellant in reply: 5 minutes

By reply to this email, please let me know whether there are any conflicts with this date and time.

We would also like to schedule a test of Webex beforehand. By reply to this email, please let me know your availability to test on May 26, 2020, at 11:15 am.
