Dear Mr. McDaniel:

I have been asked to respond to your letter of March 11, 2019, addressed to the Parole Board, concerning your recent parole rejection. Specifically, that the Board keeps rejecting you for parole based on the same reasons. Please be advised that the Parole Board is well within its authority to reject you for the same reasons as in past years.

Please keep in mind that under the laws in South Carolina neither the Governor nor the Director of the Department of Probation, Parole, and Pardon Services has any authority to grant parole. The decision to grant a parole is in the sole discretion of the South Carolina Board of Parole, and Pardon Services.

Thank you for your inquiry.

Sincerely,
