Dear Sir/ Madame: I represent the Appellant in this case. I filed a Motion to strike part of Respondent's Designation of Matter on March 19th. Respondent did not file a timely Return. On April 17th, Respondent filed an "electronic Motion" for a 30 day extension of time to respond. I filed a Return on April 21 objecting for various reasons including the lack of justification for any opposition to my Motion. Respondent did not file any timely Reply. On May 15th, Respondent filed the same "electronic Motion asking for a 30 day extension. No reference was made to my Return. I ask that this email be considered as a supplement to my Return in opposition to any further extensions without the need for any further filing. Cordially, Edward A. Bertele.
