Dear Clerk,

On April 27th, 2020 I received the letter from the S.C. Court of Appeals dated April 16th. regarding the April 27th deadline to fix all deficiencies with the Notice of Appeal which I sent to the court some time ago.

I now respectfully request that the doctrine of equitable tolling be applied due to the Lee County Correctional Institutions mail room delaying to deliver the letter until the day of the deadline.

This delay made it impossible to comply with the Courts Order in meeting the deadline, however all of the deficiencies have been fixed with the exception of the $250 court fee, which I now respectfully request be waived under the circumstances due to the facts that (1) this Notice of Appeal is an appeal to the denial of a Motion to Re-instate case No. 2013CP1801297 which was dismissed only due to non payment of $150 court costs, which according to the Inmate financial certificate should have been waived and (2) the COVID19 pandemic.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ MDR

COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
SECTION FOR DISSENT AND OPINIONS
PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO DISMISS AND

...the Court of Appeals to determine the propriety of the Defendants' motion to dismiss and to determine whether to grant a writ of habeas corpus. A hearing was held on August 13, 2018 before the Honorable Judge W. Keith Simpson. The Defendants argued that the claims asserted by Plaintiff fail to state facts sufficient to support relief which relief may be granted as to the Defendants. The Defendants contend that the Plaintiff's claim is barred by the doctrine of collateral estoppel as to previously adjudicated and settled claims against the Defendants that arose from the same facts and circumstances alleged in this action. Finally, the Defendants argued that the applicable statute of limitations has expired on the claims since the incident occurred on July 12, 2011. The Plaintiff's motion to amend in forma pauperis was denied on September 12, 2013 and the Plaintiff failed to file a notice of appeal until January 11, 2017. As such, the applicable statute of limitations has expired.

Based on the foregoing and the arguments presented by Plaintiff and Defendants at the hearing on August 13, 2018, the court DENIES the Plaintiff's motion to dismiss and GRANTS the Defendants' Motion to Dismiss.

IT IS SO ORDERED that the Plaintiff's Motion to Dismiss is DENIED and the Defendants' Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED.
