I called Court Administration on April 15, 2020 and left a message to return my call pertaining to this transcript , with no reply . I followed up with another letter on April 16 ,2020 to Court Administration with no reply. I requested the Court of Appeals to apply to Court Administration on April 22, 2020 . (see attached) With no reply from Court of Appeals.

I'm not allowed per Court rules to request an "extension" for the Court reporter .

Please look into this matter pertaining to the transcript .

Court,

Received the Court's letter dated April 16, 2020 pertaining to submission of the Order from Judge Keesley on this appeal. In H. Wayne Charpia's experience with the judicial system in Dorchester County thru the past 18 years , most Judges don't issue Orders , but just a Form 4.

As most Judges in Dorchester do not adhere to the statutes and or Laws of the Court , but make them up as they seem. In this appeal and "Motion to Disburse Homestead Exemption ", Judge Keesley did not submit an Order.

No Order with findings of fact nor conclusions of law , just a Form 4 and a letter to the Clerk's office . Please see attached , I have enclosed the " Motion to Disburse" and his letter.

I submitted the motion and paid the required fee of $ 25.00 .

I have requested the transcript on 2 occasions from Court Admin. with no reply , as I filed both letters with the appeals Court.

We know that Pro Se litigants do not have the same constitutional rights thru the Court system as attorneys. We have always adhered to the Court's orders and requests.

Please accept the documents sent and please contact Court Admin.

pertaining to my requests for transcript.

With regards,

Jody E. Charpia
